ARIONS LAST NIGHT.

A Bad Night, but a Fair Audience Greeted Them.

Tuesday night was indeed a bad one, but the young men who compose the Arion Quartette faced the comparatively fair audience notwithstanding.

It is useless to say anything about the weather, as everyone knows what effect it has on a Concord audience no matter what the occasion might be.

The small audience that greeted the company was a very appreciative one, and expressed their appreciation repeatedly by rounds of applause more especially at the rendition by the quartette of "Nearer My God to Thee," which was, as termed by one of our sweetest young women, "the sublimest thing" she ever heard.

Miss Scott, as pianist, and Mr. Carey, violinist, took the house by storm, as it were. A great drawback to these excellent musicians was the rain falling on the tin roof overhead, somewhat drowning the enrapturing melodies.

Mr. Scott did some excellent solo work for which he was greatly rewarded by round after round of applause.

Messrs. Newcombe, McNeely, Norwood and Scott all did remarkably well, their voices blending in sweet harmony, and should they ever again come to our city, they will always find a welcome and we will guarantee a good audience.

Messrs. John Anderson, of the Charlotte News, (of banjo club fame) and Alphonso Young, came over with the concert company.

Some Errors.

The article we had Tuesday about the meeting at the Methodist church contained several errors that the copy did not. We rise up in our boots to correct some of them. The typographical artist had us to say that Mr. Alexander is "intensely young." While he is young, we meant to say he is an intensely earnest young divine. That puts another head on it.

The most painful error is the use of the word "affected" when speaking of the stranger who spoke so fervently and prayed the prettiest prayer we ever heard. We wrote the word "afflicted" but the anuburn haired typo got it "affected." There are other errors in the article of which the copy was free. Where the word "run" appears the word "ram" should have appeared. But this is life. We drop a nickle in the slot and often times we don't get weighed or hear a song.

Steam Laundry.

I represent the Charlotte Steam Laundry. Any one desiring to wear Collars and Cuffs and even a Shirt laundered in the very best manner, will do well to call on me at Cannons & Fetzer's store, and secure a price list. I guarantee all work to be satisfactory and any article lost or torn will be replaced or paid for. Also any bundle left at Cannons & Fetzer's store when I am not there, will be promptly attended to. Mark your name on the bundle.

My bundle goes to the Laundry promptly on every Tuesday night, and returns promptly on every Saturday morning.

I solicit your custom, and only ask for a trial.

A Day of Meetings.

It was not a campmeeting exactly but it was a meeting day all the same, in Concord on Tuesday.

It was stockholder's day in town. The stockholders of the G W Patterson Manufacturing Company met in the office of the company. This company is about ready to begin operations.

The stockholders of the Odell Manufacturing Company met. Messrs. J A Odell, of Greensboro, and Will Branson, of Durham, and others were here. The company is in a prosperous condition and the year's work is very satisfactory to all concerned.

The business of this company for the year 1894 is as follows: The mills run 301 days out of 365; the amount paid for cotton was $234,245.20. Paid for wood and coal 24,548.58; taxes, 3,212.13; paid to operatives, 126,502.60, and manufactured 17,866,208 yards of cloth.

The stockholders of the Concord National Bank met also. The bank is in fine shape and officered by competent, faithful men. Officers elected are as follows: J M Odell, president; D F Cannon, vice president; D B Coltrane, cashier.

The stockholders of the Cabarrus Cotton Mills met. This company has had an unusually successful career. The plant has been doubled and there is nothing in the way of the company's making a future brilliant with success. A dividend of 4 per cent was declared.

The meeting of the Cannon Manufacturing Company will be held in February.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeding La Grippee. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Fetzer's Drug store. Regular size 50c and $1 00.

Concord Socially.

Although we may have bad weather, but we have some social events always.

Misses Elizabeth and Emily Gibson, who will leave tomorrow morning for the Normal, gave an elegant tea party Tuesday evening to a number of young folks at the home of Mr. J C Gibson.

Miss Nannie Cannon entertained the Arions Tuesday night after the entertainment at the hall.

Miss Grace Gibson will entertain a pleasant whist party Thursday night.

LITTLE SNAPS.

Dr. Patterson, an aged citizen of Fulton, Ky., died a few days ago. He was eighty years old and until twenty years ago was a minister of the Methodist church. He was born in New Hampshire, and began preaching when only twenty years old, his first notable work being in St. Louis when that city was a mere village. In the first year of his ministry here he increased his church by 390 persons, and received only $22 for their year's work. For ten years he was a missionary among the Indians.

Some weeks ago a big contract for pipe for far-off Japan was secured by a Birmingham establishment. Bidders from all countries were defeated by Alabama, and that fact has become known to the civilized world. It is now stated that a Birmingham firm has secured an order from Jamaica for railroad car wheels. This order comes from a country which, while near the United territory, is closely allied financially and personally with England.

John Burns, the English labor advocate, sailed for home Saturday on the Etruria, and will return to this country in August next. The American cities that suit him best, so far as he has gone are Washington and Boston.

An Old Veteran Sick.

News reached the city Tuesday of the illness of one of Cabarrus county's oldest and most honored citizens, Mr. V N Mitchell, of No. 5 township. Our best wishes are with this old gentleman for a speedy recovery.
