Picked Up and Put in Shape By Our Hustling Pencil Pusher.

Mr. Charles H Hamilton, of No. 3 township, is quite sick with typhoid fever.

An ice cream supper will be given to the children of the Union Sunday school at Cannonville tomorrow night.

Mrs. D W Michael, wife of Rev. Michael, of Troutman's, is very low with typhoid fever. Just a few days ago her father died.

Miss Minnie Lentz will entertain a number of invited friends tonight at the home of her father on West Depot street. It will be a "cob web" party.

Miss Lena Price, the 19-year old daughter of the late Barney Price, of No. 2 township, near Patterson's mill, died Thursday night of typhoid fever.

The Charlotte News is beginning a war on the high rates of telephone service. The system here is high in price, poor in service and not much patronized.

Graber Bros have purchased a very fine stall-fed beef cow from Mr. Hatch Kizzah at Forest Hill. This is what the Graber Bros will delight their many beef customers with on Saturday.

Charlotte Observer: "At Martin's Bridge, Cabarrus county, the colored Baptists are having a big meeting. It is reported that the fish are dying in the river where the immersing is done."

Mr. James C Fink is of the opinion that the announcement of the disastrous earthquake at Cain, Spain, is the beginning of the results of the great discussion of the money question in this country.

If the goods boxes, wheel barrows and the like were kept off the sidewalks, and the dray wagons made deliver and receive goods at the back store doors, Concord would be an up-to-date town. That's what a lady said.

Prof. E P Mangum, a former Principal of the Mt. Olive High School, but now Superintendent of the Clinton Graded Schools, was here Friday and Saturday calling on his many friends.—Goldsboro Headlight.

The Herald regrets to learn that Mr. W H Trexler has lost his mind. Financial matters are said to be the cause of the trouble. An effort will be made to get him in the State Hospital, at Morganton, at once.—Salisbury Herald.

Two large boilers, a smoke stack and pumps for the Buffalo Thread Mills are sidetracked at the depot, awaiting the completion of the sidetrack to the mill before it can be transferred. The stack is of sheet iron and is in three 30 feet sections.

You cannot say that you have tried everything for your rheumatism, until you have taken Ayer's Pills. Hundreds have been cured of this complaint by the use of these Pills alone. They were admitted at an exhibition at the World's Fair as a standard cathartic.

An old negro woman in Anson county, named Charity Hantley, has performed a feat the like of which has not been before heard. The Moore Enquirer tells the story. A few days ago a setting hen quitted her nest and Charity declared that "dem aigs hab to be hatched for dey done been spiled for eatin' purposes," and suiting the action to the word, she gathered those eggs to her bosom and kept them there for three days and then she had the pleasure of seeing ten chickens hatched.

High Grade Tobacco AND ABSOLUTELY PURE

How about the bootblacks? Will they be allowed to sell a shoe-shine on Sunday?

Louis John Sossaman struck town this morning on his return from a trip "North." He says that "Virgining" is too far away from Charlotte and that he longed for his home "over there." He is wearing shoes, a black suit, a slouch hat, and altogether, he is on a dike.

Not one complaint has ever been made by those using Ayer's Sarsaparilla according to directions. Furthermore, we have yet to learn of a case in which it has failed to afford benefit. So say hundreds of druggists all over the country. Has cured others, will cure you.

There was a small collision on the Yarkin road, near Woodside, yesterday. An engine sent out from Salisbury to the rock quarry was run into by a flat car loaded with rock, which had been turned loose by a railroad hand. The car and engine were considerably battered. None of the hands were hurt, all jumping.—Salisbury Herald.

A 20 year old boy secretly married a 16 year old girl in Brooklyn a few days ago. Upon hearing it, the girl's mother spanked them both, sent her daughter off to a boarding school, keeps the young man with her and has put a stop to his smoking cigarettes. She says that if he behaves himself, he may have her daughter and part of her property when they get old enough to marry. Otherwise she will prosecute him.

One of our Citizens.
Ex-Judge W J Montgomery, of Concord, is attending court here this week. It is a great pity that we do not have more men of such legal ability, sound judgement and manhood on the judicial bench. Judge Montgomery won a warm place in the hearts of the people of Union county when he was serving in an official capacity in this district.—Monroe Equirer.
