When a man is in a brown study does he give colour to his thought.

Knowledge is simply a molehill removed from the mountain of ignorance.

A pumped out petroleum well, like a man driven out of his native country, is an exile.

A cat may look the very picture of innocence; but don't leave it alone with a canary.

You meet with twenty men in the day who stutter, but who ever heard of a woman who had an impediment in her speech?

It does not require any genius or talent to find fault; but to give credit when credit is due is indicative of a good heart and sound judgment.

A young lawyer wished to cite an authority on a case he was conducting, and not being able to remember it, he wittily remarked: "Though lost to cite, to memory dear."

A western paper announces the fact that an acrobat turned a summer-sault on a locomotive smokestack. This is nothing. We know an engineer who turned on the steam.

"Nothing is made in vain," exclaims the divine, but the next moment as an aggregation of silk, lace feathers, sweeps up the aisles, he realized that something is maiden vain.

A woman should not scream at the sight of a mouse. It lets the ferocious animal know right where she is located, after which it may advance with the certainty of death upon its quivering prey.

Mr. W C Coughmour has received the nomination for mayor of Salisbury, defeating Dr. M C Quinn. Salisbury does right in holding a convention. Such should be the case in Concord.

We learn through Mr. Morton, the Georgeville mail carrier who drives a claybank horse, that the fish are dying in Dutch Buffalo creek. He has seen dead trout six inches long. He thinks sulphur water from Gold Hill is the cause.

A man reached town on Thursday. He is evidently behind time ten years or more: He, on alighting from the 'bus, inquired for "Reed's drug store." Respectfully submitted to Dan Bivins, our gentle friend, of the Stanly News.

The many cyclones which are now playing such havoc throughout the country has retarded the appearance of the hoopskirt. A woman will not appear on the streets in hoopskirts when a wind storm is expected at any minute.

Do not confuse the Famous Blush of Roses with the many worthless paints, powders, creams and bleaches which are flooding the market. Get the genuine of your druggist, at Fetzer's Drug Store, 75 cents per bottle, and I guarantee it will remove your pimples, freckles, blackheads, moth, tan and sunburn, and give you a lovely complexion.

Mr. Jno. A Rankin, of Mill Hill, gave us a vivid word picture of the heroic efforts in behalf of the unfortunate suicide in his neighborhood. Mr. Rankin, in speaking of the faithfulness of a number who worked so faithfully for several days to keep awake the patient, took occasion to say some very complimentary things about Dr. Stephens, of Enochville.

Violation of Law.

The Concord Correspondent of the Charlotte Observer has this to say: There was, if reports are true, an attempt at rape in our county a few days ago. Will Means, a colored man, went to the house of a white, lady, named Mrs. Melton, at night, and forced an entrance into her bedroom. She began to scream, and the negro, fearing that the neighbors might come to her rescue, left very precipitately. He has been arrested and is now in jail.

There is very little being said of the matter and there must be some extenuating circumstances connected with the affair, else it would create some excitement. The negro denies the charge and says he can prove an alibi. The occurrence took place early in the morning, just before day.

A lawyer in Georgia named King, and who is also a local editor of a country newspaper, has applied for a government position, and in his application to Grover states that he "made a democratic speech at every justices court law ground in the county, and spent $2.15 for rice beer to induce three negroes to vote the democratic ticket." Grover has not yet appointed him, but is considering the application.

MURDER MOST FOUL.

Three Well Connected Mobile Men May Be Lynched.

Mobile Ala., April 21.—Wednesday night at a late hour, Joseph Cook, a clerk in the store of J. P. Clyton, at Seranton, Miss., was assaulted and the safe robbed of 1,100 dollars.

No clue was given except a wagon track, but citizens followed that up with the result that Cook's body was found near Picket's lane. He was unconscious, with three bullets holes in his body. A doctor was summoned and succeeded in bringing the victim to. Before he died, he stated that he was murdered and robbed by James Smith, Ollie Rolls and Charles Faggert.

Citizens scoured the country for the guilty parties and they were arrested while taking the train for Mobile.

The arrest was made by Deputy Sheriff Moore and posse and he now has the jail guarded to prevent the outraged populace from lynching the perpetrators. The guilty parties are connected with some of the best families in Mobile.

Attention, Confederate Veterans.

United Confederate Veterans: You are requested to meet at the court house in Concord on Wednesday, the 10th of May, at 12 o'clock, m., to adopt some suitable resolutions in memory of Col. N. Slough, late of Cabarrus county, who died a few weeks ago at Anderson, S. C.

All old veterans who have not joined the United Veterans Camp are invited to meet with the camp on that day.

J. F. WILLEFORD, Pres.
CHAS. McDONALD, Sec'y.
Camp No. 212, U. C. V.

It is expected that the Ladies' Memorial Association will meet at the court house at 3 o'clock p. m. of that day to decorate the graves of dead soldiers.

The World is a Whale.

What would you think of a newspaper which has an actual bona fide paid circulation of 375,000 copies per day. These are the figures for the New York World. The fact is amply attested. Nine of the biggest business houses in New York have had representatives to make a thorough examination of the books and the records and they certify to the fact.—It is simply tremendous.

Redwine Found Guilty.

Atlanta, April, 20.—The grand jury today found a third true bill against Lewis Redwine, the defaulting cashier of the Gate City National Bank. This bill charges him with embezzling $55,000.

Attention, A. F. and A. M.

Mr. Jno. F Fink, of No. 5, cut down a tall black oak tree. Fifty-one feet up, there was one inch hole in the tree. He cut in; he found a bone the size of a baseball. How it got in there is in doubt. Whether it grew up with the tree, or was thrown up there and lodge, in the forks and becoming a part of the tree, is not known.

Lot For Sale.

MILITARY AID.

It Necessary to Dislodge the James City Tenants.

Newbern, N. C., April 20.—There was so small a number of persons reporting to the sheriff this morning that no move was made towards James city to-day. A delegation of colored ministers are reported to have gone from this city to endeavor to persuade the people of that place to accept the terms offered by Mr. Bryan, and save all other trouble in the matter. There is not much hope of success from that direction, and the course now open is for the sheriff to call on the Governor for a military force to enable him to execute the writs now in hand. The detachment of the naval reserves have mounted two fine boat Howitzers, and are held in readiness for orders.

North Carolina's Dead In Battle.

North Carolina voted but 112,500 when doing its best in 1860. It sent to the war in four years certainly more than 120,000 men—more in fact than any other State sent. It is no wonder then that its dead are scattered from Gettysburg to the Gulf of Mexico.

That more North Carolinians fell at Chicamunga and Missionary Ridge than from any other State but Alabama is very remarkable and confirms all previous reports as to the number and excellence of its soldiers. They lie there in unmarked graves in neglected cemetery of heroes, Will North Carolina permit this to continue? Shall her faithful and gallant soldiers who fell on that bloody field lie uncare for? We hope our people of 1893, will say that this shall not be. If all the States had done their part in the great conflict of 1861-65, as well as North Carolina performed her part, the independence of the South would have been secured and the pains and penalties of the last twenty-eight years would have been avoided.

Let the North Carolina of the generations shows of gratitude, admiration and patriotism to mark suitably the graves of North Carolina's fallen heroes.—Wilmington Messenger.

For Mayor.

At the urgent request of many voters, I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Mayor of Concord. Election to be held Monday, May 1, 1893.

J. L. CROWELL.

He Was Too Good.

"You say you don't drink, George?"
"No."
"Nor smoke?"
"No."
"Nor gamble?"
"No."
"Nor stay out at night?"
"Never."
"Well, we never could be happy as man and wife, George. I have been brought up in N. Y., not heaven."
—New York Standard.

No Encampment.

Raleigh, April 19.—Adj. Gen. F. H. Cameron is reported as saying that the officers who visited the camp ground at Wrightsville found them in such condition that they were forced to report to the Governor adversely as to their fitness and condition for occupancy this year.
