LITTLE SCAPS.

A Populist, it is said, hates a silver dollar carried in 1894. It takes their thunder.

Buck Kitchen was at Salisbury Friday. They say he weeps great big tears when he begins to tell about the Democratic party having left him.

Buck Kitchen says that everybody down east knows that Faircloth is not fit to be Supreme Court Justice, and that on a recent trip to the west he learned that Furches was even less fit. Buck, you know, is a priest and apostle of Populism, and his opinions should have weight with the party.

A beetle can draw twenty times its own weight. So can a mustard plaster.

No man ever yet had money enough to by either good taste or breeding.

A Georgia boy thought to be lost was found on the bank of a river, where he had been fishing steadily for three days.

EDITORIAL OPINIONS.

Taxation is one of the repressive agencies in government, and perhaps the police thought that by taxing crime they could stop it.—New York Journal.

Maynard, if he has any sense of gratitude, will promptly take the stump for Hill. The latter cheerfully took a speaking part in Maynard's political obsequies last fall.—New York Press.

Maynard's blot is on the Democratic ticket. It cannot be wiped out. It cannot be concealed.—New York Tribune.

China should give up imitating British military and naval tactics and get a Baltimore trolley car with which to fight the Japanese.—Baltimore Herald.

Wool is too mean for anything. It keeps going up in price without seeming to care a rap for the G. O. P.—New York Mercury.

The Mikado is drawing well this season.—New York World.

STILL DEMOCRATIC.

The election in Georgia is summed up as follows: A Democratic Governor elected; a State Senate standing thirty-seven Democrats and six Populists, one Republican; and the House of Representatives one hundred and forty-five Democrats and thirty Populists. Fourteen counties yet to hear from officially, but enough to know they are Democratic. That's good enough for one day.

Seed Wheat for Sale.

I have the two best varieties of wheat (Falcaster, bearded, and Red Chaff) for sale. I have tried other kinds, but find none to do so well here as these. Will deliver at C G Montgomery's store or on my farm. Prices: Graded, 90 cents; not graded, 80 cents.

JOHN P. ALLISON.

LAND SALE.

By virtue of a decree made in a special proceeding, in the Superior court for Cabarrus county, July 27th, 1894, entitled "In the matter of the estate of S. P. Brannard Kimmons, insane, by R. M. Kimmons guardian, ex parte," and duly approved by Henry R. Bryan, Judge presiding, at July term, 1894, of said court, 1, as a commissioner of said court, will sell, by public auction, at the door of the court house in Concord, on Monday, the 5th day of November, 1894, to the highest bidder, one tract of land, containing one hundred and thirty-three (133) acres, mostly in Crab Orchard township in Mecklenburg, being a part of what was formerly known as the Samuel Kimmons home place, on the dividing line between said counties and adjoining the lands of D. L. Alexander, L. Fayette Stafford, D. H. Johnson and others; and a second tract of land containing fifteen and 1/2 acres, in said township, known as lots No. 1, and No. 2, in division of lands of Zimri Pharr and adjoining lands of Lee Dulin and T. H. Farrow. Terms of sale, one third (1/3) cash, and balance to be paid on the 1st day of November, 1895, secured by note of purchaser with two good sureties.

R. M. KIMMONS, Guardian, Sept. 19, 1894, Commissioner.

NOTICE.

Having administered on the estate of J. Frank Pethel, deceased, all persons who are indebted to the estate of said deceased are hereby notified to come forward and settle, and all persons who hold claims against the estate of the said deceased must present the same to me for payment within twelve months of the date of this notice, or it will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. May 19, 1894. J. V. PETHEL, Adm'r of J. Frank Pethel.

Irresistible. Book-canvassers should take courage from a story told by an English lecturer on "The Art of Bookbinding."

A man of their profession had called at a house whose occupant met him with a growl.

"It's no use to me. I never read." "But there's your family," said the canvasser.

Haven't any family—nothing but a cat.

"Well, you may want something to throw at the cat."

The book was purchased.

Skin Eruptions

and similar annoyances are caused by an impure blood, which will result in a more dreaded disease. Unless removed, slight impurities will develop into Scrofula, Eczema, Salt Rheum and other serious results of

I have for some time been a sufferer from a severe blood trouble, for which I took many remedies that did me no good. I have now taken four bottles of S.S.S. with the most wonderful results. I am enjoying the best health I ever knew, have gained twenty pounds and my friends say they never saw me as well. I am feeling quite like a new man. JOHN S.
