Locusts are ripe.

The persimmon crop is not a failure.

Sam Sloop has accepted a position with Esq. C. G. Montgomery.

The speaking Monday night at the court house is looked forward to with great anticipation.

A large crowd was in town today and our merchants, especially our advertisers, had a good trade. So it is.

A "tourist" with his cart and grindstone was on the street. His specialties were scissors and razors.

What is the matter with this weather? Yesterday and today were two days of perfectness, such as autumn only can bring about.

Some one who was evidently hungry "swipped" a basket of dinner from a wagon in the lot in rear of D. P. Dayvault's store. We do not know the party that was loser, but we saw the empty basket.

While several boys were chunking rocks and sticks at locusts this Saturday morning on Spring street, opposite the graded school a stray rock fell on the head of a small colored girl and hurt her right severely. Boys should be more careful in throwing rocks, especially on the street.

The Governor has offered a reward of $100 for the capture and conviction of the unknown person or persons who murdered Mr. Jas. Brown, a cotton mill superintendent in Catawba county last week. It will be remembered that Brown went to his store to watch for burglars, and was killed by the latter after a terrible fight.

A picture with all genuine year marks, one showing Southern happiness and a peace that is full and complete, was exhibited on the streets Friday evening. A colored man riding a gray ox, spurred up to a trot peculiar to a cow. Without bridle, with an erect posture he manipulated a fiddle and brought forth music, the like of which has never before been heard.

SHE WAS INNOCENT.

A Young Lady Who Had a Narrow Escape From Conviction.

"Stories of conviction on circumstantial evidence are rife in the law-books and have afforded the plot of many a novel," said J. S. Haberling, of New York. "A very sad case, not of conviction, but almost as bad in its results occurred in New York recently. A young lady of refinement, a stranger in the city, obtained employment as governess in a gentleman's family. One of her pupils, a girl 15 years old, lost a diamond ring. It was found in the desk of the governess. She declared she had not seen it since it was lost on the girl's hand, but she was hustled off to the Tombs, and unable to give bond was kept there several days, exposed to the companionship of the most depraved of her sex. She was taken to court in the Black Maria with a negress and a white woman, both convicted felons, going to be sentenced. She was kept in the pen waiting for her case to be called, exposed to the impudent gaze of the horde of courtroom loafers.

"When her case was called the court appointed a lawyer to defend her, as she was penniless. The prosecuting witness and the father told the story of the finding of the missing ring. The presumption that the accused had placed it there was more or less strong until the lawyer began to cross question the owner of the ring. Guessing at the truth, by adroit questioning he drew from the unwilling witness the fact that she had often pried into the dressing case drawers of the governess, and that she had been so engaged an hour or so before she missed her ring, and the further fact that the ring fitted loosely. The judge dismissed the case promptly, and the accuser's father apologized, but the young woman, being of a highly temperamental, was completely prostrated by her terrible experience in the Tombs, and the ill effect will, it is feared, be permanent."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykerman Druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottle free at Fetzer's Drug store. Regular size 50 c. and $1.00.

A butterfly breast-pin with small chain between Methodist church and Loan street. Finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving same at Miss Mary Brachen's millinery store.

Henderson and Shuford at Mt. Pleasant.

The candidates for Congress from this district met in a joint discussion at Mt. Pleasant Friday night.

It has been a long time since those people down there have been treated to a skinning exhibition.

Shuford made all manner of statements. Henderson pinned him down and showed where he was wrong, then asked him if he knew better why he did not tell the people, and if he didn't know any better he was too ignorant to represent any intelligent people anywhere. It is said that Shuford was hacked unto death. And it is reasonable too, for he's a weak piece of flesh. In the sight of some people he is an angel, so to speak.

It is Immense.

The largest pumpkin we have seen was at the Fair this year and is now at the store of Mr. John A. Kimmons. This pumpkin was raised by Mr. M. M. Gillon, about two miles from town, and weighs 108½ pounds. It measures six feet around and two feet in diameter. It's almost a whale.

Notice.

There will be a regular communication of Stokes Lodge No. 32. A. F. & A. M., Monday night October 8th at 7:30 o'clock. By order of W. M. J. L. BOGER, Sec.

When a Populist tells you the Democrat tariff bill was framed in the interest of the Sugar Trust and other special interests, ask him how it was, then, that two Populist Senators voted for it as it finally passed the Senate, and that seven Populist Representatives voted for it and none against it when it got back to the House?

The Standard man while on his rounds found several ministers of our city hard at work. They were at different parts of the city and were evidently striving to get a morsel prepared for their mastication; one was splitting kindling wood and the other was hunting a cook—a prevailing scarcity in our city. This was suggestive.

Mr. Benedict, public printer, has discharged a large number of employees since Congress adjourned. From four to ten are being discharged now every week. Mr. Benedict says that he will continue these discharges until most of the Republicans are turned out and when a demand for force is made by the convening of Congress, he will fill these places with Democrats.

If you Want to be Loved.

Don't find fault.
Don't contradict people even if you are right.

Don't be inquisitive about the affairs of even your most intimate friends.

Don't underrate anything because if you don't possess it.

Don't believe that everybody else in the world is happier than you.

Don't conclude that you have never had any opportunities in life.

Don't believe all the evil you hear.

Don't repeat gossip, even if it does interest a crowd.

Don't go untidy on the plea that everybody knows you.

Don't be rude to inferiors in social position.

When tramps ask for pie it would be a good idea to offer them a cake—of soap.

O. L. W. PROF. R. L. KEESLER.

Spotted Skin, Eh?

Says the Sampson Democrat; "A new skin having grown upon Mr. Butler, he is now desirous of meeting Mr. Glenn again."

Crossed the Deadline.

The ordinance prohibiting hotel and carriage porters from creating a nuisance at the depot in rushing up to the cars when a train comes in and soliciting patronage in a boisterous, hurry-like fashion, has for some time been violated to no little extent, but Chief Boger has put a stop to it—for a time at least.

Friday night while beating around the depot he witnessed this great nuisance and told the boys to appear at the Mayor's court this Saturday morning. Four of the porters appeared and submitted, paying a fine of $5.35 each.

The deadline is there and when it is crossed by the porters, they confuse and worry the passengers no little, and we approve of the efforts being made to stop it.
