An Administration Full of Deaths.

The State administration now drawing to a close has been one with many deaths.

Nov. 89, chief Justice Smith died; in April '91, Secretary of state W L Sanders died and Gov. Fowle in the same month, last August justice J J Davis; chief Justice Merrimon and now Treasurer Bain.

Cure For Ringbone.

Saturate the part affected with muriatic acid. In 48 hours repeat the application; and in 72 hours after the second application, make a third application. The part to which the acid is applied will become sore; as it begins to heal apply any kind of grease; lard, without salt, is best. I cured the ringbone, on both the hind feet of my horse, in 1886, and he has not been lame since.

P. MILLER.

Judicial Changes.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 16.—At 10:30 o'clock this morning Gov. Holt issued commission to James E. Shepherd as Chief Justice and to Armistead Burwell as Associate Justice. Both these officers took the oath of office before him, and at 11 o'clock were in their seats on the bench. Both the appointments were expected and you had been informed two days ago that they would be made. Justice Shepherd began his public life as a telegraph operator. He was a good one, too, and presently he became a good lawyer. He is the youngest member of the court and his work on the bench has always been marked by thoroughness. Justice Burwell was born at the good old town of Hillsboro, in 1839. He graduated at Davidson College in 1859, and studied law at Charlotte. In 1861 he went into the Confederate service and served in the Western army until the battle of Atlanta, when he was wounded in the right arm. In 1880 he represented Mecklenburg in the Senate.

Treasurer Bain Dead.

Another State officer passes away. Treasurer Donald W Bain died Wednesday evening at 5:30. He had been suffering for quite awhile with heart troubles.

Mr. Bain was an admirable gentleman, respected by all who knew him. He has been connected with the treasury department ever since 1857, and since 1884 he's been treasurer, and re-elected a few days ago.

Mr. Bain was a prominent mason, and for a long time secretary of the North Carolina Conference.

A grand, good man has died.

Make It "A Roll of Honor."

When General Daniel E Sickles takes his seat in Congress he should introduce a resolution providing for the appointment of a special committee to investigate the pension rolls. The committee should be composed entirely of old Union soldiers, and the monstrous abuses of the pension system should be thoroughly exposed.

Gen. Sickles and his old comrades in the House should assist Mr. Cleveland in making the pension roll "a roll of honor." There will never be a better time than the present to save the Treasury and to preserve the honor of the country from the Hessians and thieves who have brought disgrace upon the pension system.

Every soldier who fought in the Federal armies and was disabled in the discharge of his duty should be a charge upon the Government, but the bummers and beggars should be ordered to the rear.—Charleston News and Courier.

To The Memory of a Sainted Mother.

There has been placed in the Presbyterian church of this city, by Mrs. John Phifer Allison, of Concord, a baptismal fount, to the memory of her mother, Mrs. Craige, wife of the late Hon. Burton Craige.

Mrs. Craige was a devoted member of the First Presbyterian church of Salisbury and a faithful Christian, beloved by all who knew her. One of the very best acts of her life was to dispense the light of salvation by bequeathing Bibles, with her dying breath, to members of her household—so with us, "her memory is blessed." This baptismal fount which has been placed in the church to her memory, by a devoted daughter, is highly polished. It stands three feet three inches high and the base and fount for the water are proportionate to the height. The fount or basin proper, is encircled with a rim of highly polished on which, in basso relievo are the blessed words of our blessed Savior

"Suffer little children to come unto me." Then below in the same bas relief, are the words: "Sacred to the memory of my mother, Elizabeth Phifer Craige." The workmanship is fine and all in perfect taste, executed by Durham and Elliott at their monumental works in Charlotte. The fount stands in front of the pulpit, representing the door of the church, and Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry, "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth" this bears the divine invitation uttered by divine lips "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven." K.

Married Wednesday Evening.

Mrs. Jennie Winecoff was married, Wednesday evening, to Mr. T P Johnson of Salisbury. The ceremony took place at the residence of Mr. Ed. Hall, on Spring street, brother-in-law of the bride; Dr. C M Payne performing the ceremony. It was a very quiet marriage, only the immediate relatives being present. Concord regrets to lose Mrs. Johnson, who has a host of admiring friends with whom there was a warm attachment. The Standard protests against any more robbery of the good people of this town, but with all the regrets its best wishes are extended to the newly wedded.

SHORT LOCALS.

Mrs. Jesse Skeen, of Mt. Pleasant, is visiting in Charlotte.

Dr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald left for Monroe on the noon train.

Z E Scott, a most excellent photographer, is doing some nice photographic work on silk and satin 1wk.

Mrs. N P Correll has returned from Salisbury and reports Mrs. Smith, her sister-in-law, improved.

There was a lynching at Oxford Tuesday night. Such is unfortunate; it was entirely unjust.

Mr. M L Cline of St. John got 9 cents for his cotton. M L is a GOOD FARMER, BECAUSE he went to school to us.

Mrs. Dr. Wilson and pretty little Louise returned to Harrisburg, today, after a short visit to Mrs. N F Yorke.

Capt. E P Mangum made a flying trip to Salisbury last night. He is back this morning on duty.

Miss Lallah Hill, one of Concord's fairest, brightest daughters, left on the evening train for Salisbury.

Indiana sends eleven Democrats and two Republicans to Congress. Cleveland's majority in that will be about 8,400.

Mrs. J W Clarke, who has many friends here, has been quite sick with the grippe, at her home in Charlotte.

Dr. Cartland tells us that he is using his new painless method of filling teeth with much satisfaction to himself and patients.

Miles Orton, circus proprietor, who showed in Concord in September, bet his big elephant away at Chattanooga, Tenn., on the presidential election. He bet on Harrison and a young Democrat by the name of Divine won the elephant. Divine is now trying to divine what he will do with the elephant.

Many a wise man has picked up a good suggestion where some fool dropped it.—Galveston News.

The Greensboro Daily Record is two years of age. It is a decent, conservative, excellent newspaper. We always read it with interest.

M Oglesby gin at Harrisburg caught fire Wednesday evening, but by effort was put out. The gin caught from a spark from the engine.

Winston Sentinel: John A Cocke's newspaper prophesied the nomination of Blain at Cincinnati; it also predicted the defeat of Grover Cleveland. A new brain needed in that office!

The President today appointed William Potter, of Pennsylvania, United States Minister to Italy; David P Thompson, of Oregon, United States Minister to Kansas, United States Consul General at Cairo, Egypt.

Eighty-six counties that in 1888 gave Cleveland 136,531 votes and Harrison 125,264 votes, now give Cleveland 127,750, Harrison 85,472 and Weaver 43,489. The remaining ten counties to hear from in 1888 gave Cleveland 11,371, and Harrison 9,518.

W M Coleman a native of Cabarrus and at one time Attorney General of the state of North Carolina is appointed by the Governor of Maryland Justice of the peace for Prince George county. W M Coleman was our Republican Attorney General.

Ledbetter, a candidate for the Legislature in Stanly county, became enraged at Mr. Nash because he "went around the county enlogising me." This is awfully funny—one candidate getting mad because another "enlogised him." He really meant "abuse."

The Jubilee.

The ladies have arranged to have this entertainment on the evening of Tuesday the 22nd, at Caton's Hall, and are working hard, with that energy which characterizes them, to make it as successful as it has been in other towns and cities. We feel sure their part will be well done; and that if our citizens will turn out in full numbers, it will be a brilliant thing and they will feel justly proud of our town, which is well represented by sixty-six advertisements—all beautiful and novel. The music will be a prominent feature of the evening—with songs from a trip to Chinatown, Patience and other favorites—new and old.

The admittance is twenty-five and fifteen cents.

Tax Notice!

IMPORTANT TO ALL:

I hereby notify all tax payers that I will, on the 10th day of December, 1892, levy and seize the personal property of all persons who have not by that time paid their property taxes. At the same time I shall return to the mayor the names of all persons who have not paid their poll taxes to the town. This hurry is necessitated in consequence of the need of funds for the graded school, and for the interests on bonds. This is no notice simply to scare, but is exactly what I am compelled by law to do. If anybody thinks I am not compelled to act, they can take it easy and see and pay costs.
