Death of Mrs. Winecoff.

Since January Mrs. Winecoff, the wife of Mr. G M V Winecoff, who lives just above Forest Hill, has been bed-fast. Her illness has been long and severe. On Monday evening death brought an end to her suffering.

Several years ago Mr. Winecoff moved here from Mississippi, to which State years ago he had gone from Cabarrus. He and his family, in this sad affliction, have the sympathy of the community. Her remains were interred at Mt. Olivet, Rev. McLaurin conducting the funeral.

An Afflicted Family.

Sadder news has not been told than the affliction of Mr. Robert Johnston, of No. 8 township, who, on Monday, July 1, laid to rest the remains of his beloved wife, who left an 8-months-old infant that just one week later, on July 8, closed its eyes and went to sleep in the arms of Jesus.

On Saturday last an 8-year-old girl of Mr. Johnston fell from a fence and broke her arm. Mr. Johnston is one of the good farmers of No. 8, and in his time of sorrow has the profoundest sympathy of his friends and neighbors, and THE STANDARD joins them in extending condolence.

ICE FACTORY HERE.

There Are No Towns So Plucky As Concord—The Matter Was Considered Today.

Concord may have an ice factory in a few weeks.

A representative of ice machinery company was here and discussed matters with parties interested in the establishment of an ice factory.

If the matter comes to a point, the factory will be located near the Electric Light station.

The County Commissioners Fall or Business.

The County Commissioners met Monday to hear complaints about the assessment of real estate.

It appears that it was understood by many that the values were to be cut down 20 per cent. In some townships this was done; in others the cut was greater and still others the cut was not more than 3 per cent. This, as is readily seen, does not equalize the burdens over the county.

In No. 6 the assessed value of real estate is not out down more than $2,000 in the aggregate, while in No. 8 the decrease is about $35,000.

This is the matter that held the attention of the Commissioners on Monday and Tuesday. They want to distribute the burdens of taxation over the county in equal measures. They, the Commissioners are conservative and just men, and whatever they do, will be right so far as they are able to make it.

A Very Sad Man.

A STANDARD reporter met up with Rev. Dr. C M Payne, whom everybody in Concord knows and esteems. All know him to be a gentleman of warm and tender heart. The recent affliction and trouble that was thrust upon him by the untimely and cruel death of his brother, to whom he was bound by the closest and strongest of ties of brotherly love and devotion, has told upon him to such a degree that a mere acquaintance can see a big change. 'Tis, indeed, sad, and this writer when seeing him and meeting him, was never more touched by the sadness and trouble of this man of God, one who has always been a strong and deep sympathizer of others in trouble.

Dr. Payne has in the people of Concord a profound and sincere sympathizer in this, his hour and time of great sorrow and pain.

Locusts Passed Over the City.

Early this (Tuesday) morning the attention of many of our citizens was attracted by the buzz of some winged insects passing over the city, going direct east. Not until late in the day, however, did we learn what they were, when several planters from the Cold Water bottom section on the Mt. Pleasant road told a reporter that a swarm of locusts had struck the woods in Lipe's pasture. They say the song of these gauze winged bugs can be heard for several miles.

Sunday School Convention in No. 10 Township.

Addresses will be made by Revs. Bryant and Long, Messrs L T Hartsell, J F Newell, H C Cook, Dr. Lafferty, and others. The several choirs of the township will furnish music for the occasion. A cordial invitation is extended to the public. J. H. LONG, President. D. J. LITTLE, Secretary.

THE DEFENSE TO REST.

Shemwell on Stand Five Hours—Six Witnesses Testified To-Day—The Case Will Probably Go to the Jury Saturday.

Special to The Standard.

LEXINGTON, N. C., July 9, 1895.—Shemwell was on the stand about five hours yesterday and during the rigid cross examination did not become at all confused.

Shemwell talked perfectly coolly, tipped his chair backwards and forwards in a leisurely way, and when once he fell back over the step when his chair slipped he arose without a flutter.

Some half dozen witnesses have testified today and the defense will perhaps rest its case by six o'clock.

It is thought the case will be given to the jury Saturday.
