

THE DAILY STANDARD

VOL. V.—No. 172.

CONCORD, N. C. TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1892.

WHOLE No. 133

CABARRUS COUNTY GONE ON RECORD.

THE OFFICIAL VOTES CAST NOVEMBER 8TH.

The Vote Polled by the Several Candidates From Presidential Electors Down to County Officers.

Two thousand nine hundred and twenty four votes cast in Cabarrus out of a registration of about 3,400. But some of these had moved away and some were deceased; at least such was the case in No. 12. Probably not more than 220 voters in the county failed to vote.

ELECTORS.
Cleveland d	1419
Harrison r	679
Weaver p p	819
Bidwell p	41
CONGRESS.
Jno. S. Henderson d	1398
Alfred E Holton r	583
Alonso C. Shuford p p	899
Wm. H. Moffett p	25
GOVERNOR.
Elias Carr d	1442
David M. Furches r	620
Wyatt P Exum p p	825
James M. Templeton p	37
ASSOCIATE JUSTICE OF SUPREME COURT.
Jas. C. McRae d	1681
Wm. S. Ball r	586
JUDGE, 12th JUDICIAL DISTRICT.
Geo. A. Shuford d	1687
W L Norwood r	585
CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.
For Amendment	1478
Against	1287
FOR SENATE.
Wm. G. Means d	1710
Ambrose F. Hileman p p	1077
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVE.
D. Henry White d	1719
Jno. M. W. Alexander p p	1033
SHERIFF.
L. McKee Morrison d	1821
Frank P. Boger p p	981
REGISTER OF DEEDS.
Jno. K. Petterson d	1715
Jno. H. Moose p p	1089
TREASURER.
Jno. A. Cline d	1644
Jno. A. Sims p p	1162
CORONER.
Jas. N. Brown d	1799
Martin C. Walter p p	994
SURVEYOR.
John H. Long d	1811
Hayden T. Baker p p	968
COTTON WEAVER.
Richard S. Harris d	1896
Francis V. Barrier p p	900

Quick Time.

In the big Winston fire, Sunday morning, the Greensboro fire company did something never before accomplished.

One hour and fifteen minutes after a telegram was sent from Winston to Greensboro fire company (all of them asleep), this company had gone by special train a distance of 28 miles and was flying water. This has never been done before by any company. And had the Greensboro company not gone to Winston, the destruction of property would have been more terrible.

His Last Resort.

"What's old Jones doing?"
 "Makin' out an application for pension"
 "On what grounds?"
 "Votdd for Harrison, but lost his voice shoutin' for Cleveland."

The Schenck-Fife Affair Again.

E P Wharton publishes the following letter in the Greensboro Record, addressed to Judge David Schenck:

"Dear Sir:—During my illness of the past three weeks I have had time to reflect, and have thought much about the part which I took in the trouble that began at the Fife meeting in the spring of 1891, and culminated the following fall in the prosecution in the Superior Court against yourself and sons. I am convinced that your provocation was great, and that I was wrong in my interference.

The only reparation which I can make now is this expression of regret. Later, when I am able, I hope to be instrumental in inducing our community to accord to you the justice which has been withheld too long.

I feel no reluctance in going before the world with this confession of error. On the other hand, it is my wish that this acknowledgment of fault shall be known wherever my action has worked your injury. To your sons and the rest of your family are due the same amends which I have endeavored to make to you, and I would be glad if you would bear to them my message of regret. I hope the day is not far distant when the memory of a proceeding so hurtful to the peace of our community and so unjust to you, shall be wiped out forever.

[Sickness generally brings people to their milk. Truth, though crushed to earth, will rise again. There are others in Greensboro who ought to be manly enough to make an acknowledgement of their insult to an honored citizen, on account of an alledged convert, and an upstart of an evangelist, who goes around the country doing no good but making ugly remarks about hard-working, faithful and worthy ministers of God; and who is trying to ape Rev. Sam Jones, but lacks entirely the brain and the character which Mr. Jones possesses to a large degree.

Let the Greensboro "indignation" crowd not wait for a spell of sickness to right a wrong, but come out now and reverse an unjust resolution. This is none of the Standard's business, except in a general way, and we have used it as such.]

FROM COPAL GROVE.

COPAL GROVE, N. C.,
 November 15, 1892.

We have but little news, except the election, and that is so good we all rejoice and look forward for better times.

A new parsonage is going up at Salem M E Church.

A Mr. Litaker, of Cabarrus county, cut his hand badly—whittling—while visiting in Stanly.

It is rumored that a wedding will occur in Ridenhour township, at or near Misenheimer's springs, soon.

Miss Mary Sell has returned from Newton School to visit her mother, who has been sick.

We understand that Esq. R J Ross, of New London, has 8 Cleveland turkeys to be prepared for a banquet on Grover Cleveland's inauguration.

There seems to be a general fear of incendiary fires in different parts of the city.

Judge Merrimon Dead.

Chief Justice Merrimon died Sunday night, at Raleigh. His death is not unexpected.

He was born in Transylvania county in 1830. In 1870 he was the Democratic candidate for governor, but was defeated by Tod R Caldwell by a small majority.

Judge Merrimon was an able jurist and very popular with the legal fraternity. He joined the church several weeks ago.

Another Cotton Factory.

There is a probability of another factory for Concord. The nucleus has been formed, and it is looking now like the nucleus will grow. If such is the case, it will be erected on the Building and Loan plan. At present the Standard can say no more.

Will Not Go A Begging.

There is some speculation as to whom Gov. Holt will appoint to the vacancy on the Supreme court bench caused by the death of Judge Merrimon. It would be quite an honor to many who will doubtless aspire to the position.

The Standard feels however that Gov. Holt will consult his good judgement and not the ones who will hastily bid for the plumb.

SHORT LOCALS.

Cleveland's majority in Illinois is 27,071.

Quite a good deal of cotton came in for a wet day.

C M Thompson, of Lexington went down to Mt. Pleasant.

See tax notice of J L Boger in another column.

Gen. Wade Hampton came out from private life long enough to make a speech in Sumpter, on Monday night.

The Standard regrets to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. B. Bartleson, of Flow's store.

Treasurer D W Bain, of North Carolina, at 2:39 this morning was very low. He is gradually sinking.

It is said that Justice Jas. E Shepherd will be made chief Justice and that Armstead Burwell, of Charlotte, will get the justice's place.

The Odd Fellows will give a reception in the Caldwell store room, Nov. 17, from 9 to 12. They issued cards. The committee consist of W J Moose R F Coble J R Patterson and J F Williford.

Hickory Bulletin: David Yoder, of Jacob's Fork township, a man 93 years old, walked to Shuford's precinct on Tuesday, 1 1/2 miles, and voted the Democratic ticket from Grover Cleveland down to coroner. He has been a voter 71 years. His first Democratic presidential vote was cast for Gen. Jackson in 1824. He has never scratched a Democratic candidate and says Democracy has never done him wrong.

Proclaim it from the honsetops,
 Sound it o'er the sea,
 The plutocrats are beaten,
 America is free.

The people by their ballots
 Did the thing up brown
 And little Benny Harrison Must Step
 Down.

Jollification.

The 7th Congressional district is to have a jollification over the recent victory on Wednesday, November the 23rd. The Democrats of Cabarrus are invited to be present.

W C Dowd, of the Charlotte Observer force, is to be married on the 23rd, to Miss Eloise Batt.

"CROCKER'S FOLLY."

A High Fence Built by a Millionaire to Spite an Obnoxious Neighbor.

The $30,000 wall around the Hopkins castle at Great Barrington, Mass., is not a new idea. About fifteen years ago Charles Crocker, one of the "big four" Central Pacific railroad magnates, made a similar "improvement." Crocker built himself a mansion on the brow of Nob hill, San Francisco. The palace covered almost an entire block.

A gentleman whose name is lost to fame had a modest mansion in a corner lot of that block. Crocker coveted that lot, but could not get it at his own price. He was somewhat incensed because he, a millionaire, was balked in purchasing what he wanted at his own price. The people of that vicinity were astonished on seeing a board wall being built between Crocker's palace and the gentleman's modest two-story frame. The wonder grew with the fence, which was built to the height of the roof of the cottage.

This wall totally shuts out the light from the west, also the sun after mid-day. The gentleman appealed to the courts, alleging that no person had the right to construct anything, even though upon his own premises, which would interfere with the rights and liberties of another; but the courts held differently, though it was admitted by Crocker that the fence was useless, and he could give no other reason than spite.

The gentleman removed his laundry from the back yard to the roof, and every day the family linen was flaunting in the breeze from his own house-top, which somewhat spoiled the view of the Crocker family as they gazed out upon the bay and dispelled the romance of their evening promenades on the eastern piazza.

Under the ruling of the court the gentleman had a right to make an unsightly nuisance of the roof of his house. But he proposed to do more. He inscribed upon his banner, "No compromise," and refused to sell at any price. He was on the eve of renting his house to a Chinese theatrical company when the proud Crocker ordered his wall to be torn down.

This wall, known as "Crocker's Folly," was one of the objects of curiosity of the city and was on the list to be shown to tourists. It was visited by thousands of citizens also.—Chicago Times.

The Banker's Daughter.

He—Didn't my note come to you in time yesterday?

She—No; I never received it.

He—Strange! I wonder where it went?

She—Oh, I remember hearing papa say something about a note of yours going to protest yesterday—whatever that is.—Life.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

By virtue of authority vested in me by deed in trust, or mortgage, executed by George Hart and wife, Maggie Hart, on the 22nd day of October, 1888, which deed in trust, or mortgage, is duly recorded in Register's office for Cabarrus county in Book 4, pages 110 and 111 of record of mortgages, I will sell at public auction, at the court house door, in Concord, N. C., on Monday, December 5th, 1892, to the highest bidder, for cash, the property described in said mortgage, adjoining Charley Linn and others. Title to said property supposed to be good, but purchaser takes only such title as I am authorized to convey under said mortgage.

P. B. FETZER, Trustee.

Nov. 2, '92.

NORTH CAROLINA, } Admin's Cabarrus County. } Notice.

Having been duly appointed and qualified Administrator of John A Misenheimer, dec'd, by the proper court of Cabarrus county, all persons holding claims against the said deceased, are hereby notified to present them to the undersigned, duly authenticated, for payment on or before the 10th day of November, 1892, or this notice will be plead as a bar to their recovery; also, all persons owing said deceased, are notified that prompt payment is expected. This November 11th, 1892.

R. W. MISENHEIMER,
 Administrator.

Tax Notice!

IMPORTANT TO ALL:

I hereby notify all tax-payers that I will, on the 10th day of December, 1892, levy and seize the personal property of all persons who have not by that time paid their property taxes. At the same time I shall return to the mayor the names of all persons who have not paid their poll taxes to the town. This hurry is necessitated in consequence of the need of funds for the graded school, and for the interests on bonds. This is no notice simply to scare, but is exactly what I am compelled by law to do. If anybody thinks I am not compelled to act, they can take it easy and see and pay costs.

J. L. BOGER,

TOWN TAX COLLECTOR.

Office, City Hall, opp. Court House.

House For Rent.

One Dwelling House and Lot for rent adjoining Mrs. Braeken.

D. L. CANNON.

Nov. 14, 1892.

DRESS MAKING.

Mrs. Augusta H Cope is again in Concord and would be glad to have all my friends and former customers to call and see me. Work solicited. Residence in rear of Graded School building.
 1mo, Nov. 3,

VALUABLE TOWN PROPERTY FOR SALE.

By virtue of a Deed in trust made to the undersigned on the 28th, of October, 1882, by Mrs. Margaret McErchum which is recorded in Book No. 36 Page 87 in the office of the Register of Deeds for the county of Cabarrus, I will sell at public sale for cash at the court house in Concord on Monday the 28th, day of November: One lot on West Depot Street in the town of Concord adjoining the lot of K L Craven, Mrs. Dr. I L Henderson and others. The lot has comfortable improvements; person desiring to see the property can do so by calling at Mr. Henry Propst, who lives on the place.
 Oct. 21 1892.

R. W. ALLISON, Trustee.

DR. DROMGOOLE'S ENGLISH Female Bitters
 Cures all Female Complaints and Monthly irregularity, Leucorrhoea or Whites, Pain in Back or Sides, strengthens the feeble, builds up the whole system. It has cured thousands and will cure you. Druggists have it. Send stamp for book.
 DR. J. P. DROMGOOLE & CO., Louisville, Ky.