EARTHQUAKE IN HONDURAS.

City of Tegucigalpa Trembling—Hundreds in the Surrounding Mountains Killed—Flames Shoot Up From Volcanoes to a Fearful Height—The Wildest Excitement.
 TEGUCIGALPA, Sept. 12—Earthquake here. Three hundred people killed; property loss $750,000.
 A courier arrived yesterday from Getagan and announced the most terrible earthquake ever known in that section. The loss of life and property is enormous. Three hundred people are said to have perished. On Sunday the shocks commenced, lasting all day and night at intervals, causing much damage, and the greatest fear among the inhabitants of the city and neighborhood. By Monday the city was filled by an addition of thirty-five hundred people from the mountains and outlying villages. During Monday night, sheets of flames appeared at different points to the northwest, rising to immense heights.
 Tuesday morning the shocks ceased, quiet was restored and people left town for their homes. At 9 o'clock that night, however, heavy rumbling noises were heard, shortly after followed by a reappearance of the flames in the mountains, which shot up several hundred feet. Frightened people again flocked to town and at mid-night the church tower fell, carrying with it the roofs of three houses. Nine people were killed and 18 wounded.
 Rambling which sounded like the heaviest cannonading commenced and lasted over an hour and a half, the people rushing madly through the streets, praying and crying. Just before daylight another prolonged shock, which is variously calculated to have lasted from two and a quarter to three minutes, rocked the whole town as if it were a cradle. Many fleeing people were killed by rocks which fell in a perfect shower like a hail storm. Smoke from the mountains to the northwest rose to an enormous height, followed shortly after by the bursting of flames from the mountainside and the throwing out of rocks and lava. Shortly after streams of molten lava set fire to a number of houses on the mountainside. Cattle grazing near by fled and were killed, being engulfed in the lava, which continued flowing in immense streams.
 It is reported at Yetapan, that 71 houses were destroyed. One hundred and fifty-three dead bodies have been recovered there and many more are missing. At Covejuanca, 37 houses were destroyed. Ninety-five bodies were recovered. At Cavascal 29 houses were destroyed and a hundred and eleven bodies were recovered. It is impossible yet to give a full account of the disaster. Many small settlements are believed to have been destroyed. Shocks extended over the whole Yetapan chain and flames are seen also in the Pacaya mountains. The shocks have now ceased but the smoke is still discernable at different points in the mountains. It is feared that the end is not yet.
 The disaster at Yetapan is much worse than at first reported. The number killed in the towns and mountains, as far as ascertained, amounts to two hundred and eighty seven. The property loss is calculated at over $600,000. The government is doing all possible for the victims. Slight shocks continue, causing damage to property though not to life. Two former extinct volcanoes are now throwing lava, though in small quantities. Night shows lurid flames to immense heights and a stream of lava is now running into the abyss. It is calculated that over 1,800 cattle are killed. Troops are scouring the country for fugitive victims.

An Old Game.
 Doubtless no town on the Southern road tolerates the "panhandling" by tramps as does our little city. This morning a man struck town with one hand in a bad shape, telling for his tale the oft told story of getting "barned in a furnace" or something else as bad, when, if the true facts were known, it was the effects of nitric acid, and only a scheme that has only too often been successfully worked to obtain money without labor. The scheme is a good one and takes well with the sympathetic public who are ignorant of the deceptive pranks.

Senator Jarvis Writes a Letter.
 Senator Jarvis writes a letter to the Raleigh News and Observer. He explains his position—one between the Populists and gold bug Democrats.

Mr. Jarvis says: "When the papers get through vexing themselves over my Morganton speech, I will deliver another one on the subject: There are two things needful to the enduring prosperity of the South—bimetallism and good government, State and municipal—neither of which is the Republican party able to furnish."

Hazelnut Trees.
 Mrs. W D Anthony, whose success at cultivating rare flowers and plants is so well known to the public, brought us a sample of the large hazelnut raised by her. Her hazelnut trees were raised from kernels of nuts sent her by a friend in Texas. This nut is of the large variety and the "goody" has an exquisite flavor. We thank her for her kind remembrance.

"Roy" Plyler Dead.
 Rev. C Plyler has received the sad intelligence that his son, Leroy, who was living at Fort Assilabane, Montana, is dead. His death was first learned through a letter from Theo West, who is in Louisiana, to his father. Young Mr. Plyler was about 22 years of age and is well remembered here—Salisbury world. [Rev. Plyler and family once lived in Concord.]

How it is Done in High Point.
 Many inquiries have been made as to how we maintain such a splendid electric light system here at so small a cost. Well, the biggest secret is that the town owns the plant. We maintain thirty arc lights for the city without cost to the taxpayers. The private lights about pay expenses.—Enterprise.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Rogers, of No. 3 township, died Thursday morning.

THEY WERE CANADIANS.

High-Topped Boots, Pistols, Knives and Guns—Stopped Only a few Minutes in Front of Bank—Bound for Texas and Mexico.
 So unusual was it to see men on our streets with knives, guns and pistols buckled about their waists, with high-topped boots, broad-rimmed hats and dressed in rough riding clothes, that when the two Canadians passed through the city Thursday some people thought that Jesse James' gang had struck the community, and when they stopped in front of the bank, they fully determined that trouble would ensue. But they were disappointed in that respect, for the men were peaceable tourists, en route from Montreal, Canada, and were on their way to Texas and Mexico, via the Atlanta Exposition, on horseback, and after assuring the curious people who were watching them, that they were not desperados, they passed through town, wending their way eastward, going out the Charlotte road. All those who were excited may rest easy now.

Marvelous Results.
 From a letter written by Rev. J Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discover, it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Fetzer's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.
