DEATH OF GEN. MAHONE.

The End of a Notable Career—The Stroke of Paralysis Proves Fatal and the Leader of the Virginia Readjuster Movement Crosses the River—Arrangement for the Funeral.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—General
Wm. Mahone died at Chamberlin's Hotel at 1 o'clock this afternoon from the effects of a paralytic stroke sustained Monday, September 30th.
He has been totally unconscious for more than 48 hours previous to his death and passed away seemingly without pain. Mrs. Mahone, Butler and Wm. Mahone, Jr., his sons, Mrs. O M McGill, his daughter, L L Maury, of Southampton county, Va., a nephew, and Captain Rogers, secretary of the Virginia State Republican committee and former secretary to General Mahone, were at the bedside when the end came.

Arrangements for the funeral were made soon after General Mahone died. The remains will be taken to Petersburg, Va., by the train leaving Washington at 4:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. Services will be held at 5 o'clock tomorrow evening at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Petersburg, and the body will then be taken to the place of interment.

The honorary pall bearers will be officers of "Mahone's Brigade" and the body bearers will be soldiers who served in that organization.

General Mahone was paying one of his frequent visits to Washington when he was paralyzed last Monday.
He was partly conscious and able to take nourishment until Sunday morning. From that time until his death he did not open his eyes and was unable to take any nourishment.

For Slander and Abuse.

A warrant was issued Saturday for the arrest of J F Gibson, a colored Baptist divine of the city for slander and abuses upon the character of a female member of his congregation. The papers have not yet been served, awaiting the private consideration of the matter. The congregation is a very much divided one, and some say the charges will not hold, owing to the conduct of the woman in question. A compromise may be effected.

Mrs. Magruder at Rest.

Mrs. Sarah Magruder, whose illness was stated in THE STANDARD, died, Tuesday evening, at the home of Mrs. Yancey, Albemarle county, Va., at the advanced age of 76.

Mrs. Magruder, is the mother of Mrs. R E Gibson of this city, with whom she has spent much time and during which Mrs Magruder made many warm friendships. She was an entertaining and intellectual woman, whose strong force of character and many accomplishments impressed one so quickly.

The announcement of her death will carry sadness to many friends and acquaintances in Concord.

Her daughters, Mrs. Gibson and Miss Julia Magruder, were with her in her last hours.

Bones From His Back.

Mr. Mike Brown, who lives out near the fair grounds, is perhaps the most peculiarly afflicted person in the county. Several years ago an abscess formed on his backbone.
Since that about fifteen pieces of bone have been removed by the physicians. Dr. Council removed a piece last week. Mr. Brown says he has suffered deaths from the abscess.
Salisbury World.

He's All Right.

David Scott's injuries is not so bad as supposed, though he is badly mangled.

From his feet up to his face and head he is covered with bruises, but happily most of them are flesh wounds, though his nose is split partly open and one eye is badly cut and his fingers lacerated.

He had reached the opening in the ground where the dynamite was placed and was stooping over to see why it had not exploded, when the blast went off, knocking him upwards and backwards several feet.
His trousers were literally ripped to pieces by flying pieces of rock which also cut his flesh in many places.

Dr. Gore, of the Normal, was the first to reach him and dressed his eye and nose and soon had him in shape to be sent home.

Dr. W J Richardson is attending to him and thinks he will recover, though it may be a long time before he again sets off another dynamite charge.—Greensboro Record.

Captured in Concord—Moore Mills.

Mr. J D Mills, a deputy sheriff of Anson county, has arrested the affections and captured the love of one of Concord's young ladies. Mr. Mills was this (Wednesday) morning at 9 o'clock, at the home of the bride in the presence of a number of intimate friends, married to Miss Emma Moore, of Forest Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J M Moore. Rev. J Simpson performed the ceremony.
An elegant breakfast immediately followed, after which the newly wedded started on their journey to the home of the groom in Wadesboro, by private conveyance. They have the best wishes of many friends.

Davidson May Lose $30,000.

Mr. E H Bean, who is in town today tells us that suit has been instituted by the heirs of a rich Californian who died last winter and bequeathed $30,000 to Davidson College, to recover the amount from the College. The heirs claim that at the time the will was made the old man was so infirm and weak-minded that he was irresponsible. It is to be hoped that Davidson will win the suit. The courts have restrained the college from using the money until the suit is decided.—Salisbury Differences Among the Lutheran Brethren.

Tennessee Lutheran Synod has been in session in Hickory this week and has been grappling with the doctrine of "election." A good many Lutherans, especially in the vicinity of Conover, have embraced the views of the Missouri Synod on "election," but have never severed their connection with the Tennessee Synod, which takes a very pronounced stand against it. A gentleman who has been attending the meeting in Hickory tells us that the discussion has been very warm and that Revs. O H Bernheim, J M Smith, Crouse, Long and Dr. Hoffmann have been expelled from the Synod. The expelled members claim that they have not changed their views on this doctrine, but that the majority ruling the present Tennessee Synod have discarded the teachings of Henkel and the other founders of the Synod and taken up the teachings of the Ohio Synod.—

Buffalo Bill's Great Exhibition Al- tered, Enlarged and Improved.

The event in the amusement world this year will be the advent of Buffalo Bill's Wild West. It is over eight years since this great educational entertainment has been seen in this vicinity, and in those years it has had an experience and a career unequalled in the world's history.

It has many times traversed the Atlantic; it was the crowning feature at the great Carnival in London is commemoration of the fifteenth year of the reign of Queen Victoria; it disputed with the Eiffel Tower the palm for interest and success at the World's Fair in Paris in 1889; it traversed Europe, crossed the Alps and the Pyrenees, and camped beneath the walls of the Alhambra and within the vast interior of the Colosseum at Rome. Princes potentates and powers have all been guests at its tables and have learned the lessons of the conquest of the New World from conqueror and conquered.

The unofficial recognition of eight governments is necessary to secure the different classes of horsemen who compose the human interest of the show. There are Russian Cossacks and Indians and Arabs and South American Cauchos and Cowboys and Plainsmen, of whom Col.
Cody is the type, and Mexican Ruralis from old Mexico, headed by the truly wonderful Signor Oropeza and Texas Vaqueros (Spanish Americans), thus including all the primitive men who are horsemen, and in conjunction with them cavalry from the United States, England, France and Germany, representing the four greatest cavalry nations of the world.

To give the performance in as complete form as it was given in Chicago is required an auxiliary corps of 400 employees, besides 400 arena performers, 800 in all. There are 225 draught horses which are used to haul the paraphernalia alone, besides the 300 horses used in the arena.

The magnitude of this enterprise, which travels with all the requirements of an army, is in itself a marvel. It requires two trains to transport it, and carries with it not only an army of men and horses, but the largest portable grand stand, capable of seating 20,000 people, ever constructed, and a portable electric light plant of 250,000 candle-power, which gives "a lustre of midday to objects below."

The entertainment, too, has been greatly altered, enlarged and improved during these past eight years. It sat at the gates of the Great Columbian Exposition at Chicago two years ago, and as "the key to all," as it was justly called, rivalled in interest that greatest achiev-ment of civilized man.

Arrangements have been made to give the show in as complete a form as it was presented in Chicago, at the same time going through the country from place to place and making stands of one day, two days, one week and two weeks, according to the size of the place.

It presents the greatest series of accurate pictures of frontier life ever conceived, and is veritably "history related by the men who made it."

It will be in Greensboro, Thursday Oct. 10 afternoon and night; Salisbury Oct. 11.

Dr. C. A Smith Declines.

Dr. C A Smith, who was elected professor of English at Davidson College, has declined.

He will return to Louisiana after his vacation in Greensboro expires.
