

Other Local.

Salisbury is moving for an election on local option.

Big preparations are making for the big Easter Monday picnic.

Master Frank Cannon is back from Richmond, where he had his eyes treated.

J W Rimple, of Salisbury, has been appointed receiver for a land company at Shendum, Va.

Mr. Will Leslie, of Hickory, is spending a few days in the city. We are sorry to see him looking so sad.

The Standard had a pleasant call from Mr. George Barbee, of No 10. We are doubly glad that he came, and want him to come see us often.

Wheat is coming out nicely during the past week. Really grass is impudent enough to show itself. Buds on the forest trees are swelling and spring time is surely here.

The vacant lot between Miss Brachen's millinery and the post office will be built up this summer with handsome brick stores. The building proceeds. Concord is growing.

Salisbury Herald: Mrs. Stonewall Jackson has a sprig of ivy which was brought her by a friend from Martin Luther's grave. She has planted it, and on her next trip to Lexington, Va., will take it there and plant it on her husband's grave.

Dr. J. P. Gibson, who has been receiving the weather reports, has been promoted. The government has arranged with him to keep a rain gauge and to report weekly the condition of crops, etc. There is not a gentleman anywhere who will do this more accurately and take more interest in it than will Dr. Gibson.

The Standard has received a copy of the Banner of Gold, published at Chicago, Ill. It is on the Keely cure. This number contains pictures of W H Osborn, Dossey Battle, and of the Rocky Mount Institute. This cure has done good. Would to God many more could be induced to attend one of these institutes!

Roscoe Conkling used to say that the simplest way for a person to stop the habit of tobacco chewing was to keep a package of crystalized candy in his pocket, and substitute a lump of it for the "weed" whenever a desire arose for the latter. In this way Mr. Conkling said he had broken off tobacco chewing; but he had never been able to abandon smoking.

The Men Who Hold the Election.

At a meeting of the town board today the following registrars and inspectors were appointed to hold an election May 1st for Mayor, town and school commissions:

Ward 1—Joseph Young, registrar; J. B. Caldwell, J. L. Hartsell, inspectors.

Ward 2—Jas. N. Brown, registrar; J. M. Perkins, J. Whit Burkhead, inspectors.

Ward 3—Jesse F. Willeford, registrar; W. Chas. Correll, J. Ed Chline, inspectors.

Ward 4—John M. Alexander, registrar; Geo. G. Richmond, Elam King, inspectors.

Prospering Out West.

Baker Morrison showed us a copy of the Daily Register, of Webb City, Mo. It is a short review of some of the business houses. It is a pleasure to note the names of several Cabarrus county men, who have made their presence felt in business circles. We find that Messrs. W. A. S. C. and G. F. C. Corl are all prominent in the mercantile business. The notice of the store of Mr. W. A. Corl was particularly complimentary. These gentlemen are brothers of Mr. M. J. Corl, of this town.

The Merriest Girl That's Out.

"Bonnie sweet Bessie, the maid of Dundee," was, no doubt, the kind of a girl to ask, "What are the wild waves saying?" or to put "a little faded flower" in your button hole, she was so full of vivacity, and beaming with robust health. Every girl in the land can be just as full of life, just as well, and just as merry as she, since Dr. Pierce has placed his "Favorite Prescription" within the reach of all. Young girls in their teens, passing the age of puberty, find it a great aid. Delicate, pale and sickly girls will find this a wonderful invigorator, and a sure corrective for all derangements and weakness incident to females.

There is a lake near Chestertown, Mo., called Still Pond, which, it is said, has never been ruffled by the most violent storms. Another peculiarity about it is that the water never freezes.

The sermon to the Cabarrus Black Boys, Sunday evening, at the Presbyterian church, by the chaplain, Rev. Dr. Payne, was largely attended—35 soldiers were out. The theme was the "Model Chieftain." It is a highly complimented discourse.

Mrs. Mary Fetzter, of Greensboro, died Saturday at her home. She was an aunt of our Fetzters here. Dr. Fetzter attended the funeral on Sunday. Mrs. Fetzter was in the prime of life, and was the mother of the gentlemanly engineers (Fetzters) who run on this road, and who frequently visit here.

In the spring time a little fresh paint here and there about the house brightens up things amazingly and makes us feel more in touch with nature when arrayed in her "spring tide" glories. Try it. The best paints in large and small packages for inside or outside work can always be found at Fetzter's drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. Gowan Dusenbery arrived in the city Saturday evening on their return from a bridal trip South. They are stopping at the St. Cloud. Mr. Dusenbery and his lovely bride are meeting that cordial greeting that is always to be seen where best wishes spring up from hosts of friends.

There was the largest congregation at the Methodist church Sunday night that has been there for a long time. There being no services at several other churches, the Central Methodist was crowded. Dr. S Pool preached an entertaining and very instructive sermon on "Music."

For Mayor.

At the urgent request of many voters, I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Mayor of Concord. Election to be held Monday, May 1, 1893.

J. L. CROWELL.

A WOMAN'S HEAD is level and her judgment good when she puts her faith in Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." There is no beauty without good health. Nobody expects to become really beautiful from the use of complexion beautifiers. Bright eyes, clear skin and rosy cheeks; follow moderate exercise, fresh air, good food, and the judicious use of the "Favorite Prescription." All women require a tonic and nerve at some period of their lives. Whether suffering from nervousness, dizziness, faintness, displacement, catarrhal inflammation of the lining membranes, bearing-down sensations, or general debility, the "Favorite Prescription" reaches the origin of the trouble and corrects it. Guaranteed to benefit, or the money is refunded.

The way to cure Catarrh—there is but one way—take Dr. Sage's Remedy. There's $500 reward offered for an incurable case.
