A BATCH OF LOCAL NEWS.

Picked Up and Put in Shape By Our Hasting Pencil Pusher

There were no race horses at the Rowan Fair.

Workmen are repairing the cotton platform.

The rainy day cuts the Standard short of local news today.

Mr. D L Bost and family have moved into the Fitzgerald house on North Main street.

Miss Laura Parish has gone to Asheville. She will teach in the mountains this year.

Mr. Fred Swink has received a car-load of cattle from Stanly. He took them out to the farm.

Twenty-seven inch bleached Butchers or embroidery linen only 25c yard. The Racket. 5

The N. C. Christian Advocate prints a picture of Bev. J C Kilgo, president of Trinity College. He is yet very young looking.

A sale of the personal property at the Nugget mine took place near Georgeville, Wednesday. In the evening things got lively.

The Rowan Fair is a failure or else it is not going on at all, if we are to judge by the Salisbury Herald. The paper says nothing about it.

The successful knights at the tournament of the Rowan Fair are: J H Krider, Jno. B Fisher, Geo. A Fisher and Lewis E Fisher. It is a Fishing set, it is.

Henry L Propat will have oysters every Saturday and will serve them in stews or fries, by quart or pint and delivered in any part of the city. Leave orders at store. 3t.

Mr. D P Dayvault's dray driver, while hauling some lime, was thrown off, two barrels falling on him. The colored man was right painfully hurt.

The authorities have run a fence—a closed fence—from the Graded School building to the Anthony lot. The girls will have their playground next to the Baptist church and the boys will take the grounds on the north side of the fence.

A train backed into a wagon at the Kerr street crossing last night. Clem Cowan, col., was on the wagon but jumped and kept his horse from being killed by holding him until the train which was going slow could be stopped. The wagon was torn to pieces.—Salisbury Herald.

The Laura Sunderland School, erroneously called "White Hall," is preparing to open. Everything is in readiness. Misses Stephens, Kerns and Allison, of Hopewell, Mecklenburg county, and Misses Corrie and Prudie Lewis and Euphenia Robinson, of Gaston county, arrived Wednesday evening to enter Sunderland.

The Standard has an abiding faith in the saving qualities of the Democratic party of Cabarrus. Just as sure as election day comes, just as sure will the entire ticket from Sheriff Morrison down to Coroner be elected. No one is expecting any other result. And the Populist can not say "frand" either. We are sure that not a single one on the Populist ticket has much more than a fainting hope of election. It is just one of those examples of "as-long-as-life-there-is-hope" cases with them.

THE RUSH OF HUMANITY.

People Who Travel as Seen by Our Reporter.

—Mr. J F Misenheimer, of Charlotte, was in the city.

—Dr. J Y Fitzgerald is visiting in Monroe.

—Mr. Chas. Ritchie spent Wednesday in Salisbury.

—Mrs. C W Blair, of Richmond, Va., is visiting Miss Jennie Brown.

—Mrs. W B and Miss Ollie Odell have returned from a visit to friends in Yorkeville, S. C.

—Mrs. M J Freeman contemplates a lengthy visit to her sister, Mrs. John W Fetzer, of Baltimore, at an early day.

The New South Club is preparing to admit visitors for ten days. President Swink has had cards printed for the use of members.

Your attention is called to the very interesting statements made in the new "ad" of that enterprising, wide-awake firm, the Lowe Co.

Over the hills, valleys, rivers and forests, the Standard congratulates Dr. C M Payne. His household has another bright and promising addition.

There is a new face among our advertisers today. We refer you to the order "Attention." Messrs. Morrison, Lentz & Co. have a very interesting advertisement in this issue. Read it.

Miss Della, the 18 year old daughter of Mr. David Parks of near Enochville, died Tuesday night of fever. This is the second death recently in that family. A short time ago Mr. Hugh Parks, a brother of this young lady and a member of the class of '94 at Davidson College died. It is truly an afflicted family.

Rev. W C Alexander, the pastor elect of the First Presbyterian church has arrived. The manse was in great part refurnished. Mr. Alexander's family will follow in the course of several weeks. The people of Concord, irrespective of denominational affiliations give Mr. Alexander a cordial welcome. The First Presbyterian church is to be congratulated upon the securing so able and affable pastor without any delay.

Hon. John S. Henderson and Mr. A. C. Shuford will speak in the County.

Hon. John S. Henderson, of Salisbury, and Mr. A C Shuford, of Catawba county, will speak in joint debate at the following places and dates:

Mt. Pleasant, Friday, October 5 at 8 o'clock p. m.

At Bethel, No. 10 township, on Saturday, October 6, at 2 o'clock.

Harrisburg, Monday, October 8, at 2 o'clock and at Dewese, No. 3 township on Tuesday, October 9, at 2 o'clock.

Music School.

I have opened a music school and am prepared to teach piano, organ and orchestral instruments. I will give lessons at the home of the pupil or at my music room over Johnston's drug store. Respectfully,
Ollw PROF. R. L. KEESLER.

Knife Lost.

Any one finding a small, horn-handle knife, with two blades, will please bring it to Standard office.

THE ELECTION IN GEORGIA.

The Democratic Majority 40,000.—The Comparatively Little Interest in the Election the Cause of the Small Vote.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 3.—A lighter vote was polled in the State election today than was cast two years ago. The Democratic ticket was elected by a majority estimated at 40,000. Atkinson, Democrat, for Governor, ran behind his ticket. Many old soldiers either scratched Atkinson or voted for Hines, Populist. Fulton county, outside of Atlanta, went for the Populist ticket.

The Democratic ticket elected is as follows: Governor, Wm. Y Atkinson; Secretary of State, Allen D Candler; Treasurer, Robert U Hardeman; Attorney General, Joseph M Terrell; Comptroller General, Wm. A Wright; Commissioner of Agriculture, Robert T Nesbitt.

LEGISLATURE DEMOCRATIC.

Two years ago Georgia went Democratic for Governor by 71,000 majority for W J Northern over W L Peck, the Populist nominee. W Y Atkinson, the Democratic candidate for Governor, was this year opposed by J K Hines, Populist. The election has been closely contested for the last two months and the indications are that the State has polled an unusually full vote. There are 137 counties in Georgia, and returns are coming in slowly, but there seems to be no doubt that Atkinson's majority for Governor will be between 30,000 and 50,000. The Populists have made considerable gains in the Legislature, but not enough to in any wise effect the Democratic control of either the Senate or the House.

It will be after midnight before anything like official returns are in, but in the meantime it can be stated with certainty that the entire Democratic ticket is elected by a majority approximating 40,000, with the Legislature largely Democratic. It will elect a United States Senator.

A Good Institution.

Mt. Arcona Seminary at Mt. Pleasant has had an excellent opening. Although the building was considerably enlarged last year, every room is occupied and filled to its extended capacity. Room can be made for four more pupils if, necessary, two more have made application. North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida are represented among the pupils. There are nine teachers in this growing institution. Its many friends will rejoice in its prosperity.

We Are Done Up.

The Monroe Enquirer has a grudge at the good women, for it cries out pittingly "Oh dreary life!" Hear it:

"It is said that a hundred women in Kansas have signed a pledge to wear trousers. So it goes! Woman has taken away nearly all of man's prerogatives, but heretofore he has had the proud consciousness that he was the sole proprietor of his pants. Now he is no longer the possessor of that badge of distinction. The women commenced wearing our collars and neckties, next our coats and vests, and now she has donned pants. Oh life! Oh dreary life!"

Found a Lady's Cloak.

Left at Butt's tent Monday night. Owner can have same by paying for this notice.

No Populism in Camden.

Elizabeth City, N. C., Oct. 2.

The Democratic party of Camden held their primaries on last Saturday. The nominations for candidates for the Legislature and for county offices were made by vote at the polls. The candidates for the Legislature were C F Ferebee and Sammel Gregory. Gregory was dominated. He is a supporter of Jarvis for the Senate.

Your correspondent attended the voting precinct at Shiloh and was there throughout the day. There he ascertained with absolute certainty that the Populist party has ceased to exist in that county. At this precinct the last Presidential election the vote was as follows: 138 Democrats, 40 Republicans and 73 Populists. There were of the Populists ten or twelve former Republicans. These are safely back in the Republican party, whilst many of the Democrat-Pops have returned to the Democratic party.

Fusion did not fuse the Democratic Pops. It completely annihilated the Populist party in Camden for all time. Daniel Squires, the fusion candidate for the legislature, will not get a vote from the former Populists of that county.

They are Coming.

The first installment of students for the Normal and Industrial School arrived last night, while many more came on the trains this morning.

The greatest number, however, will be in tonight, and hereafter the hills up around the Normal will not look so deserted.

It is rather tantalizing to the young gentlemen about town, but we can't avoid remarking that in the arrivals so far are a score of just the prettiest kind of girls.—Greensboro Record.

[There are Cabarrus girls in that score, too.]

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G Caillouette, Druggist Beayersville, Ill., says: "To Dr King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at Fetzer's drug store.

The Millville Banner.

We don't want to intimidate anybody, but when we're elected mayor we shall fine every man who voted against us $10 and cost.

We were in a recent railroad accident near here but failed to get any damages, as we were riding on a free pass and the leg the train ran over was our wooden leg.

The alligator is to be envied. He can swallow a pine log on the 1st of October and he doesn't feel hungry again until spring.

We can furnish all the tar needed for the torchlight procession. The last time they applied it to us it stuck.

We are sorry to hear that they had a lynching in Michigan recently. When will the people of that great State become civilized?

GOOD-BYE FITZSIMMONS.

You've Been Anxious for a Fight. Now You Will Get in the Neck and Alas Poor Neck.

New York, Oct. 3.—The evening telegram this evening prints the following:

James Corbett has changed his mind about fighting Bob Fitzsimmons for the championship of the world. He has overcome his objection to meet a middle-weight, and has announced his intention of covering Fitzsimmons' money, now held by the sporting editor of the Herald, and he will be in the city to match one week from tomorrow.

Corbett communicated this information to a prominent sporting man this afternoon, who said: Corbett will go into this match against my judgment. I furnished part of the stake money for his fight with Sullivan, but I deplore his action in meeting a middle-weight. It will add nothing to his prestige if he beats Fitzsimmons and it is a big chance. However, he knows best what he wishes to do.

Corbett's action in receding from the position he assumed Monday is a great surprise to his friends and enemies alike.

Early and Late.

Go to bed early—wake up with joy;

Go to bed late—cross girl or boy.

Go to bed early—ready for play;

Go to bed late—moping all day,

Go to bed early—no pains or ill;

Go to bed late—doctors and pills.

Dr. Herring Here.

It is no longer "Dr. H O Herring, of Concord," but "Dr. H C Herring, of Charlotte." Dr. Herring made the move yesterday. His family will probably not come over for three weeks. Charlotte gives Dr. Herring a right royal welcome.—Charlotte Observer. [The local editor of the Observer will do us a favor by calling on the Doctor for a batch of Fall poetry. He's a good one.]

Joint Discussion.

Next Monday night at 8 o'clock in the court house, there will be a joint discussion between Congressman Henderson and Mr. A C Shuford, the Populist candidate for Congress.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only 50 cents at Fetzer's drug store.

Jellico Coal.

It is important that you consider the character of coal you buy. An inferior quality is always expensive. The celebrated Jellico coal possesses the highest heating capacity and the smallest proportion of ashes of any coal known, and is conceded to be the most satisfactory on the market.

It is offered with the guarantee that it will show the best results. Always reliable. Its reputation is based on its merits. Your orders solicited.
