A Fox In Town.

Early Sunday morning a red fox came into town.

He was seen in Love town by several colored persons, who say he was looking into hog pens. They followed him through the alley that enters South Main street at Mr. A J Blackwelder's, then up Main street to court house. Here he darted through the yard and was lost.

Several years ago a young fox was penned in the court house; he got loose, was captured and penned there again. The second time he liberated himself. It is believed that the fox was actually hunting its old home where it had been so well fed.

His foxship would better lie low, or his plume will decorate the record of some fine fox hound about, or words to that effect. Already there is some pletting against him by local sportsmen.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discover, it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in re-Of all Kind sults." Trial bottles free at Fetzer's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

Mrs. Cannon was 55 years old and not imprison them because the town surviving her are her husband, one Masters Frank and Archey Cannon. She was a noble woman with warm, kind feelings of sympathy and consideration for all her acquaintances, who held her in highest esteem.

In this saddest of afflictions—a husband robbed of his faithful and devoted wife; children, robbed of their fond mother—there is a home on North Main street of sorrow, where the loss is great and severe, but rot that loss which a doubt and an uncertainty of the hereafter causes to sting. To all the afflicted and bereaved there goes out the tenderest sympathy of the whole coma Team from Rowan-Messrs Caldwell and Rogers Made Short Speeches.

The celebration of the schoolclosing of Mr. Joe Cochrane, in the way of a basket picnic, Saturday last, at Glasses was a decided success.

At noon, Mr. Morrison H Caldwell, of this city, made a brief speech on education, followed by a talk from Mr. J P Rogers, who spoke encouragingly of the progress of the school under the management of Mr. Cochrane. After the speaking was done, dinner was spread. It was an abundant one, and in words of one present: "It was a dinner to REV. J. D. SHIREY, D. D., PRES set old Miss Mitchell, with plenty left." The quotation is an expression of one of the baseball boys who assisted the coal chute nine in defeating the Grant's creek nine, in a score of 14 to 1. Brumley, Fisher, $137.600.
