"THE TYPICAL AMERICAN."

From a Speech by Chauncey M. Depew.

If you name the typical American, the man who loves and believes in his country beyond everything else—the man who, determining once in what direction his duty leads, cannot be swerved from the path—the man who is doggedly persistent in what he believes to be right—the man who thinks not of self, but of his country and its needs, I would name Grover Cleveland. What he has accomplished is the very highest tribute to the possibilities of American citizenships.

Union, Harmony Democracy.

Differences of opinion and judgement in Democratic conventions are by no means unwholesome indications, but it is hardly conceivable, the view of importance of our success to the country and the party, that there should be any where among Democrats any lack of harmonious and sincere effort to win in the campaign which opens before us. I have therefore no concern on that subject. It will certainly be my constant endeavor to deserve the support of every Democrat.—Grover Cleveland's Card to the Public.

CALLING ALLIANCEMEN COWARDS

Messrs. A. C. Shuford and Massey at Thomasville, on Friday.

Thomasville, N. C., August 26.—

Three thousand people were here today to attend the annual picnic of the Davidson county Alliance. Alliance Lecturer Massey and would-be-Congressman, Shuford made straight Third party speeches, consisting of nothing but abuse of the Democratic party. Massey said the meanest thing of the day when he charged that Senator Vance stayed away from the Senate chamber on the day the vote on free silver was taken in order to keep from voting.

Not a thing was said against the Republican party. Many Alliancemen were disgusted that strict party speeches were made at an Alliance gathering. Shuford said if an Allianceman voted anything but the "reform" ticket he was a coward.

[Senator Vance was very sick, too sick to be out of bed. There will be lots of "cowards" in Cabarrus Nov.

8th, if Mr. Shuford's statement is orthodox.

could Anything be More Heartrending.

Athens, Ga., Aug. 26.—A story has reached here from Madison county, telling of the sad death of the four children of a family named

Wilson in the short space of 40 minutes, three of them from the bite of a rattle-snake and the other by drowning.

The sad affair occurred a few days ago. Mrs. Wilson went to a spring near the house for water, taking the baby with her. She had left the house but a short time when screams attracted her attention and hastening there, found two of her children dead and the third one sick. The little fellow, however, was able to talk and said that they had poked their fingers through a crack in the floor and a hen under the house had bitten them.

Mrs. Wilson hurried back to the spring and there found that her little baby had crawled into the spring and been drowned. When the mother returned to the house she found the little boy also dead. Some time later the father returned.

Search was made and a huge rattlesnake was found under the house killed.

How it is in Cabarrus.

Charlotte Observer

Mr. Shakespeare Harris, of Cabarrus, spent yesterday in the city, and when asked about the political situation in his beat, said that some of the Third party men about him were so hot that the filling in their teeth had melted. "It's like this,"

he said. "There's that boy, there; he can ask you questions which you can't answer to save your life, and these Third party people can get up a lot of questions that have no bearing on anything under the sun and because neither you nor anybody else can answer them they think they have the best of you in any argument." They are pretty thick around Mr. Harris, according to his account, and still have their heads set, notwithstanding Jarvis's speech at Concord, to "beat somebody."

BOTANIC
BLOOD
BALM

Pure blood is what oils the machinery of life, eases every movement of the body, removes stiffness of the joints, drives out pain from the nerves, stimulates the brain, protects the liver and kidneys from irritation, enables physical exertion without fatigue, prolongs life, and makes men and women perfect in health and feature. Good blood and good brain are inseparable. Aim to keep the blood pure by using the only true blood remedy, B. B. B.

without benefit. At last I began the use of B. B. B., and its effect was like magic. Rheumatic pains ceased my kidneys were relieved, and my constitution improved at once.

Z. T. Hallerton, Macon, Ga.,

says:

"Three years ago I contracted blood poison. Lapped to a physician at Macon, and his treatment came near killing me. I employed an old physician and then went to Kentucky. I then went to

Hot Springs and remained two months, but nothing seemed to cure me permanently, although temporary relief was given me. I returned home a ruined man physically, with but little prospect of ever getting well. I was persuaded to try B. B. B., and to my utter astonishment it quickly healed every ulcer."
