

Will It Be White Control?

N. Y. Sun.

There is one question depending on the election of the next President which in its momentous importance and vital imperativeness must seem to every philosophic observer to exceed every other political question that the people are now called upon to determine. All differences of opinion respecting administrative reform, or silver coinage, or free trade or protection, or the personal qualities or antecedents of candidates, in short, the whole ordinary array of electoral controversies, are, in comparison, of inferior, indeed of almost trivial movement.

We mean the question whether those Southern States which have inherited a negro population surpassing the number of their white citizens, by Federal law and Federal military force, be subjected to the political domination of the negroes, to negro Legislatures, negro Governors, and negro Judges in their courts, or whether they shall continue to be governed by white men as now.

Now, it makes no difference who may be the President whom the Republican party elects—since Mr. Blaine is now permanently out of the line of power—that party is by its nature and traditions under the necessity of enacting and executing an election law whose purpose and effect will be to put the negroes in control of several of the Southern States. There will be some unwillingness on the part of a patriotic minority among the Republicans who will revolt at the consequences of such a measure, but their opposition cannot avail. The necessity of the situation will suppress all such resistance. A Force bill is the first, and the inevitable result of a Sweeping Republican victory in November.

On the other hand, and by the nature and necessity of the ideas involved, the success of the Democracy is death to the Force bill project. Killed in this election, it can never be revived.

In this view of the contest what conscientious Democrat can hesitate about his duty? Better vote for the liberty and the white government of the Southern States, even if the candidate were the Devil himself, rather than consent to the election of respectable Benjamin Harrison with a Force bill in his pocket!

Catawba's Reunion.

The Newton Enterprise, in speaking of the re-union of Catawba county soldiers, July 4th. has this to say about one of our honored citizens:

Dr. Bays of Concord, who was prevented from addressing the soldiers, at the fair last fall by sickness will be here. He is a fine orator and worth coming miles to hear.

The Third Party to the Front.

Washington, D. C., June 24.—The third party was in full force in the house this morning and voted solidly against a motion made by McMillin, of Tennessee, that when the house adjourned today it be to meet Monday. When the vote showed a majority for the motion, Watson, of Georgia, raised the point of no quorum.

McMillin then asked unanimous consent that a recess be taken until 8 o'clock this evening, but Kilgore objecting, the house adjourned till tomorrow.

How North Carolina Voted.

A special from Chicago to the Statesville Landmark, explaining the vote of North Carolina, says that our State delegation cast its ballot this way: Three and one-third for Cleveland, one for Morrison, one for Boies and sixteen and two-thirds for Stevenson. Pinnix, Graham, Elias and Means, the latter casting one-third of a vote, voted for Cleveland; LeGrand for Morrison and Moore for Boies. The other delegates voted solidly for Stevenson.

The "Baby Ruth" Badge.

Mr. J. P. Caldwell in writing to his paper, says this about a Cabarrus Citizen:

Col. Paul B Means was the first man to appear in the convention to day wearing a Baby Ruth badge. It is a pretty thing—a baby girl appearing from out the folds of a three leaved clover, and a white ribbon pendant, bearing the words, "Baby Ruth." The town is full of the badges this evening. The gallant colonel's idea is that as this campaign is to be one between Baby Ruth and Baby McKee, true chivalry calls upon every American citizen to rally to the former.

An Old Fake.

The following, reproduced from memory after a lapse of twenty years, may be of some interest to the curious. It shows the importance of punctuation. It may read in two ways: making a very bad man or a very good man, the result depend upon the manner in which it is punctuated: He is an old experienced man in vice and he is never found opposing the walks of iniquity he takes delight in the downfall of his neighbors he never rejoices in the prosperity of any of his fellow creatures he is always ready to assist in destroying the peace of society among his friends and acquaintances he takes no pride in serving the Lord he gives that heed to the devil he will never go to heaven he must go where he will receive a just recompense of reward.—Durham Globe.

A Claim for Six Million Acres

San Antonio, Texas, June 24.—Dr. J. R. W. C. Love, an American residing in the City of Mexico, will arrive here shortly for the purpose of instituting suit in the United States courts for the recovery of 6,000,000 acres of land in Northern Texas, including that portion on which Dallas and Fort Worth are located. Dr. Love claims that this land was granted to Col. Ruben Ross, an ancestor, for services. Its value is estimated at $1,000,000,000. A number of the heirs of Colonel Ross, living in Louisiana, Texas, New York and California, are interested with Dr. Love in the proposed suit.

Ingalls Going to Europe.

New York, June 24.—Senator John J. Ingalls arrived here this morning. He will leave tomorrow for Europe.

Mr. Coley Dead.

The Standard regrets to hear of the death of Mr. Martin S. Colly, of Rowan, whose serious illness was noted in these columns some time ago. He died of typhoid fever at the age of 22 years.

Mr. Colly, when a student at Mt. Pleasant two years ago, was one of the most popular young men in town; he visited Concord often being more than a friend here, in Salisbury Mr. Colly was deservedly popular, being a general favorite.

State Agent,
St. Cloud Hotel, Concord, N. C.

They poulticed her feet and poulticed her head, And blistered her back till 'twas smarting and red, Tried tonics, elixirs, pain-killers and salves, (Though grandma declared it was nothing but 'niggers.') And the poor woman thought she must certainly die. This "Favorite Prescription" she happened to try. No wonder its praises so loudly they speak, She grew better at once and was well in a week.

The torturing pains and distressing nervousness which accompany, at times, certain forms of "female weakness," yield like magic to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and adapted to the delicate organization of woman. It allays and subdues the nervous symptoms and relieves the pain accompanying functional and organic troubles.

It's a legitimate medicine—an invigorating, restorative tonic, a soothing and strengthening nerve, and a positive remedy for "female weaknesses" and ailments. All functional disturbances, irregularities, and derangements are cured by it. There's nothing like it in the way it acts—there's nothing like it in the way it's sold. It's guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or the money paid for it is promptly refunded.

Read the guarantee on the wrapper. You lose nothing if it doesn't help you—but it will.
