Harve Blackwelder and his daughter, Julia, both colored, were arrested Wednesday night by Sheriff Sims. Harve gave bail and was liberated, while Julia was sent to jail.

Our Mr. Deaton, with a nose for news and an energy to follow it, left here Wednesday at 9.45, went 60 miles into the country to the scene of the explosion, returned and by 2 o'clock the matter was all in cold type. This is rapid transit.

A hacking cough keeps the bronchial tubes in a state of constant irritation, which, if not speedily removed, may lead to chronic bronchitis. No prompt remedy can be found than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effect is immediate and the result permanent.

Capt. T. S. Robertson, of Burlington, the second man to run a locomotive engine over the North Carolina railroad, is in the city. He is on a visit to his many friends of long ago, and asked about several intimate ones that have passed away.

Which is worse, imprisonment for life or a life-long disease, like scrofula, for example? The former certainly, would be preferable were it not that Ayer's Sarsaparilla can always come to the rescue and give the poor sufferer health, strength, and happiness.

The city water works company is sinking the main pipe on Mill street a depth of eighteen inches more than formerly, owing to the pipe having been too close to the surface to prevent freezing in the winter. At night, while the work is going on, a lantern is hung out as a danger signal.

Another Boiler Explosion.

Sheriff John A. Sims has just received a letter from Mr. R. S. Sloan, formerly of this county, who writes from Eureka, Texas, his home. He tells of a boiler explosion there. Two men (brothers) were instantly killed and buried in the same grave. The boiler was thrown through the building, going through nineteen 2x12 joice and tearing up floor and press and striking the ground 305 yards from the foundation and rebounding went 80 yards further before coming to the ground.

Mr. Sloan adds that the crops are a failure, especially cotton and corn. The price of cotton runs from 7 to 7½; and corn from 18 to 20 cents.

This accident in its extent, to return, seems almost incredible, but Mr. Sloan is perfectly reliable and is a high-toned, Christian gentleman.

Laid to Rest.

The funeral of Mr. J. Whit Burkhead was conducted from the First Presbyterian church this morning at 9 o'clock by his pastor, Rev. W. C. Alexander, who paid a sweet tribute to the deceased, and very touchingly dwelt upon his faithfulness to man and to his Savior, after which the remains were conveyed to the cemetery, where they were laid to rest. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. J. C. Wadsworth, J. L. Hartsell, A. M. Faggart, W. M. Stuart, D. L. Bost and A. E. Lentz.

The Negro Convention.

There were 150 delegates at the colored convention in Raleigh on Wednesday.

John Williamson and Ed Johnson were the leaders, and they claim that it was solid against fusion. It was a harmonious and enthusiastic meeting.

About the Wounded.

Mr. Matthew Safrin, a brother to Mr. Jackson Safrin, the old gentleman who was so badly wounded in the explosion yesterday, arrived in the city this afternoon and states that his brother and old Mr. Bost are yet alive, but it is not thought that they can live 24 hours longer.

Senator Butler Issues Cards.

Senator Butler and other Republicans issue a call to their followers to attend the non-partisan silver convention, which Mr. Ed Chambers Smith has inaugurated. It is predicted that an immense crowd will be present.

A Greek Devil Belief.

The Greek conception of their devil, whom they call Yama, makes that personage one of the most satanic of the whole devil tribe. According to their ideas of him he is 240 miles high and the hairs on his body stand out like palm trees on a mountain side. He punishes the doomed beings submitted to his charge by putting them in beds of boiling oil, sawing their bodies in two, pouring molten lead in their ears and such other little pranks as pulling out their tongues, toe and finger nails and gouging out their eyes. He is a heartless old devil of the most devilish kind, and has many other exquisite little tortures laid up for the helpless wretch consigned to his "chamber of horrors."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
