

THE DAILY STANDARD.

VOL. V.—No. 550.

CONCORD, N. C., FRIDAY, APRIL 6, 1894.

WHOLE No. 1,129

A BATCH OF LOCAL NEWS.

Picked Up and Put in Shape By Our Hustling Pencil Pusher

Mr. Auther Faggart has a painful bile on his nose.

See what Messrs. Cannons & Fetzer have to say today.

You can get fine 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ c mulls for 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ c. at Morrison, Lentz & Co.

Tillman's little fun, in South Carolina costs the state $25,000.

The latest styles of lace insertings for dress trimmings.—The Racket.

Hog cholera is raging in Montgomery county. One man alone has lost 150 head.

Did you know that you could get 15c. Thibet cloths at 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ c at Morrison, Lentz & Co.

Mr. H Washington Barnhardt, of No. 5, tells us small wheat shows signs of reviving.

Dollar Corsets and B. B. corset waists, for 45 cents.—The Racket.

Sales of revenue stamps at the Statesville office during March amounted to $44,722.13.

A lot of boys waists to go at 15c., former price 25 and 50 cents.—Morrison, Lentz & Co.

Several farmers have told us that the small grain that was not forward is coming out fairly well.

We have the best $2 25 silk umbrella in town, to go at $1 25.—Morrison, Lentz & Co.

The way things are in South Carolina, it will (certainly) be a long time between drinks.

Lady's Vests in latest styles at prices that astonish you, see—Morrison, Lentz & Co.

The chain gang has pitched its tent in No. 2. It is working the road near the Patterson mill.

Oxford ties, my how cheap, only 49c. at the cheap store.—Morrison, Lentz & Co.

The lumber for the bridge at the depot is being received. When work begins, it will go up like a flash.

Your attention is called to the advertisement of Mr. D J Bostian, which shows some new features today.

The daintiest 5c 10c and 25c handkerchiefs in town—the 10c are nicely scalloped and embroidered.—The Racket.

The uncertainty of this April weather really wrecks the hopes of the ladies, to say nothing of new head gear.

Chas. H Polley having resigned as mayor of Monroe, Mr. C N Simpson has been elected to fill out the unexpired term.

Ladies wishing a Summer silk, can save money by seeing us. A big line of samples to select from.—Morrison, Lentz & Co.

Mr. F H Sars, of Mt. Pleasant, Cabarrus county, has been appointed engineer in the Census office at a salary of $900.

Mr. Scott has been taking some pictures of the interior of Scotia. The dining room and the chapel especially are interesting scenes.

Esq. W J Hill was sporting about town carrying a paint bucket with several brushes. That the bucket contained red paint, does not imply that he painted the town red.

THE RUSH OF HUMANITY.

People Who Travel as Seen by Our Reporter.

—Miss Lois McDowell, who has been visiting at Mr. S J Love's, has returned to Charlotte.

—Mrs. W A Patterson, and daughter, Mrs. Cornelison, of Salisbury, are visiting in the city.

I saw the prettiest Lawns in town for 5c. at Morrison, Lentz & Co.

It is reported that Dr. L H Stowe, of China Grove, was found dead in bed Thursday morning. If we mistake not he was an electricity doctor.

Gov. Tillman, of South Carolina, purchased of P C Saunders of Montgomery a big lot of whiskey on which there was a government tax of $2,000.

Dr. W H Wakfield will be in Concord at the St. Cloud hotel on Wednesday, April 18th, for one day. Practice limited to eye, ear, nose and throat.

On account of the dedication of the Cathedral at Belmont, N. C., on April 11th, the R & D will sell round trip tickets for $1.75. Tickets on sale 10th and 11th, limited to the 13th.

J T Pounds asks us to say that he is still plaining and selling lumber, and that he is ready at any time to take contracts. The idea has gotten out that he was in the coffin business alone.

The Standard is mighty anxious to hear from its bright and witty Forest Hill correspondent every day. His cheerful letters are a boon in this office, and our readers enjoy them equally as well. Here's to your good health.

Stanly News: Hon. B F Long, Solicitor of the 8th judicial district, passed through Albemarle last Saturday evening on his way to Troy court. Mr. Long is spoken of as a probable candidate for congress.

[Mr. Long must hold on to the position to which he is now an honor.—Ed. Standard]

Statesville Landmark: "I want Stephenson for President in '96," said an Olin township farmer in the Landmark office Tuesday, "I'm tired of these New York Democrats. I wouldn't give five cents for the difference between a New York Democrat and a New York Republican and I wouldn't know which one to give the five cents to." Democrats in the South are beginning to turn their eyes to Adlai.

A Household Treasure

D W Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, is procurable. G A Dykeman is Druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free at Fetzer's Drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1 00.

The man who gets mad at what the newspapers say about him should return thanks three times a day for what the newspapers know about him and don't say.

THE ORIGIN OF THE TROUBLE

An Innocent Old Lady's Trunk Really Started the Whole Row.

Lynchburg Advance: Alonzo E Dargan, who lives at No. 238 West 132 street, and is a brother of Alphonso E Dargan, Chief of Police of Darlington, S. C., and cousin to the Mayor, throws an interesting light on the matter of the origin of the combat there, and incidentally explains the secret of the influence wielded by Governor Tillman over the farmers in that district.

"The people of Darlington had patiently borne the infliction of this infamous dispensary law which deprived them of their constitutional rights," said Mr. Dargan last night, although they were prepared to defend any invasion of their homes by the Governor's constabulary. But as trivial accidents have sometimes brought about revolution, so one act of brutality by a constable precipitated this insurrection.

"An esteemed old woman, whose name I just now forget, stood on the depot platform at Darlington waiting for a train, being about to pay a visit to friends in the interior of the State. Beside her was her trunk. Probably some joker, in a spirit of fun, told a constable that she had contraband whiskey concealed in the luggage, or the constable may have suspected her out of his own inner consciousness.

"He strode up to her and without a word pulled open the trunk and scattered her clothing all over the platform. C S McCulloch, a leading citizen of Darlington, stood by, and approaching the man, said: "I have some contraband liquor in my house. Come and take it out if you dare." Meantime the poor old woman, moaning and crying, was gathering up her clothing as best she could.

"The story of the outrage spreading through the town, excited the people to such a degree of fury that it only needed another act to set them ablaze. Governor Tillman supplied it when he instructed his constables to break into the homes of the citizens. I have this story," said Mr. Dargan, "from J E Norment, of Darlington, who was in this city two weeks ago."

Municipal Election.

An election will be held on the first Monday in May 1894, in the various wards of the town of Concord, for the election of Mayor and six Commissioners, and at the same time and places an election of six School Commissioners, one from each ward and two at large.

Registers and Inspectors appointed as follows:

Ward 1—G G Richmond, Register; J B Caldwell and Wm. B Parker, Inspectors.

Ward 2—J M Burrage, Register; Aaron Hethcock and J W Burkhead, Inspectors.

Ward 3—Geo. W Brown, Register; G E Fisher and M L Blackwelder, Inspectors.

Ward 4—J M Alexander, Register; A J Blackwelder and G M Lore, Inspectors.

By order of the Board.
JAS. C. FINEK, Clerk.

March 30, 1894. a 30

Ministers may not be allowed to carry their politics into the pulpit, but they are surely called upon to teach their people to carry religion into their politics.

He's a Fraud.

A man has been here during the week who is undoubtedly a fraud, in one sense at least.

He is a paralytic and is in the worst kind of a fix. He can scarcely walk or talk, though his swallow for liquor seems to be all right from the quantity he has been imbibing.

He has been begging from door to door and on account of his condition succeeded in getting many dimes.

This morning he was walking around the streets in his stocking feet. He approached officer Scott and told him that he went to a restaurant last night and that some one stole his shoes and he wanted the city to give him another pair.

Mr. Scott made some inquiries and found that he had attempted to pawn them at one of the saloons, but the bar keeper would not take them. Afterwards it was ascertained that a man carried him to a restaurant, paid for his lodging and put him to bed. This morning when he awoke his friend was gone, also his shoes.

The cripple called on Mayor Barringer this morning about 9 o'clock and demanded shoes. On being refused he became obstreperous and abusive and was locked up. He was about drunk. His name is said to be Chas. Crawford and he hails from Lynchburg.—Greensboro Record.

[He may be here next. When you are feeding tramps, you may be encouraging a rogue or incendiary.

Ugly Trouble in Salisbury.

This comes out from Salisbury under date of April 5th: An ugly row occurred at Blue Front, house of ill fame here yesterday evening, in which T A Wiley, an employe of the Salisbury Cotton Mills, beat Mat. Alley, proprietor of the house, almost to death. Besides striking her with a stick, he stamped her and bruised her up badly. It was thought for some time that she would not recover. Both had been drinking freely at the time of the disturbance. Wiley was arrested and had a preliminary hearing last night. He will have a trial to-morrow. Instead of a bond of $150, he put up the cash for his appearance. A pair of knucks were found in his pockets and a warrant of indictment issued today for this. He put up $50 for his appearance at court.

Coroner's Jury Decides.

Darlington, S. C., April 5, via Florence, S. C.—The coroner's jury has rendered its verdict to hold McLendon for the killing of Norment; Cain for the killing of Redmond, and that Redmond killed Pepper.

The military court will first submit its report to Governor Tillman, but it is understood to concur as to the facts as they have been published. The coroner is now making out the commitments for the two men.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chiblains, Corns and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale at P. B. Fetzer's Drug Store

Subscribe for the Standard.

A YOUTHFUL COUPLE.

Miss Torrence and Mr. Kincaid Were Forced to Marry.

Statesville, April 3.—The marriage of Mr. Kincaid, of Gaston county, and Miss Torrence, of this city, will be celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P S Torrence, tomorrow.

Miss Torrence is barely 16 years of age and Mr. Kincaid scarcely 21. The gentleman boarded for a long time at the home of the bride, but one morning, some months ago, he was vainly called for breakfast, having skipped to the paternal mansion of his ancestors in the county of Gaston.

Time rolled on and the sweetheart became a mother. Rough, unsympathetic officers tore the young man from the arms of his parents in Gaston and lodged him in jail in Iredell. On trial before Justice Lewis marriage filled the hearts of both boy and girl, but the father said: "No; my daughter and her bouncing baby boy deserve more at your hands than simply your name. Ask your father in the county of Gaston to make over to my daughter $1,000 worth of the paternal estate; give my daughter your name and love and protect her and you have my blessing." The marriage to-morrow is the result and as soon as the child-mother and baby can travel they will leave for the home of the groom.

Slew Her Accuser.

HENDERSONVILLE, April 5.—News come to town this morning of the killing at Saluda, of Will Johnson, a section hand, by a 17 year old girl named Lou Parris. It appears that Johnson had accused her of immoral conduct with a married man named Jesse Bishop who brought Johnson before them to answer the charge. Johnson repeated the accusation, the woman became enraged and struck him with a knife, piercing his heart. He died in fifteen minutes. The woman is in jail here.

[Modern ideas of such things will endorse the girl's proceedings.]

Mr. Sims' Patent.

Mr. John A Sims, of Concord, passed through the city today on his way to Gastonia, where he will perhaps make a trade with a gentleman, selling him the patent rights of a butter crate for shipping which was invented and patented by Chalmers Sims, a son of Mr. John A Sims. The crate is really a refrigerator and is one of the best arrangements for keeping butter fresh that has ever been invented. The young inventor is perhaps not more than 18 years old, but has a wonderfully ingenious mind.—Charlotte News.

A young doctor said to a girl, "Do you know dear, I have a heart affection for you?" "Have you had it long?" she coyly inquired. "Oh, yes, I feel I will liver trouble life without you," he responded. "Then you had better asthma," she murmured.

We may not be able to win friends or to hold them, but every one of us ought to be able to be a friend unfailingly. Friendship consists in loving rather than being loved, and the measure of our worth in friendship is in our faithfulness as friends.

Can't you persuade your neighbor to take this paper?