

Library

THE DAILY STANDARD

Vol. X—No. 139.

CONCORD, N. C. THURSDAY, APRIL 11, 1895.

WHOLE NO. 1,495

A Whole Flock of Ideas

Benjamin Franklin
Used to say that if he obtained but one idea from a book he considered himself well repaid for his investment.

There is a silent but potent missionary that not alone suggests ideas to men, but tells them what the thinkers of all time have done with these ideas; a missionary that represents the very fountain-head of all knowledge, that unlocks the secrets of nature, and "chains the elements to our chariot wheels." This missionary is the justly celebrated new edition ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA, and it appears to every human being who can read.

If you have any special bent or inclination for any particular branch of knowledge open the BRITANNICA and ideas will flock to you.

If you are young, with your life before you it will furnish you with ideas to advance your business interests, and to make you a more useful member of society.

If you are a tired bread-winner it will amuse and enliven you with stories of travel, with quaint and beautiful mythological legends, and with the facts about animals and flowers.

It is never wearisome, and it lasts a life-time. It is cosmopolitan.

And Democratic

For it makes no distinction between the rich and the poor, but says to both: "I am yours almost for the asking."

TEN CENTS A DAY will buy it now, but you should order at once if you wish to take advantage of this special introductory offer.

The Observer

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Lost His Eyesight.

For several weeks past Cicero Thompson, the barber, has been complaining about his eyesight, in his left eye, which has now completely failed him. He says he has suffered no pain whatever, but he cannot see. He went over to Charlotte today, where he will have an oculist to examine it and see what can be done for him.

A Runaway.

Wednesday evening the team of Lad Boger, a colored drayman, ran away and tore up a wagon and pretty severely hurt one of his horses. He was hauling lumber from the depot, and had backed his wagon close to the flat car, and on the other side a dump cart passed down the track, frightening the horses. They ran across the platform, lost the hind end of the wagon and broke up the front part. The injuries the horse received were cuts about the legs and hoofs.

They Wanted to Lynch Him.

Romey, W. Va., April 9.—Daniel R. Shawn, whose sentence was commuted to life imprisonment by Gov. McCorkle last week, narrowly escaped death at the hands of a mob of indignant citizens last night.

It was found yesterday evening that an organized band was going to lynch him. The matter was brought before the sheriffs, who immediately took steps in the matter. As Sheriff Pugh and Judge Daly were not in town a team was hitched up and the prisoner rescued from the jail and hurried to an out-of-the-way place, whence Sheriff J. W. Holling took him aboard the early train at a neighboring station and started for the penitentiary.

[Getting close to the North.]
Mr. Jim Willeford expects to "take off" his setting incubator in about three days.

THE JOURNEY HALF OVER.

Pedestrian Fred Miller and His Dog Guess Arrive at Jacksonville.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 10.—Fred Miller, the long-distance pedestrian, who is now walking from New York to this city and return on a wager of $5,000, arrived at the union station this morning at 10:15 o'clock, thus completing just one-half of his task. He is accompanied by his dog Guess, a large, powerful pointer. Miller started from New York on his journey at 8 o'clock on the morning of the 5th of February, and has been just sixty-seven days accomplishing half his walk. The condition of the wager was that Miller was to walk from New York to Jacksonville and return in seven months from the time of starting. He was to start with nothing, and was to receive nothing but food and clothing while en route. So far Miller has traveled 1,300 miles. His route was from New York to Philadelphia, Philadelphia to Baltimore, Baltimore to Washington, Washington to Atlanta, and from Atlanta, via Jessup, to this city. Miller has lost but seven pounds in weight since he started on his long jaunt. The dog is in fine condition, being slick and fat. Miller expects to remain in the city two days, and then start on his return trip.

To Whom It May Concern.

I do hereby certify that I have been a great sufferer for several months with lumbago, neuralgia of the bowels, liver complaint, dyspepsia and a kidney trouble. My case resisted all the boasted remedies that had been brought to bear. I had about despaired of ever recovering; my friends and neighbors had remarked that I would never go out of my house again alive, but thanks be to the Almighty, Dr. Holden brought me out safely. I am up attending to my business. Would advise any one suffering with any of the diseases named in this testimonial to give Dr. Holden a trial. I shall ever take unmitigated pleasure in recommending him to the public. May he live long and do for others as he has for me.

O. H. UPCHURCH.
Forest Hill, April 11, 1895.

To The Wanting Public.

I wish to announce to the ladies of Concord and surrounding community that I am prepared to do any kind of work in dress making and cutting. I solicit a trial.

MRS. J. L. BROWN,
Church street, opposite Reformed church. m21 1m.

Make More Hay.

In 1894 North Carolina cultivated 53,113 acres in rye and produced 478,017 bushels; 164,525 acres in hay and grew 238,561 tons; 17,955 acres in potatoes and 1,113,210 bushels; 695,147 acres in wheat and 3,475,735 bushels; 2,459,663 acres in corn and 32,959,484 bushels; 527,893 acres in oats and 5,754,034 bushels. The hay crop is far too small. Make more hay and stop buying from the North. The potato crop is much less than we had supposed. The wheat crop is rather small. Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia exceed it. If more oats were made there would be much less demand for the products of the hay fields in the West. Raise home supplies all round, including home manures.

FRIGHTENED TO DEATH.

Miss Julia Taylor, Alarmed by a Burglar Falls Dead, After Summoning Aid.

Newbern Journal: Miss Julia Paylor, a lady who lived by herself on East Front street in a small house belonging to Mr. J. C. Green, close to his own residence, came to her death suddenly about 12 o'clock Saturday night under the following unusual circumstances:

Mr. Green had just gone into his home and he heard Miss Taylor screaming for help. He answered back and rushed immediately to the front of her residence. Mr. Bate-man Lawrence one of Messrs Hackburn & Willett's clerks who lives only a door or two away from Miss Taylor on the opposite side from Mr. Green, had just returned home and he also rushed over, he and Mr. Green meeting in front of the house but who ever had been there had gotten away—they found no trace of any one except that the gate was unlatched.

Miss Taylor had given the alarm from a window towards the rear but she now came to the front and at a partially opened window proceeded to tell what had occurred. Hearing some one on her porch she had gone to a window to find out who it was and what was wanted and as she slightly opened the window for the purpose, a man (whether white or colored, she did not state), grasped toward her. Dropping the window she then called for help from a rear one as stated at the beginning. Such was her story as far as told. Mr. Green advised her to go over to his home and stay the remainder of the night. Before an understanding of whether the invitation would be accepted or not, the window droppen down and the conversation stopped without notice.

The gentlemen thought at first that Miss Taylor was making preparations to come out, and after waiting for some lengthy time, without hearing more, Mr. Green knocked, but could get no answer and at last he looked in at the window and saw Miss Taylor lying on the floor.

On the supposition that she had fainted restoratives were at once obtained and lady neighbors summoned. Dr. R. S. Primrose who lives only a block away was also called in at once, but it was soon found that Miss Taylor was dead.

What Do You Think of This?

Our Enterprise correspondent tells us this week of a negro, Daniel Miller, being appointed a new magistrate in Arcadia township. Our correspondent says that he is now guilty of larceny and is not allowed to vote! This action of the fusion Legislature in appointing such a character (and an ignorant colored man, at that,) it is an insult to every respectable citizen of Davidson county—white and black. For this and many other misdeeds they will as surely be called to account in 1896 as the sun rises and sets. Shame, shame, shame on them!—Lexington Dispatch.

"What! Going to leave your place, Bridget? Why, it was only week before last that your mistress raised your wages?"

"That's just it, mum. Oi am not to be patronized by the loikes of her."—Boston Transcript.

SALE OF TOWN LOTS FOR TAXES.

By virtue of levies and the certificate of J. L. Boger, Tax Collector for the town of Concord, and pursuant to the provisions of the Machinery Acts of the General Assembly of North Carolina, I will on the 1st Monday of May 1895, sell at the Court House door in Concord the following town lots on which the taxes levied by the commissioners for said town for the year 1894 remain unpaid, to wit:

- WARD 1.
- Isette, Smith, 1 town lot on Main street $ 14 10
 - Pondexter, P. F., 1 town lot on Mill street, adjoining W. Thompson, 3 23
 - Troutman, W. A., 1 town lot on Spring street, 3 60
- WARD 2.
- Peoples, Alfred, 1 town lot (Burrage lot), 1 65
 - Willeford, J. A., 1 town lot East Depot street, 2 10
- WARD 3.
- Branck, Mag, 1 town lot East Depot street, (Ettlen Bost property), 1 35
 - Dry, W. F., 15 1/4 acres land 3-Mile Branch, 4 01
 - Groner, Mary E., 1 town lot (old store room), 1 35
- WARD 4.
- Alexander, Sarah, 1 town lot, Coleburg, . 98
 - Alexander, Hiram, 1 town lot Loyal Town (balance), 2 05
 - Freeman, Allen, 1 town lot Coleburg, 1 73
 - Gilmore, Sandy, 1 town lot Broad street, 1 35
 - Gibson, Mag, 1 town lot Broad street, 1 35
 - Harris, Henry, 1 town lot Broad street, 3 60
 - Holbrooks, Adam, 1 town lot Broad street, 1 54
 - Ichord, Eliza, 1 town lot Coleburg, 1 35
 - McCarter, Andrew J., 1 town lot Broad street, 3 41
 - McRea, John W., 1 lot Broad street (balance), 2 73
 - Moss, Paul S., 1 town lot Coleburg, 98
 - Pharr, Martin, 1 town lot Broad street, 3 60
 - Spencer, Ellen, 1 town lot Broad street, 71
 - Miller, Rndolph, 1 town lot Broad street, 3 60
 - Blair, Z., 1 town lot Broad street, 1 16

TO THE SHERIFF OF CABARRUS COUNTY:

The above is a true list of delinquent property of the town of Concord, presented as in accordance with law for you to advertise under execution for sale for taxes.

J. L. BOGER,
Tax Collector.
L. M. MORRISON, Ex-Sheriff of Cabarrus County.
April 10th, 1895.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at Fetzer's Drug Store, Regular size 50c and $1.00.

Tomorrow is Good Friday.

PROFESSIONAL CARD.

I have located in Concord for the practice of medicine and surgery, and respectfully ask the public for a share of their patronage—I may be found at my office at any hour of the day or at my residence at night when not out professionally, and will gladly respond to all calls promptly.

Office under that of Montgomery & Crowell. Respectfully,
J. E. SMOOT, M. D.

Speculation,

HAMMOND & CO.

Stock and Bond

Brokers.

130 & 132 Pearl Street,
NEW YORK CITY, N. Y.

Stocks, Bonds and Grain bought and sold, or carried on Margin.
P. S.—Send for explanatory circular on speculation, also weekly market letter. (Free) dwly

ROCK

BOTTOM

PRICES

TO SUIT THE TIMES!

I am back at my old place of business.

ALLISON'S

corner, prepared to welcome my old friends and to make new ones. I keep a full line of

DRY GOODS,

SHOES, HATS,

GROCERIES,

TOBACCO, &c.

always at the lowest prices consistent with honest business. Will meet cuts at all times. I can buy as cheap as anybody and will sell as close. Having a stock suited to the farmers' wants, can use your produce. Will exchange goods for all kinds of country produce at cash prices. Call to see me.

JOHN P. ALLISON.

Election Notice.

At a meeting of Board Commissioners for town of Concord, N. C., held April 1st, 1895, an election was called and ordered to be held at the various voting places on the first Monday in May next for the purpose of electing a Mayor and two Town Commissioners from and by each ward and one Graded School Commissioner from and by each ward. Books open now. The following Registrars were appointed: Ward No. 1: John B. Caldwell, Ward No. 2: James N. Brown, Ward No. 3: P. A. Correll, Ward No. 4: George M. Lore.

By order of Board
J. L. HARTSELL,
Clerk.
April 2, 1895,