VOL. V. No. 22.

CONCORD N. C. TUESDAY MAY 24, 1892.

WHOLE No. 643

A FINE TALKER.

The Court House Crowded to Hear Ex-Gov. Jno. P. St. John, of Kansas, on the Prohibition Issue.

Kansas has one man, who has never heard that the Civil War is over—that gentleman, J. J. Ingalls, has been relegated to private life.

Unlike this man, Gov. St. John is a handsome gentleman, with all the natural blessings necessary to attract attention. He believes that the War is over. He said so, in a way that was convincing.

It is seldom that a better audience ever gathers in Concord. The court house was packed, the vestibule filled and a number were turned away. The ladies of the town furnished music and Rev. Paul Barringer opened the exercises with prayer.

Cashier Coltrane introduced the speaker.

When Gov. St. John began, it looked very much like the audience would be tired. He started off in an easy, slow way. But it was only a space of a few minutes until he got the audience to willingly follow him through his discussion.

The Standard does not attempt anything like a report of the speech. Space does not admit of it.

Gov. St. John handled his subject differently from many Prohibition speakers. He was pretty tolerably kind in the selection of adjectives description of the Democratic and Republican parties. He accuses them, however, for the present condition of the whiskey traffic. He claims that the Prohibition party is the christian party.

He said that if the 240,000 bar-rooms were placed side by side, with a twenty foot front, they would reach 920 miles. That if the money spent for whiskey annually would load up wagons—2000lbs of silver dollars to the wagon enough to make a procession over 800 miles long.

Gov. St. John is indeed an interesting talker; his cool, calm and deliberate manner and his unique way of putting things attracts the attention and holds it for hours. He held this one 1 1/2 hours and not one individual was tired, it seems.

His illustrations are catching, oftentimes comic.

Gov. St. John denies that the Prohibition cause is a side issue. The way he presented his issues, he side-tracked the old political parties, which he termed prejudice.

People are not hurt by hearing such speeches—they are rather informed and benefitted, and all is well. With such a canvass as Gov. St. John is making, the party, which he espouses and heads, must necessarily gain strength. When it becomes a little more popular, the old parties may make overtures, or words to that effect.

The Concord Perpetual Building & Loan Association will commence its 8th series of stock June 4th 1892. Books are now open for subscription with the Secretary and Treasurer at Cannons & Fetzer's store. Persons wanting to help a home institution that is building up the town, or wishing a safe investment that is paying good interest, or a good savings bank for small earnings, will subscribe to this, one of the best institutions of our town. Borrowers getting money through this association pay a less rate of interest than they can obtain money from any other source for. We make the following estimate (based on our experience of four years): A loan of $1000, at time of subscription, will cost, to repay, about $1,250, making the interest for the use of $1000 for about six years $250, or about 4 per cent. We are now lending upwards of $1300 per month and hope to increase the number of shares so that we can do still better. The president or secretary will explain its workings at any time to any one desiring information.

J. P. ALLISON, Pres't.

H I WOODHOUSE, Sec. and Treas.

THE PLATFORM.

Adopted by the State Convention at Raleigh Wednesday.

Resolved 1. That the Democracy of North Carolina reaffirm the principles of the Democratic party, both State and national, and particularly favor the free coinage of silver and an increase of the currency, and the repeal of the Internal revenue system. And we denounce the McKinley tariff bill as unjust to the consumers of the country, and leading to the formation of trusts, combines and monopolies which have oppressed the people; and especially do we denounce the unnecessary and burdensome increase in the tax on cotton ties and on tin, so largely used by the poorer portion of the people. We likewise denounce the iniquitous force bill, which is not yet abandoned by the Republican party, but is being urged as a measure to be adopted as soon as they regain control of the House of Representatives, the purpose and effect of which measure will be to establish a second period of reconstruction in the Southern States, to subvert the liberties of our people and inflame a new race antagonism and sectional animosities.

2 That we demand financial reform, and the enactment of laws that will remove the burdens of the people relative to the existing agricultural depression, and do full and ample justice to the farmers and laborers of our country.

3. That we demand the abolition of national banks, and the substitution of legal tender Treasury notes, in lieu of national bank notes, issued in sufficient volume to do the business of the country on a cash system, regulating the amount needed on a per capita basis as the business interests of the country expand, and that all money issued by the government shall be legal tender in payment of all debts, both public and private.

4. That we demand that Congress shall pass such laws as shall effectually prevent the dealing in futures of all agricultural and mechanical productions: providing such stringent system of procedure in trials as shall secure prompt conviction and imposing such penalties as shall secure most perfect compliance with the law.

5. That we demand the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

6. That we demand the passage of laws prohibiting the alien ownerships of land, and that Congress take early steps to devise some plan to obtain all lands now owned by alien and foreign syndicates; and that all lands now held by railroads and other corporations, in excess of such as is actually used and needed by them, be reclaimed by the government and held for actual settlers only.

7. Believing in the doctrine of equal rights to all and special privileges to none, we demand that taxation, national or State, shall not be used to build up one interest or class at the expense of another. We believe that the money of the country should be kept as much as possible in the hands of the people, and hence we demand that all revenue, national, State or county, shall be limited to the necessary expenses of the government, economically administered.

8. That Congress issue a sufficient amount of fractional paper currency to facilitate the exchange through the medium of the United States mail.

9. That the General Assembly pass such laws as will make the public school system more effective, that the blessings of education may be extended to all the people of the State alike.

Mr. McDonald, of Cabarrus, moved that the platform be adopted by acclamation. The following amendment was offered and accepted.

Resolved, That we favor a graduated tax on incomes.

If the roll were called, Concord's population would be found at home.

Cannons, Fetzer & Bell.

Now about Segars, before the war I always smoked Henry Clay's but since the old man is dead his boys have let the brands run down and I had to give 'em up entirely. I find the only place I can get a decent Segar is at Fetzer's Drug Store. Did you ever try 'em? Well, you just drop in there some time. You won't be disappointed. Fetzer seems to have the knack of getting hold of about all that's worth having in that line, and the fact is you'll get a better Segar there for five cents than nine-tenths of the Segar stores in the country will give you for ten.

And by the way, Fetzer's is the best place in the State for iced drinks, Soda-water, Lemonade, and such stuff, if you ever drink anything as mild as that. I do occasionally. A man WILL get a little behind on water sometimes, you know.
