THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

The President Appoints the 24th of November as the Day on Which Recognition Shall Be Made of the Blessings of Providence.

Washington, Nov. 4.—By the President of the United States of America:

A proclamation.
The gifts of God to our people during the past year have been so abundant and so special that the spirit of devout thanksgiving awaits not a call, but only the appointment of a day when it may a common expression. He has stayed the pestilence at our door; He has given us more love for the three, civil institutions in the creation of which His directing providence was so conspicuous; He has awakened a deeper reverence for law; He has widened our philanthropy by a call to succor the distress in other lands; He has blessed our schools and is bringing forward a patriotic and God-fearing generation to execute his great and benevolent designs for our country; He has given us great increase in material wealth and a wide diffusion of contentment and comfort in the homes of our people; He has given his grace to the sorrowing;

Wherefore, I, Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States, do call upon all our people to observe, as we have been wont, Thursday, the 24th day of this month of November, as a day of Thanksgiving to God for his mercies, of supplication for his continued care and grace.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this fourth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and seventeenth.

BENJAMIN HARRISON,

By the President:

JOHN W. FOSTER,
Secretary of State.

Burned to Death at 103 Years.

Brazil, Ind., Nov. 4.—Mrs. Susan Shepherd, aged 103 years, the oldest resident in this county, and probably the oldest person in the State, met her death in a violent manner at the home of her grandson in Bowling Green. She was sitting in a room alone reading, when in some manner her clothing caught fire from an open grate, and in an instant she was enveloped in flames. Her body was burned to a crisp before any one knew of the accident. She was hale and hearty up to meeting death in so violent a manner.

He Will Support Cleveland.

New York, Nov. 4.—The Times this morning says: "Seth Low, president of Columbia college, said yesterday to a reporter of the Times that he had decided to vote for Cleveland. Mr. Low has been one of the best known Republicans in the State. He was twice elected mayor of Brooklyn as a Republican candidate."

Mr. Gowan Dusenberry is now express agent and telegraph manager of the Western Union at Oxford, N. C. The Standard congratulates the young gentleman upon his success.

An Impressive Occasion.

At the family residence of Chief Justice Merrimon yesterday, the Chief Justice and his youngest daughter, Miss Maud, were received into the membership of Edenton Street Methodist church of this city. All his life Judge Merrimon's moral character has been of the highest type but he had never formally connected himself with any church though he has been a regular attendant upon and liberal supporter of the Methodist church for years. Yesterday at his request Rev. Mr. Cole, pastor of Edenton Street Methodist church, administered to him the vows of the church at his residence. It was a very impressive scene. First the daughter was baptized, then she and her father took upon themselves the vows of the church and then the family all knelt around the bedside of the Chief Justice and partook of the sacrament of the Lord's supper with him. No one was present besides the family of the Chief Justice except Rev. Mr. Cole, of the Edenton Street church, and Rev. Dr. Reid, of the Christian Advocate. It was a simple service, a beautiful scene. The Chief Justice expressed his regret that he was not able to attend the church and publicly profess his faith in Christ. The many friends of our distinguished Chief Justice will rejoice on hearing of this action of his.—Raleigh Observer.

A Mitigating Circumstance.

It is always well to make the best of small things. This was the opinion, at any rate, of a certain colored barber, who was cutting a gentleman's hair snipped off the top of his ear. The customer leaped out of the chair with a wild shriek. "Ow!" he screamed, "you've cut off a piece of my ear!"

"Don't go on so, boss," said the barber; "taint 'nough to effect the the hearin'."

The Church to Marry In.

Doting Lover—At what church shall we be married, darling?

Chicago Fiancee—Let me see; I have tried the Episcopal, Presbyterian, Universalist and Methodist services—what do you say to the New Advent?

An Able Tariff Orator's Circumnavigation.

Hon. John M. Campbell, one of Democratic candidates for the State Senate, has a number of good jokes that he tells on "Uncle Tommy" Ferguson, one of the Republican standard-bearers, but none of them is better than the one he gets off about "Uncle Tommy's" first tariff speech.

When it came "Uncle Tommy's" turn to orate, he got up and waving his arms melodramatically, shouted:

"Fellow citizens, I propose to discuss one of the greatest national issues, the tariff. The commonality of the people in general are disposed to grumble at the generality of the people in common."

Just here, Mr. Campbell tells it, J. W. Shook, who was sitting behind the speaker, caught him by the coat tail, saying: "Sit down, you d—n fool, you've come out at the same hole you went in at."

Those who wish to hear the political news next Tuesday night and will contribute, will please call on L D Coltrane of this paper.

Taken for Billy Mahone.

Mr. F. S. Starrette who was in Richmond last week in the interest of the Durham Recorder, of which he is associate editor had quite a funny experience. Soon after he struck the city, a gentleman rushed up to him, grasping him by the hand, and said "How do you do, Mr. Mahone?" Mr. Starrette seeing that he had been taken for Billy Mahone explained to the gentleman that he was mistaken in the person, and started on down the street, when he was again hailed by another gentleman saying, "When did you arrive in the city, Mr. Mahone?" Mr. Starrette was kept busy almost an entire day telling people that he was not Mr. Mahone.

Not Her Fault.

A mother, indignant to find her little daughter low in her class at school, exclaimed wrathfully: "I'm out of all patience with you, Mollie. I should just like to know why Sallie Jones is always at the head of her class and you always at the foot."

Mollie hesitated for a moment, and then, looking her mother squarely in the face, said demurely, "You seem to forget, mama, that Sallie Jones had very clever parents!"

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

By virtue of authority vested in me by deed in trust, or mortgage, executed by George Hart and wife, Maggie Hart, on the 22nd day of October, 1888, which deed in trust, or mortgage, is duly recorded in Register's office for Cabarrus county in Book 4, pages 110 and 111 of record of mortgages, I will sell at public auction, at the court house door, in Concord, N. C., on Monday, December 5th, 1892, to the highest bidder, for cash, the property described in said mortgage, adjoining Charley Linn and others. Title to said property supposed to be good, but purchaser takes only such title as I am authorized to convey under said mortgage.

P. B. FETZER, Trustee.

Nov. 2, '92.

VALUABLE TOWN PROPERTY FOR SALE.

By virtue of a Deed in trust made to the undersigned on the 28th, of October, 1882, by Mrs. Margaret McErchern which is recorded in Book No. 36 Page 87 in the office of the Register of Deeds for the county of Cabarrus, I will sell at public sale for cash at the court house in Concord on Monday the 28th, day of November: One lot on West Depot Street in the town of Concord adjoining the lot of K L Craven, Mrs. Dr. I L Henderson and others. The lot has comfortable improvements; person desiring to see the property can do so by calling at Mr. Henry Propst, who lives on the place. Oct. 21 1892.

R. W. ALLISON, Trustee.

MALARIA

WINTERSMITH'S Tonic Syrup or Improved CHILL CURE.

The most successful remedy for Fever and Ague ever known. Prevents Malaria in its various forms. Contains no Quinine, Arsenic, or any deleterious substance whatsoever. Reason: It is superior to Wintersmith's Tonic for Quinine and other Remedies. The remedies usually given only prevent the paroxysm or break a chill, without reference to the condition the system may be left in after the chills are removed; whereas the more breaking of the chills is not a small part of what is required to effect a radical cure. A proper use of Wintersmith's Tonic never fails to remove the cause and cure the most obstinate case of fever and ague.
