KIDNAPPING OF MISS STONE

The United States May Send a Fleet Through the Dardanelles to Get at the Macedonian Committee.

Constantinople, Oct. 3.—American representatives have secured evidence proving the complicity of members of the Macedonian committee at Sofia in the kidnapping of the American missionary, Miss Helen H Stone, and her companion, Madam Tsilka, and the assurance given by the Bulgarian government relative to the measures to be taken against the abductors show that the gravity of the affair is appreciated at Sofia. The departure of the United States consul general at Constantinople, C M Dickinson, for the Bulgarian capital, is expected to result in increased activity.

London, Oct. 4.—"The United States government is determined to exact full revenge upon every one concerned," says the Constantinople correspondent of The Daily Telegraph, "and if anything happens to Miss Stone it will not hesitate to ask permission to bring a fleet through the the Dardanelles to get at Bulgarian ports on the Black Sea and to force the Bulgarian government to act against the Macedonian committe."

Perhaps You Wonder

if the tormenting cold that made last winter one long misery will be as bad this year. Certainly not, if you take Allen's Lung Balsam when tickling and rawness in the throat announce the presence of the old enemy. Do not expect the cold to wear itself out. Take the right remedy in time. Allen's Lung Balsam is free from opium.

Strictly in It.

The other day while two of our ladies were driving to Mr. Dan Krimminger's they stopped to water their horse in a harmless looking little stream, a tributary to Little Cold Water. The horse finding the water too shallow to drink took a step or two up the stream and to their horror they saw he was disappearing from sight and realizing their danger sprang from their buggy and called for help. The man, who came to their aid, told them the horse was mired in quicksand and he might not be able to get him out. He immediately cut the horse from the buggy and with great difficulty got him on firm land. He said that the same accident has happened to others quite often and yet no danger sign is put up.

Our good County Commissioners must surely have overlooked such a dangerous place. We beg leave to call their attention to it at once to insure the good people of Cabarrus from such a death trap.

Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the sufferings it has relieved and the lives of their little ones it has saved. Strikes at the root of the trouble and draws out the inflamation. The children's favorite Cough Cure.—Gibson Drug Store.

The Oldest Clown.

John Lowlow, the world's famous clown, is with the circus and was in to pay his respects to The News force this morning. Age is dealing gently with Mr. Lowlow. His eyes sparkle with the old time lustre. His step is steady and he is at all times ripe for a joke. His collection of amusing incidents that have been crowded into a life, well nigh spent in the show business, would fill a book and would be well worth one's time reading.

Mr. Lowlow is a graduate of the University of North Carolina He attended the University with a number of Charlotte's prominent men of the past. Most of his college friends have crossed over the river, but he clings to life with a tenacity born of a desire to see all that this world affords.

John Lowlow's name has, and will continue to be, a household word and North Carolina — Coarlotte News of 3rd.

Do you suffer from piles? If so do not turn to surgery for relief. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will act more quickly, surely and safely, saving you the expense and danger of an operation.—Gibson Drug Store.

Drug Stores Run by Women

There are two drug stores in Moore county run by ladies—at Southern Pines and Pinebluff. The one at Southern Pines is owned and run by the Misses Johnson, who were born and reared in this county. They are practical business-like women and have made a success of their business. Their drug store is neat, clean and attractive. The one at Pinebluff is run by Miss Elizabeth Packard, a Northern lady.—Sanford Express.

THE ROBINSON SHOW.

Imposing Parade and Full Tent—Some Features of Special Merit.

Robinson's Show always brings a crowd to Concord and this year was no exception.

The street parade was imposing and quite elaborate. There were more than 125 horses and ponies. Many of the horses showed the want of rest and recreation.

The show received all the patronage that could be expected for the tent was almost packed in the afternoon, and a fair night attendance.

The performances were fairly good with some novel features.

Solomon's Temple and the presentation of those historic scenes in pantomime is a feature of decided excellence.

A group of trained hogs is novel indeed. They performed much like dogs and ponies. One for instance, poised itself on a barrel and rolled it. The clown drove a pair to a cart around the ring.

The contortionist is unusually limber and beyond the usual feats he went into a common barrel feet foremost and came out feet foremost. then entered head foremost and came out head foremost, going entirely witnin the barrel and making a complete turn.

The racing was good.

The acrobats displayed some great feats of strength and muscular training.

In the line of naturalist the show has a cage of pelicans We have yet to hear any one say he ever saw pelicans in a show before.

The show as a whole was fairly good with some features of special merit.

A Formu's for Health.

Here is a fine formula for health and longevity:

Leave work before you are tired.

Stop eating before you are stuffed.

Think less of the troubles of the world and naught of your own.

Let nothing come between you and your God.

And last, but not least, in the words of the immortal Irishman, "If you can't be aisy, be as aisy as you can."—Journal and Messenger.

Robbery in Mecklenburg.

The home of Rev. the R C White, of Sharen, township, Mecklenburg County was robbed Thursday of jewelry and whatever was found of special value. The family were all away.

Remembered Their Comrade.

A number of years ago John King, an elephant trainer, was killed at the Southern freight depot by "Old Chief." Every time a circus comes this way the grave in Elmwood is covered with flowers by the circus people. Today proved no exception. A little band of circus attaches singled out the grave this afternoon and covered it with autumn blossoms.—Charlotte News of 3rd.

COLUMBIA WINS.

Last Contest Came Off Friday Leaving the Cup in America.

The third and final race for the world's champion yachting prize cup came off on Friday, the 4th, and the Columbia won again, shutting off the Shamrock in every contest.

Just 50 years ago the yacht, America, went over to Cowes England and competed for the prize cup offered and won it. The cup came to America showing the superiority of the American build. Every effort to get back the cup, that is to build a swifter yacht in England, has failed. Sir Thomas Lipton has not spared money to excel the American build. The Shamrock is copper lined and was so clean and bright that it shone like gold but when the race was won Friday he led his English group in three cheers for the Columbia, "She is the better boat," said he, "and deserves to be cheered."

The yacht is a vessel built with a view to speed at the sacrifice of almost every other consideration.

This prize cup and these periodical contests have greatly stimulated the art of yacht building, but doubtless national pride is the chief stimulus.

A Peep at the Headgear.

It is the man behind the gun to whom the honor is due but we look with special admiration at the gun all the same. So it is the soul of the lady we love and almost adore but we still gaze with rapture on that which makes her an object of fascination to the eye. The crowning touch to her charms is the hat as a matter of course. Wednesday embraced the opening of all the millinery stocks in the centre of town and the pencil pusher took a peep.

Miss Dora Hix presides over the stock at D P Dapvault's and she is justly proud of a splendid display, the analytical description of which we will not attempt.

It was decidedly pleasing to see Miss Nannie Alexander's original design which we noted when it took the third prize at Buffalo. It was donned the violin string hat and is over the land far and wide as style this fall. We found many others in her charming parlor to rival it in beauty.

At the Department Store we found a very creditable display in line with so many others that our eye could not demand more. It made us think it not the worst thing to be born a girl.

Miss Mary Brachen is not behind her usual degree of excellence this fall in displays so neat that surely ever demand of good taste can be met there. We quite agree in taste with the purchaser of one at the neat sum of fifteen dollars, and there were others to put the superlative of sweetness on one's sweetheart.

We find the bird much in evidence this season chiefly as an underneath trimming which places the feathered friend in a vertical position.

Scratched felt enters largely into the composition of the body of the hat and this together with Angora wool combed into downy floss and gracefully touched on heavy material give the hats a winter scene appearance and suggests high latitudes. Brown is the leading color this season.

The funniest style we noted is called Paradora!

The styles are not what we would call gorgeous in makeup but they are decidedly neat and pretty for the winter season, the large majority displaying some weight and warmpth to harmonize with the heavy goods so properly worn.

Has Two Hearts.

Through an accident, a man living in Chicago is discovered to have two healthy hearts. About twelve years ago while working in a stone quarry in Germany, the man is investigating why a charge of powder had failed to explode was injured and with several other men, was picked up for dead. A man, on putting an ear to the injured man's breast discovered the heart beat, though on the wrong side. When physicians arrived they found not only the abnormal organ but the normal one as well. The right heart is said to perform its functions as properly as the left, against which it presses slightly, and both are as free from disease apparently as any normal heart. Physicians say there has never been a similar case, so far as medical records show.—Monroe Enquirer.

THE FALL RIVER MILL STRIKE.

It Will Probably Go Into Effect Monday and Will be a Big One.

Fall River, Mass., Oct. 4.—The final preparations for the greatest industrial strike that the city of Fall River has ever experienced were made tonight when the operatives, with the exception of the spinners, voted unanimously to go on strike next Monday morning. Late this afternoon a conference with no result was held between the executive committee of the manufacturers and textile council officers. Afterward the various unions met. The principal one was of the weavers. The resolution to strike was adopted by a vote of 402 to 207. The other figures were as follows: Loom fixers, 164 to 58; carders, 295 to 55, and slashers, 96 to 22.

In all cases the vote was made unanimous, and this apparently means a strike on Monday morning. The reason for the strike which seems impending is the declination of the manufacturers to raise wages 5 per cent. in line with the action of Mr. Borden, of the Iron Works Mill.

Fatal Fight in a Georgia Town.

McDonough, Ga., Oct. 2.—In a desperate fight that occurred here this morning between J T Upchurch, his sons, Victor and Charley Upchurch, on one side, and Willis Goodwin, Jr., and Mack Goodwin on the other, Charley Upchurch was instantly killed, Willis Goodwin probably fatally wounded and T J Upchurch and his son Victor painfully hurt. The only eye-witnesses to the tragedy were the participants and they refused to give the cause of the difficulty. The coroner's jury tonight decided that Charles Upchurch had been killed by his brother. The participants were well known in the county.

Western Lynchings.

James E Brady, a white man, charged with assaulting a five-year-old girl was hanged by a mob at Helena, Mont., on the 2nd. 200 masked men took him out of jail, threatening the death of the jailor so as to get the keys. Brady told the mob they had the wrong man but he was well identified. He was drawn up by a rope over a limb and left, the mob dispersing in a quiet way.

At Shelbyville, Ky., Jimbo Fields, aged 16, and Clarence Garnett, aged 18, both negro boys were lynched on the 2nd for the murder of Willie Hart whom they stoned to death on Sept. 22nd.

A Meritorious Inovation.

Pardon boards are a legislative invention for weakening the punitive hand of justice by dividing the responsibility for the remission of penalties. The Governor of North Carolina has devised a means of making surreptitious mercy difficult in that State by requiring that all applications for pardon of convicts must be duly advertised in advance in the newspapers of the locality in which the offenders lived or in which the crime was committed. This is an innovation that might be advantageously introduced in other States.—Philadelphia Record.

Less than a year ago some capitalists set up a factory at Wilmington with which to utilize the exhaustless supply of menhaden fish, as they are better known, "fat backs." The success was so marked that another of double the capacity of the first is to be erected at once. The oil is extracted for commercial purposes and the rest of the fish is sold as fish scraps to the fertilizer plants.

Fire at Mooresville.

A Mooresville special of the 4th to the Charlotte Observer says:

Since the defeat of the water works at this place, a few weeks ago, the alarm of fire has been heard by our citizens three times. For more than two years previous to the election there was not a single alarm. Today at 12 o'clock fire broke out in Mrs. McCorkle's residence. The cook room adjoining the house caught from a defective flue and the flames had made rapid progress when discovered. By heroic work the fire was extinguished before much damage was done. The volunteer bucket brigade—men and women—worked valiantly until danger point had passed.

It Happened in a Drug Store.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C R Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring them to me and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy. It is for sale by M L Marsh.

"For three days and nights I suffered agony, caused from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M B Loether, clerk of the district court, Carroll, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all to no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and three doses relieved me entirely." This remedy is for sale by M L Marsh.
