Esq. Coleman in a Joke.

Esq. Coleman, Cabarrus county's wealthiest colored man, has been doing lots of travel for several weeks in the interest of the colored exhibit at the Atlanta Exposition. He has been enthusiastic and energetic. Nearly every paper coming to us this week contains an item about his presence and efforts. In fact Esq. Coleman's name has been mentioned oftener in one week than our representatives and Senators were in the last legislative gathering. But we started to reproduce what the Wadesboro Intelligencer had. The Intelligencer says:

"W C Coleman, of Concord, the wealthiest colored man in the State, was here last week in the interest of the colored exhibit at the Atlanta Exposition. Coleman is so nearly white that no one who does not know him would for an instant suspect that negro blood flows in his veins, and for this reason, Eaph, the National Hotel porter, cannot be blamed for carrying him to the hotel and offering him the best the house afforded. It was at night and the proprietor, Mr. Smith, was not present. Coleman humored the joke until Eaph had assigned him a room, and then he informed the surprised porter that it was not customary for negroes to be entertained at hotels in this State, and therefore he would have to ask to be directed to the home of Elder Settle, of the colored Methodist church."

Mr. W. E. Stone out of Jail.

Mr. Walton E Stone, a former citizen of Raleigh, stands charged with embezzling from Kranich & Bach piano firm funds to the extent of $1,340. The warrant for his arrest was issued by Justice Roberts. Mr. Stone was brought here from his home, Scranton, Bertie county, by sheriff R D Harris, of county and was placed in jail here. He stayed in jail until late yesterday afternoon, when he gave bond for $500 and was released. In the preliminary trial before Justice Roberts he waived examination and was bound over to the Superior court. A E Stone and W W Edwards are the bondsmen. The prosecution is represented by Messrs J W Hinsdale and T P Devereaux, and the defence by R H Battle, Esq.—Raleigh Observer.

Here it is?

A lot of circus bill posters came in Sunday and were at the McAdoo.

One man was reported sick and the boss of the gang hired a negro to help in the work on Monday.

When the others found out what he had done they coolly informed him they would quit before they would work with a "nagar."

When a man from the north will not work with a negro, how do they expect a Sotheren man to do it?—Greensboro Record.

Bad Blood May Again Be Stirred Up.

The Statesville Mascot makes reference to the bad blood that exists in Lexington. Let us all hope that the end is already here. The Mascot says this:

"The defendants, Baxter Shemwell and Dr. Lee Payne, appeared last week at Davidson court and submitted for an affray with deadly weapons. This was the shooting affair in the morning, and for which they were bound over to court just before the killing. The judgment in the case was suspended on the payment of the cost, the Judge remarking that the whole case had been investigated fully and Shemwell acquitted and that Payne had suffered in the loss of his father, therefore he would suspend judgment. The cost in the Shemwell murder trial will hardly be less than $3,000. The County Commissioners have refused to pay it, and have employed Lee S Overman, of Salisbury, to resist its being adjudged against the county. The feud between the Shemwell and Payne factions has not subsided. Dr. Lee Payne, it is said, has asked the foreman of the jury twice which tried Shemwell how much money he got for rendering his verdict. This sets the factorial hot blood going, and the end of the Shemwell case is not yet. There is also talk of a damage suit by the jury against Payne for having this talk."

Still Better.

Esq. Geo. Ritchie was in the city today and reports that the wounded men, Safrin and Boat, are still living and are in a better condition than there were any hopes of. It is thought, though, that the change for the better is only temporary.

Hauled to Court House.

The Durham correspondent writes:

"Judge Augustus W Graham, of Oxford, was here this morning on his way home from Burgaw, where he held court this week. He is looking well and in fine spirits. He says he sent a wagon to the Pender county jail to haul a prisoner, charged with arson, to the court house. The fellow pretended to be sick, but the county physician said he was not too sick to come into court, and the judge ordered the sheriff to "haul him in." After reaching the court room he would not plead to the charge against him, so the judge ordered a plea of not guilty entered and began the trial. After a little while the fellow's mouth opened, and he plead guilty and was sent to the penitentiary for ten years"

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J Gunderman, of Diamonddale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little intermission and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Fetzer's Drug store Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

AT THE BUFFALO MILLS.

Machinery Being Placed and Work of All Description Progressing.

Busier workmen can't be found than those engaged in placing down the machinery at the large spinning room at the Buffalo Thread mill, where work of that nature has been in progress for ten days or more.

To the left of the mill on the hill are twelve pipe 2 family brick houses in course of construction, four of which are about completed. This annex to Concord, when everything gets in motion, will be a little town within itself. If you have not been out there you can get only a faint idea of what our town is getting to be.

Lum Boger Captured.

It will be remembered that about a year ago, a negro, Lum Boger, chased Frank White, one of the hands at Brown's livery stable, with a pistol, firing at him several times, the bullets striking the house of Mr. Henry Propst, on East Depot street. He was captured Friday afternoon by Sheriff Sims and Deputy Hill near the fair grounds. He has been to Winston and Charlotte since the shooting affair, but returned about ten days ago, and has been hanging around the suburbs. He is in jail.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, Constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters, 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Fetzer's Drug store.

Cotton and Its Price.

Several bales of new cotton were on the market today, and the season fairly opened. For new cotton, the best grades bring about 8 cents, which makes the good old farmers grin as of yore, and admit that "times are improving." Old cotton, somewhat staided, brought 7½ to 7 cents.
