 the electoral yote by a large majoriFroin what seemed to us reliable sources of information, the $\bullet$ Third Party in Virginia will not carry so many as 1,000 yotes in the ${ }^{*}$ Presidential election. Gev. Jas. H. ${ }^{}$ Baker, Alliance candidate for Governor of Minnesota, has withdrawn in favor of the Dem, ocrats. This action throws 20,000 votes to Democracy. This checkmates Igngtiue Donnelly, the Third Party candidato The Allianc profers the Democracy to either the Third or Republican party, to the latter many have heretofore affilia ted.

There seems to be a lot of valuable breath lost aropnd our town, blowing for or over Democratic, Republican and last of all Third party politics. Nów did you ever think how little breath was lost .on blowabout our town? Say for instance our Fire Department, the most neglected organization here. If the citizens took the pride in this branch they should, they would seon have a Fire Department not, only to be proud of but one they could rely on in that dark hour of need.
You gentlemen, who work.so hard for votes, and are so anxious to ocs cupy the position of city fathers, What is the reply of your consciences when you ask. yourselves, if you ever do, whet' er you are doing your whole daty to these men who are doing a thanky jobs and giving their best time and often there best clothes, to serving the people? You have been elected to $a^{*}$ position of trust and responsibility, among your other onerous duties, do you advise with the heads of your Fire Depart ment and give a listening ear and an active mind and 'tongue to supply ing their needs? It is you, as a board, that is supposed to spend the people's money for their benefit; do you cheerfully enter into the spirit of and sympthize with your Fire Department so much as to procure for it the requisite implements for their service or do you put them off when they ask for new hose, lanterns, spanners, rubber coats, or the hundred other little things necessary and which cannot help but essary and which cannot help but vear out in the rough service required of then, because forsooth some fellow on the edge of the town is
