Announcement TO THE PEOPLE OF THE CAROLINAS AND SOUTHEAST

The Charlotte Observer makes an announcement of more than ordinary interest. By special arrangement with the publishers of that great work of reference libraries, The Encyclopaedia Britannica, ninth (latest) edition, we are enabled for a short time to place this King of Books within easy reach of every reader. This edition is bound in

26 Royal Octavo Volumes

And is the only complete and unabridged edition of this great work in existence revised to date. This same sort of an Encyclopaedia is a necessity for all must acknowledge. That the great BRITANNICA is the very best Encyclopaedia, none will deny. Only its great cost—$50 for the Scribner Edition, $200 for the Edinburgh Edition—has prevented its purchase heretofore. At these prices none but the rich could afford to own it. We offer for a limited time to the readers of THE OBSERVER an edition superior even to the costly Edinburgh Edition at the unheard of introductory rate of

TEN CENTS A DAY

For this small outlay you can secure these 26 Royal octavo volumes, complete and unabridged, revised to date. The Britannica itself needs no endorsement. For 150 years it has stood the crowning work of our English language, the noblest work in all literature, the one only adequate representative of the advanced thought and scholarship of the world. It is the only Encyclopaedia in which each principal subject is treated by an acknowledged authority upon that subject. No other Encyclopaedia has given Ten Thousand Dollars for a single article, nor Six Hundred Dollars a page for written matter. The fact that

Was expended in its preparation, requiring the labor of 2,000 of the world's greatest scholars, tells the story of its exalted superiority. Over 600 American authors were employed on American subjects and American institutions.

The Edition We Offer

To our readers comprises many features worthy of special mention.
1. A thorough equipment of new maps up to date, costing $50,000 to produce.
2. The American Copyright Articles, rewritten to date by eminent American writers. In other respects this Edition is word for word, line for line, page for page, identical with the expensive Edinburgh Edition, costing $8.00 per volume.
3. But the crowning feature of this Edition is its American Additions and Revisions, prepared under the supervision of that widely known Encyclopaedic Editor, W. H. DEPUY, D.D., LL. B., assisted by a corps of trained writers, thoroughly revising the entire work to date.

Not only are all Scientific and Historical Subjects brought absolutely up to date, but a vast fund of new information is added, relating to the material, social, industrial and educational progress of the world, together with many thousand New Biographies not in the original Edition nor in any other Encyclopaedia.

For a Short Time

This elegant Reference Library will be offered to subscribers of THE CHARLOTTE OBSERVER at remarkably low introductory prices, and on terms so easy as to seem almost ludicrous.

There are four styles of binding, and all styles have double-hinged, flexible backs, sewed precisely like an Oxford Teacher's Bible, so that they are durable and convenient. It is an actual fact that this book is more strongly bound than the Edition which is sold for $8.00 per volume.

Upon application we will send you description and prices of the various styles, and you may select any style of binding you choose and have the privilege of paying for it at the rate of 20 cents a day, half the set being delivered to you at once; or, we will deliver the entire set of 26 volumes on payment of $5.00 per month. All charges paid by us to any railroad station in the United States.

WITH ALL ON BOARD.

Her Crew of 420 Men Lost—Suspicion Has Now Become a Certainty—The Alfonso XII Sent to Search for Her Finds the Wreck—It is One of the Greatest Sea Calamities on Record—The Authorities Still Refuse to Believe That the Ship is Lost—Description of the Wrecked Vessel.

Madrid, March 20.—Correspondence this morning reiterates the assertion that the Regente was discovered sunk in shallow water at Bajo Aceituras, adding that the wreck was just visible at low tide. The paper also says that the Alfonso XII has brought from the wreck the bodies of thirty of the crew of the wrecked ship. The Alfonso XII will return to the scene of the wreck with divers and dragging apparatus.

A cushion washed ashore at Tarifa has been identified as having come from the cabin of the Reina Regente.

It is asserted here that Admiral Patquin, Minister of Marine, knows the truth regarding the missing cruiser, but that no official announcement of her fate will be printed until a new cabinet shall have been formed. Meanwhile Cradiz and Aarthagena, where most of the officers and crew of the ship belonged, are in general mourning, and the women of those cities are heaping maledictions upon the heads of the Moorish Embassy, when they are looked upon as the cause of the disaster, as it was upon her return trip from conveying them to Tangier that the cruiser was lost.

Still Entertaining Hopes.

Madrid, March 18.—El Emparale this morning says the report that the wreck of the missing cruises Reina Regente has been discovered is utterly without foundation. The Alfonso XII which was sent out to search for the missing ship, has, the paper asserts, returned from her cruise without having obtained any news regarding the fate of the cruiser. The government still entertains the hope that the Reina Regente, having run short of coal, has been blown into the Atlantic and may yet be heard from.

Description of the Lost Ship.

New York, March 19.—The Reina Regente about two years ago came to New York as one of the Spanish squadron which escorted across the Atlantic the Columbus caravels. The Infanta Isabel, now reported to have sunk an American schooner off the coast of Cuba, and the Neva Espana were the other ships of the Spanish squadron. The latter arrived at Fortress Monroe on April 21, 1893, the Reina Regente having the caravel Santa Maria in tow; the Pinta was in tow of the Infanta Isabel, and the Nina was towed by the Neva Espana. All three of these Spanish warships took a conspicuous part in the great Columbian naval parade in New York harbor on April 27th of the same year.

The Reina Regente was launched in 1883, and was one of the three second class deck-protected cruisers of the same build, her sister ships being the Alfonso XII and Lepanto, all of 4,800 tons, 12,000 horsepower, and expected to steam 20 knots. The wrecked cruiser was 32 feet long, had 5 feet 6 inches beam, and a draught of 20 feet 3 inches. She was propelled by twin screws. Her protected deck was 4-4 inches thick on the slopes, her conning tower had five inches of armor and her gun shields were three inches thick.

The armament of the Reina Regente consisted of four 9 1/2 inch Hontoria guns, one on each side; aft forward of the central superstructure, one on each side; a six and a half inch Hontoria guns on each side, the forward pair in sponsons, middle in recessed ports, and 15 rapid fire guns. She was also fitted with five torpedo tubes.

Coast Strewn With Wreckage.

London, March 20.—A dispatch from San Fernando, near Cadiz, says that the coast, near Conil, somewhat further South, is strewn with wreckage, uniforms, flags, and numerous other articles from the lost cruiser, Reina Regente.

The officials along the coast have forbidden the people to approach the points where the wreckage has been cast up, ostensibly to prevent the scenes of anguish which would accompany the search for the bodies of friends or relatives. The officials refuse to say what they are doing to recover bodies and wreckage. The people here believe they are doing nothing.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, Druggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began to its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at Fetzer's drug store.

Organization of the Colored Episcopalians.

Last Sunday, March 17th, being the third Sunday in Lent, was designated by the colored Episcopalians for the organization of a mission church in this city. Promptly at 3 o'clock in the afternoon mission hall was crowded, to hear the able discourses by Rev. J. C. Davis, rector of All Saints church. About twenty-five persons came forward and signed a petition asking the bishop to establish them a mission church here, to be known as the "Holy Comforter."

Turner and others, a part of the Dilla Reed land.

HIRAM BOST, Trustee. This March 12, '95.

MR. DIXON'S NEW CHURCH.

He Will Have Deaconesses and Three Assistants to Help.

The Rev. Thomas Dixon, Jr., on Sunday morning, in Association Hall, announced that he had engaged the Academy of Music, and on April 1st the Church of the People will be formally started. He said services will be held every Sunday morning. He intends to introduce deaconesses, half of the Board of Deacons to be composed of women from the congregation.

"The Results of Sensationalism" was the subject of his sermon, but before beginning his discourse he explained the misunderstanding between himself and his congregation relative to his resignation, how it was brought about, and when it went into effect.

He strenuously denied that he had been coerced into resigning, and in support of his statement read a letter from the president of the Board of Trustees. He said that the Board of Trustees wanted him to remain until May 1st, but he would not do so.

In speaking of his proposed new church he said he would have three assistants, one of whom will be a Universalist. Members of the new church will be immersed or baptized, as they prefer.

He denied that he was in receipt of an income of $20,000 a year, or lived "off the fat of the land." He said in these times of income tax it was cruel to talk about a man's income; that the new method of sensationalism had paid both in a financial and a spiritual point of view.

When he took the pastorate of the Twenty-third-Street Baptist church it was in debt. He had collected $81,000 more than had been collected by the church in the twenty years preceding his pastorate. He declared that while he had made a few persons tired he intended to make a great many more tired before he got through.—New York Herald.

To the Democratic Voters of Concord.

Acting in accordance with the request of a large number of Democrats, I, as chairman of the Township Executive Committee, hereby call all true and faithful Democrats to assemble in mass-meeting tomorrow night, Friday, March 22, at the Court House at 9:30 o'clock, with a view of electing a Democratic Executive Committee for the town, and with a view of organizing and agreeing upon a date for holding a nominating convention in the Mayor's election. F. L. SMITH, Char'm. Township Exc. Com.

To The Wanting Public.

I wish to announce to the ladies of Concord and surrounding community that I am prepared to do any kind of work in dress making and cutting. I solicit a trial. Mrs. J. L. BROWN, Church street, opposite Reformed church. M21 1M.

Candidate For Mayor.

I hereby announce to the people of Concord that I am a candidate for the office of mayor of Concord, at the election in May. If a nominating convention is held, I am subject to its action.

Very Respectfully,
H. McNARA. March 21, 1895.
