Picked Up and Put in Shape By Our Hasting Pencil Pusher

Hear Dr. Creasy tomorrow evening. Depot agent Smith is having his office painted quite nicely.

There were large congregations at all the churches, on Sunday.

The insurance rates have been raised in Raleigh 50 per cent.

Mr. Ulysses Alexander, of Lincoln, aged 76, dropped dead from his chair on the 6th.

Judging from the testimony in the courts, every blind tiger has its bar as well as its lair.

Dr. Creasy on Damon and Pythias at the Lutheran church Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Heinz' loose pickles, chow chow, and bottle pickles.—Sims & Alexander. 12

Chick is entertaining the people of Greensboro for a week. He is playing for the benefit of the firemen of the city.

Mr. H M Goodman was extremely ill, on Sunday, having been attacked suddenly by cramp colic. He is now out of danger.

French candies (fresh), graham wafers, grandma's cookies, crack-nolls and ginger snaps.—Sims & Alexander. 12

Bob Holshouser has returned from Texas and is sufficiently amused with the country. He is now a strong admirer of Cabarrus county.

The new tank at the depot is nearing completion. It is to have a capacity of 100,000 gallons. Capt. Sutton is the superintendent of the job.

There is a man in this town that has to give his wife five cents everytime she helps him don his overcoat. The mildness of the winter has prevented him from busting.

Canned tomatoes, corn and apples at 12 1/2 cents. Fine New Orleans molasses and old governor Java coffee.—Sims & Alexander. 12

The Standard has received the first number of the Monroe Journal, a four page, six column paper. It is launched by Messrs G M Beasley & Bro., and the paper has a neat and new way character.

Ed F Correll is finishing up a handsome stick for Mr Frank Smith. It was brought here by Mr G T Crowell from Argentine Republic. The head of it will look like a skull when touched up.

Buds are swelling and it looks now as if there will be but little fruit this year. This will be a loss, and to think there will be a campaign besides makes it the situation anything but encouraging.

The ticket office at the depot has been painted in and out. Several overcoats and fine suits have been ruined. It is a wonder that the road is not sued for damage, as there seems such a terrible desire to sue the railroad on any pretense.

The assignees of the J S Fisher Estate exposed to public sale today (Monday) one half interest in the elegant residence on North Main street. There was but one bid put on it, and it was made for $200 by Mrs. J S Fisher. There was no other bid, and auctioneer Mehaffey closed the sale at that bid.

Blizzard Coming.

The weather station has received a dispatch that strikes terror to mankind and tickles the coal dealers. "Heavy rain Tuesday, probably changing to snow, followed on Wednesday by a severe cold wave.

The Monday History.

Those, who have observed closely, remember that thus far in 1894 every Monday has been a disagreeable day. Whilst not raining hard, there has not yet been a single pretty day, such as we are accustomed to frequently during even winter.

The Revenue Collectors.

The amount collected in January in the Fifth Revenue District are:

Statesville	$33,614.04
Winston	73,465 76
Mt. Airy.....	22,662 31
Asheville.....	13,412 80

Total

It does look like Winston ought to have the head office in its midst.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs Phobe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mrs. Thos, Eggers, 119 Floriday St. San Francisco suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at Fetzer's Drug store. Regular size 50 and $1.00.

Three years ago, Cynthia Reeves died at Shelby, and at her request, her rings, bracelet and other jewelry were buried with her. The Review reports that unknown parties dug into her grave, broke open the coffin and robbed the body of the jewelry.

When you see a youth who will do any sort of work, no matter how menial it may be, rather than be idle, you can make up your mind that that fellow amounts to something. The young man who would starve before he would do anything beneath what he conceives to be his dignity is not made of the right stuff to cut much of a figure in this world. Don't be afraid of any sort of work so long as it is honorable.—Greensboro Record.

A NARROW ESCAPE

Gus Thies and Hope Barrier Are Yet Afloat.

Last Thursday night at the Haile Gola Mine, S. C., an explosion took place.

The engine and other top ground machinery are run at night as well as during the day. Hope Barrier, of Mt. Pleasant, is clerking there. He and Augustus Thies were in the engine room after supper. They concluded to return to the house and retire. They had not been out the room five minutes until there was an explosion that knocked down one wall. Had they been in, it would have been instant death.

It is one of those explosions such as occur sometimes apparently without a cause. Hope Barrier wrote that it was an "instantaneous explosion." No one was hurt.

John Brock Caught.

John Brock, the wife murderer, so charged, has been caught. It will be remembered that this fellow was accused of drowning his wife in the sound at Wrightsville, about ten days ago.

If he can substantiate his tale, he is not guilty; but his own conduct and remarks and manners show that he is a very depraved man. He was captured near a barroom in Wilmington.

Improve Your Cattle.

Send them to Smith's Grove. I have "Buck," the best full-blood Jersey Bull in the country. Fees $1 and $2. WRIGHT SMITH.

Marion Butler Elected President.

The National Alliance in session has elected Mr Marion Butler president of the National Alliance. He was formerly vice president of the Alliance. This is quite an honor not only to Mr Butler, but it shows that even the National Alliance sees good timber in North Carolina for carrying out its purposes.

This will virtually take him out of the State, but will give him a salary of $3,000 per year.

Mr. Simmons' Letter.

Mr. Simmons writes a letter that knocks the bottom out of Senator Vance's opposition; though its always been a personal matter with the Senator, the old man will not let up in his opposition. Mr. Simmons has not done half what his friends thought he had; and Senator Vance or no other strong believer in the great rights of a Senator, can object to what Mr. Simmons did.

"The horse that pulls the plough should have the fodder."—Senator Vance.

Stanly County's Court.

On Monday, the 19th, Judge E T Boykin, with Solicitor Webb, will open the spring term of Stanly County. It will be for both criminal and civil causes.

Stanly court has lost lots of its glory—indeed the times they now have don't seem at all akin to those of even ten years ago.

Court use to be a side affair, and the main performance was in the swapping grounds where every variety and character of horse flesh could be seen; and every kind of flavored breath could be found. All has been changed, the fair (?) grounds are gone—a church and private residences are there. Stanly now has as quiet a court week as any county in the State. A kind, generous people live there.

Dr. Creasy Tuesday Night.

Dr. Creasy, of the Tryon Street Methodist Church of Charlotte, by invitation of the Concord Lodge of Knights of Pythias, will deliver his lecture on Damon and Pythias. This lecture will be delivered Tuesday night in St. James' Lutheran church. It is said to be one of the finest and most entertaining lectures ever delivered in the State; and Dr. Creasy has the reputation of being a splendid orator. The public is cordially invited—no charges whatever.

A Boy's Arm Cut Off.

Yesterday afternoon the little ten year old son of Mr. Albert Sanders, of Crab Orchard, suffered a terrible accident. He was in the woods where his father was chopping wood, and had an axe to hack about with himself. While attempting to chop a limb off he fell against the log and the axe fell on his arm and nearly severed it from his body. Before assistance could be rendered the little fellow had about bled to death. Dr. Pharr was summoned and bound up the wound.—Charlotte News.

The Second Coming of Christ.

Rev. J C Davis, of the Episcopal church, preached the first of a series of discourses on the second coming of Christ, Sunday night. It was an interesting and instructive sermon, one that was most attentively listened to by the congregation. The Standard has prepared notes of the discourse, which will be printed in Tuesday's issue.

Though the most insignificant among European powers, Turkey is closely connected with the condition of affairs that must exist before Christ's second coming.

Sued the Patient.

Wadesboro Messenger Intelligencer: The town of Wadesboro incurred a debt of $170 in coping with a recent case of varioloid in our midst. The bill was presented to Mr. Wm. Preston, the patient, and he refused to pay it, consequently the town has brought suit against him for that amount. It is said that Mr. Preston is quite well to do and there is little doubt but that he will be compelled ultimately to settle the bill.

[It is pretty rough business to have smallpox, and then be sued $170 for it. Such a course as that will leave marks forever.]

Our Church Work.

We have received the second number of the above monthly, which Rev. H M Blair is issuing at Mt. Airy. The Standard said something nice about Rev. Blair (and this is just what everybody in Concord would do whenever occasion presents) and he is sufficiently provoked (?) to reply thus:

"We want to assure Bro. Cook that we heartily appreciate these kind words. About twelve years ago, we washed our hands of printer's ink, thoroughly satisfied that we would never again defile ourselves. But it is still true as of old, that circumstances alter cases, and we have found it advisable to meddle with it again. Once getting printer's ink on our fingers, it is hard to get it off."

Money To Lend.

TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS in cash to lend on Cabarrus real estate. j31. MONTGOMERY & CROWELL.

JILTED AT 66.

An Aged Spinster Vows Revenge on Her Faithful Lover.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 8.—Jilted by Henry Casper for a young woman, Miss Amelia Goldman, an aged spinster, threatens to follow him to the ends of the earth to get her revenge. Amelia frankly admits that she is sixty-six years old, and she looks every day of it. She called at the Lehigh Avenue Court, Williamsburg, today to secure a warrant for the arrest of Casper who is but twenty-seven. The specific charge is that he has trifled with her affections.

Miss Goldman, lives with her brother, who is much her junior, on Central avenue, near Stanhope street. Six months ago Casper arrived from Germany and was looking for work when he met Goldman, who took a fancy to him and offered him a home. Miss Goldman says Casper asked her to be his wife and she consented. Now he is courting another woman.

Harnett Court House Burned.

Judge W P Hoke arrived in the city yesterday afternoon, says the Raleigh Observer of the 10th, from Lillington where he has been holding court this week, but the term of court was brought suddenly to a close by the destruction of the court house by fire about 3 o'clock yesterday morning. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been entirely accidental and it was so far under way when discovered that it was impossible to save the building. All the records and other contents of any value were saved except some Supreme Court records. The Harnett Court house was burned about two years ago, and since then court has been held in a large frame building which was rented for the purpose, and which belonged to Col. J D Williams, of Fayetteville. This was the building destroyed yesterday morning. Of course court had to be adjourned in consequence and Judge Hoke came on to this city.

The criminal docket had concluded and the civil docket was about to be taken up.
