HOTEL BLOWN UP.

A Battery of Boilers Explode at Denver, Col.—Hotel and About Twenty-five Persons Killed and Burned to Death Sunday Night.

DENVER, Col., Aug. 19—Fifteen or twenty persons perished by fire in the Gumrey Hotel, on Lawrence street, in which a terrific explosion took place at 12:10 a. m. The rear half of the building, a five story brick and stone structure, went down with a crash. The hotel was crowded with guests, and many of them must have been killed outright, as well as about ten hotel employes, who were sleeping in the portion of the building which fell. The cause was the battery of boilers in the hotel basement exploding. The sound of the explosion, was heard throughout the city, awakening the people a mile from the scene.

LATER: A portion of Gumrey Hotel, the scene of last night's frightful disaster, is still standing, gaunt and sinister, constantly threatening to crash down upon those delivering in the ruins at any moment. The search for victims has been carried on to the utmost energy constantly with the aid of twenty arc lights. Flames broke out afresh in the wreckage tonight, but fire engines are again pouring forth water, still further impeding the work of rescue.

The list of dead and missing now numbers 25, making the disaster the worst that ever occurred in the city.
Up to 8:30 tonight only seven bodies had been recovered, being those of Manager Grenner and his wife, clashed in each other's arms; Gore Burt, a Rock Island conductor; Mrs.
George R. Wolf and daughter, Fred Hubbold and Will Richards, the elevator operator of the hotel.

Among the missing is now included Elmer Pierce who is said to have entered the hotel just before the explosion occurred. It is to this man's carelessness that the disaster is attributed.

A Stanley Man Dies at Albany.

The following news comes from Albany, N. Y. about John Honeycutt, aged twenty-two, the counterfeiter, who died in the penitentiary Saturday, a victim of consumption. He was born at Fort, Stanley county, N. C., and was convicted January, 1894. He was pardoned out last week by President Cleveland, but was not able to undertake the journey home.

A Familiar Face

Will soon be again behind the counters at Fetzer's drug store. Mr.
Joe Goodman, for a long time salesman there and for the last two years head clerk in an Augusta, Ga., drug store, will sometime in September return and accept a position with Dr. Fetzer.

Mr. Goodman is an exceptionally fine salesman and whoever has him the public always regards the firm having a prize. THE STANDARD welcomes him back to Concord.

OFF THE SIDEWALKS.

Bicyclists Must Stay Clear the Pavements in all Parts of the Town—Ordinance 25 Must be Enforced—Considering Mr. Fetzer's Proposition.

"And what they did Monday night was a plenty" said a bicyclist this morning, when another asked him about the final action of the town board of commissioners in regard to riding bicycles on the sidewalks.
The ordinance prohibits the riding of a bicycle on any sidewalk in the corporate limits of the town, the penalty for same being a fine of $5 or imprisonment for ten days.
This law goes into effect on and after August 23.

As to ordinance No. 25 of the laws governing the town, it was decided that the police should notify all merchants in person of the existence of the law and that it would be strictly enforced. Ice houses are to be allowed to deliver their standing orders on Sunday, but allowed to sell only in cases of necessity.
Parties who want clean collars, cigars, tobacco and watermelons on Sunday will have to do their purchasing Saturday night or before.

The street and improvement committee was instructed to investigate and make a report tonight in regard to the new street asked for by Mr. P.
B. Fetzer and one by citizens on the south side of town. Mr. Fetzer's proposition was reviewed and it is likely that the board will consider it favorably.

The board granted Mr. P. B. Fet-zer permission to cut down and grade a portion of Georgia avenue and Academy street along the front of his and Dr. N. D. Fetzer's residences.

The board meets tonight to hear the report of the street committee.

Horse and Buggy Thief Caught.

The horse and buggy thief has been captured in Spartanburg, S. C.
It is believed this is the fellow that stole Mr. Chas. A. Murph's buggy.
The Charlotte Observer says this:

The thief who stole Mr. W. B.
Newell's horse was caught at Spartanburg, S. C., on Sunday. He gave his name as C. C. Campbell, an escaped convict. He stole the buggy that he had from Mr. Chas. Murph, of Concord, who offered $15 reward for it. He will not be brought back here without requisition from the Governor. He will be brought here as quickly as possible. No particulars have been learned in regard to his deviltry.

Some one broke into the store of F. W. Bost & Co., at China Grove last night a week ago, and stole a good quantity of jewelry, pistols, gold rim spectacles and silk handkerchiefs, amounting in all to about $100 worth. It is believed it was the same thief who has been caught in Spartanburg.

BURGLARS IN TOWN.

They Enter Houses and Frighten a Number of People—A Valise Stolen in Broad Daylight.

Sunday night burglars got in their work in the west end of the city, having visited a number of houses. They entered the home of Mrs. Jane Willis on West Depot street through the front door, but were frightened away. From there it seems they made a tour, and entered the home of Mr. John Parnell on Valley street. As this place they entered the room of Zeb Parnell and in ransacking and plundering things, one of them caught young Parnell by the foot, which awakened him.
Out the window they went, Parnell following them, firing at them several times with a pistol.

Several other houses were visited, but nothing is reported as having been stolen.

On Monday afternoon a valise had been packed and was placed upon the piazza of the home of Mrs. James Clark, at Cannonville. When the party returned to whom the valise belonged, his property had been stolen, and has not yet been recovered.

As a Result.

Boys who have nothing to do to exercise their muscles and who oc-asionally get stout and feel themselves, have for sometime been in the habit of getting on the platform in rear of Mr. John K. Patterson's store and sail rocks, sheet iron and iron slugs over the Presbyterian church.
At one time a small rock struck Mr.
Scott Freeze, who was in Mr. Mc-Ninch's backyard, on the ha, knocking it from his head. This (Tuesday) morning Master Ira Mehaffey, sexton of the church brought us a slug that had passed through a blind and window pane of the church. He says small pieces of glass were scattered all over the church inside. This is the result of letting boys have their own way and not giving them a chance to exercise their arms at the wood pile at home.

The New Roller Mills.

Messrs Lippard Bros have received about all the machinery for the new roller mill and are placing same as fast as it can be hauled up from the depot. They will not be ready for the grinding of grain for another month. The engine, boilers, etc., have all been placed, and in connection with the flour mill they have a planing machine. The capacity of the flour mill will be about fifty barrels per day.

A Cabarrus Son Returned.

Rev. A. Walker White, a brother to Mr. Henry D. White, and an able Presbyterian divine, is on a visit to his native Cabarrus home from his adopted home at Corpus Christi, Texas. He is from the Rocky River section. His report as to the crops in Texas differs from those sent out by press correspondents, for he says the crops in his section of the Lone Star State are unusually good.

Mr. White has many friends in the city who were glad to see him.
He arrived from Statesville, where he has been spending several days.
