HIS WORDS INDICATE GREATNESS.

Mr. John H. Mills, in his parting remarks, as he retires from the Baptist Orphanage, refers to his services in a modest way, and his losses and success as editor of the Biblical Recorder, losing $1,500 with but 1,100 subscribers and running it up in six years to 3,200. He edited without any charge or compensation the organ of the Oxford Orphanage. He concludes as follows:

"I cannot express my gratitude to to hundreds of good people who, by prayers and kindness, have given me cheer and comfort in my work. I am trying to forgive those who have misunderstood me and endeavored to harm me, and during life will feel a deep interest in the happiness of individual orphans.

"The value of the work I have done will be estimated by the lives of those whom I have been able to influence. Whatever may be my future I pray for grace to say:

"I worship Thee, sweet will of God,
And all Thy ways adore,
And every day I live I long
To love Thee more and more."

Utah will send a Gentle and a woman to the Senate. Both will be for silver.

When a person begins to pull another down, he or she should see to it that there is no grease on his or her heels, else he or she may slip down too.

The man who picked Bob Ingersoll's pocket during a recent address was the only person who ever played even with him in one of his entertainments.

The fact that the gold dollar can continue to float under the weight of the friendship of some of its most distinguished friends is itself an argument for its intrinsic value.

Buffalo has raised $300,000 for the National Republican Convention. Let the Republicans go to Buffalo. The word suggests horns and noofs and the hanging of hides out to dry.

It is said that the French tenor, Alvarez, is under contract at $5,000 a month for the next three years. That's a kind of "sound" money business, as it were. He furnishes the sound and they the money.

In Norway a new law has been passed which makes girls ineligible for matrimony until they are proficient in knitting, baking and spinning. Certificates of proficiency have to be earned, and without these no girls may marry.

The man who was recently arrested in New Jersey for hugging and kissing girls pleaded that he couldn't help it. He had probably never been out of New Jersey, or he wouldn't have gone crazy over the kind of girls they build there. If he had straggled down into this section he would have gone crazy sure and want to eat 'em.

The Ku-Klux-Klan No. 40, a novel, by Lawyer Jerome of Albatraz, is on sale. Agents are working the country. We have not had an opportunity to see it in printed form. It is bound in cloth and sells at 75 cents.

THE STANDARD has received a copy of Capt. S. A. Ashe's book, "A Day with the Professor and His Friends." It is illustrated. It looks to be intensely interesting—it is a plea for Free Coinage from a scholarly source. We shall prolong our study of the question in a careful reading of this book.

The Town Fathers have made of County Fathers a very just request. The County Fathers have, in turn, refused and did what they could.

Concord pays nearly one-half of the road tax and yet the chain gang is not allowed to work inside of the incorporate limits. If the county had had any representation in the last Legislature the inequality might have been removed. It is a very easy matter for No. 12 to kick out, but she desires not to do this, but would be glad to receive just a little help over some great burdens.

A PECULIAR BRIDEGROOM.

Married Forty-Eight Hours and Would Not Kiss His Bride for $500—She Sues for Divorce.

TOPEKA, Kas., Sept. 6.—After a month of married life, Mrs. Ethel Madison has brought suit for divorce from her husband in the Wyandotte County District Court. She alleges in her petition that she only lived with him two days and that the 48 hours thus passed were simply a foretaste of the future punishment. She says she tried to be a dutiful wife, that she wanted to kiss and fondle him, but that he spurned her advances. He told her he would not permit her to kiss him for $500 cash. This occurred within five hours of the time of the wedding ceremony was performed. Mrs. Madison is a very pretty woman. The marriage was a romantic affair, the two agreeing to it on the spur of the moment. The heart broken woman asks to be divorced from Madison and given $25 a month of his salary.

A Greek Devil Belief.

The Greek conception of their devil, whom they call Yama, makes that personage one of the most satanic of the whole devil tribe. According to their ideas of him he is 240 miles high and the hairs on his body stand out like palm trees on a mountain side. He punishes the doomed beings submitted to his charge by putting them in beds of boiling oil, sawing their bodies in two, pouring molten lead in their ears and such other little pranks as pulling out their tongues, toe and finger nails and gouging out their eyes. He is a heartless old devil of the most devilish kind, and has many other exquisite little tortures laid up for the helpless wretch consigned to his "chamber of horrors."

Killed in a Ball Game.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 10.—Benjamin F. Myers, twenty years old, was almost instantly killed today in a ball game. He was sliding to second base in an amateur match when the baseman sprang into the air to catch a thrown ball. He dropped on Myers, his body falling on the young man's neck and dislocating his spine.

A Female Centaur.

A singular arrest was made recently in Central Park, New York. A young English woman was arrested by a policeman for riding astride on horseback. She protested against her arrest and declared that she had as much right to straddle her horse in the park as other women have to straddle bicycles. The matter was brought before the president of the police board and he decided that there is no law to prohibit women from riding astride their horses. The fact that the policeman felt called upon to arrest his woman shows the force of conventionalities. It is unusual and unconventional for women to straddle horses. The policeman had probably never seen one do so before and he naturally concluded that if other women do not straddle horses it was wrong for this one to do so and he arrested her accordingly.

UNTOLD MISERY

FROM

RHEUMATISM

C. H. King, Water Valley, Miss., cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"For five years, I suffered untold misery from muscular rheumatism. I tried every known remedy, consulted the best physicians, visited Hot Springs, Ark., three times, spending $100 there, besides doctors' bills; but could obtain only temporary relief. My flesh was wasted away so that I weighed only ninety-three pounds; my left arm and leg were drawn out of shape, the muscles being twisted up in knots. I was unable to dress myself, except with assistance, and could only hobble about by using a cane. I had no appetite, and was assured, by the doctors, that I could not live. The pains, at times, were so awful, that I could procure relief only by means of hypodermic injections of morphia. I had my limbs bandaged in clay, in sulphur, in poultices; but these gave only temporary relief. After trying everything, and suffering the most awful tortures, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Inside of two months, I was able to walk without a cane. In three months, my limbs began to strengthen, and in the course of a year, I was cured. My weight has increased to 135 pounds, and I am now able to do my full day's work as a railroad blacksmith."
