

SOME SNAP SHOTS AT SHORT RANGE.

Scenes and incidents in the Passing Show of Life in this Metropolis and Vicinity, as Caught by Our Kodak, Reported by Truthful Persons, or Evolved from the Editor's Brain.

Have you registered?

Mrs. D J Bostian is quite sick.

Capt. Jonas Cook of Mt. Pleasant, spent the day in town.

Considerable sickness is reported among the children near Harrisburg.

Mayor Mark Morrison of Harrisburg, spent the morning in town.

The weather cleared off magnificently or words to that effect.

Mrs. Dr. C C Sapp, of Stateville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. D J Bostian.

Gov. Holt will enter the campaign and do all he can for the election of Elias Carr.

Mark Morrison bought himself a new Waterbury watch. He, too, carries it in hip pocket.

The North Carolina delegation to the Third Party Convention left Tuesday night for Omaha.

Let us all go to the lawn party at Forest Hill, Friday night. They always do things right there.

In all candor, The Standard believes that Mr. Cleveland is not near so unpopular as it was first reported.

Hiram Alexander, colored, one of Mr. D F Cannons croppers in No 2, heads the county so far as cotton blooms are concerned. He found one on the 29th and it was a red one.

Dr. Joe Betts (dentist), who enjoyed his babyhood at Mt. Pleasant, while his father, Rev. A D Betts, preached there, has been visiting those scenes again.

Forest Hill congregation have given their pastor, Rev. H M Blair, a months, vacation at any time during the summer he may see fit, to take it.

The ladies of Forest Hill church will give a lawn party on the factory lawn, Friday evening. No admission fee. Cake, Ice cream and other delicacies will be served.

The Salisbury Herald, in speaking of a marriage says: "The Herald learns from a gentleman who was in Marion yesterday that the citizens are more or less indignant over the affair."

Jno. W Johnston didn't show us any cotton blooms, but he brought in a couple of cotton bolls, this (Thursday morning), as large as walnuts. They are at Swink's store, if you doubt it.

Invitations have been issued by Miss Grace Gibson for an entertainment at her home, Friday night. It is given complimentary to her visiting friend Miss Mattie McCaughrin, a deservedly popular young lady, of Newbery, S C.

The funeral services over the remains of little Sammy, the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. R A Brown, were held at the house, by Rev. Dr. C M Payne. A large number of people were in attendance upon the sad occasion. The hymns sung were those that were favorites with little Sammy during life: "Precious Jewels," "Gather them in" and "I will follow Jesus." The pall bearers were: Messrs. J W Cannon, Jno. A Sims, W L Bell and J Whit Burkhead. The floral offerings were very beautiful.

Mr. W M Smith, has returned from a week's canvass of the proposed line of the Concord Southern.

Tonight at the hour of twelve six months of 1892 will have been knocked off—how time does fly!

Another Tennessee Lynching.

Nashville, Tenn., June 29.—A special from Murphycoro, Tenn., confirms the rumor of the lynching of the negro rapist, Tom Lylliard, at Woodbury. Last night, about 11 o'clock, the mob, well organized and orderly, went to the Woodbury jail where Lylliard was confined, and demanded the keys from the jailer. Meeting with no resistance they secured their man, and taking him to the bridge over Stoffs river hanged him therefrom. His neck was broken, and he died without a struggle.

A Brilliant Entertainment.

An elegant, brilliant and most highly enjoyable entertainment was given Wednesday night, by the charming Miss Isabella Montgomery, complimentary to her fair and very popular visitors, Misses Laura Hammond, of Charlotte, Irvin Seales and Carrie Settle, of Greensboro.

An eye witness of the entertainment at the model home of Mr. and Mrs. C G Montgomery said, of the entertainment and those who played their parts well: "Girls beautiful, men handsome, decorations lovely, yellow and white predominating—supper elegant, music superb and the whole evening without a blemish."
