A BATCH OF LOCAL NEWS.

Picked Up and Put in Shape By Our Hustling Pencil Pusher.

Freeze it did. For the past two mornings there has been ice.

The tank on the tower of No. 2 mill at the Odell factories is complete.

The german that was to have been given last night at Patterson's hall did not materialize.

M L Marsh & Co. give you some practical advice in their advertisement today. See it.

Weather signals say it will be warmer tonight, followed tomorrow by local showers.

Mr. Lee Kindley was down from near Mooresville with cotton. The Concord market is at the top.

The meeting at Forest Hill Methodist church continues in interest. The attendance is quite large.

The front of Yorke, Wadsworth & Co's. hardware store is being trimmed with a very bright coat of yellow paint.

The man at the wild west show in Salisbury today who lost his hard-earned money is not as short as he would be had he lost his head.

Stop at D M Walker's if you want anything in the grocery and notion line. Don't forget the place opposite D C Furr's at Forest Hill. ff.

A fence is being put up around the Baptist church on Spring street, which will greatly enhance the appearance of the church property.

Some one in Salisbury has lost a pocket knife in the shape of a beer bottle. The loss was a very sharp one and no doubt has been keenly felt.

A splendid $125 organ for sale cheap—in good condition. Can be bought for cash or on installments. For particulars call at THE STANDARD office. o7 1w.

Mr. B L Corriher, of Enochville, was in to see us. He is one of the good old time farmers, and says although the cotton crop is short he is content with the result.

When the band began to play on the streets Thursday night, several people thought it was a contingent of Buffalo Bills Wild West show, but they were disappointed when Belfont struck up on "Maggie."

D M Walker pays the highest market prices for all kind of country produce, cash or barter. Don't forget the place opposite D C Furr's at Forest Hill. ff.

Wednesday, October 23, is President's day at the Atlanta exposition. Many will go from here, not altogether because they are admirers of Grover the Great, but through curiosity and because it is a great day.

Mr. William J Alexander of Woodleaf, N. C., a native of No. 5 township, this county, has been on a visit to his brothers in No. 5 for several weeks. He reports cotton in his section a two-third crop and corn a splendid yield.

To remove the constipated habit, the only safe treatment is a course of Ayer's Pills, followed by a laxative diet. Most other cathartics do more harm than good, therefore leading physicians recommend Ayer's Pills, especially as a family physic.

Left this Morning.

Master Johnnie Goodman, the red-headed compositor of this shop, has gone to Salisbury to see Buffalo Bill.

Belfont brass band struck town last night in all its glory. It came to furnish music for a festival.

Sheriff Sims will begin his tax collecting rounds on Tuesday next, starting in No. 1 township.

Ministers will greatly oblige us if they will send in their announcements for Sunday early tomorrow morning.

About twenty people went to Salisbury this morning from this place. Whether they saw any of the buffalo Bill caught is yet unknown, but it goes without saying that they saw not a few suckers.

Confusion as to the choice of a blood-purifier is unnecessary. There is but one best Sarsaparilla, and that is Ayer's. This important fact was recognized at the World's Fair, Chicago, 1893, being the only blood-purifier admitted to be placed on exhibition.

Jumped Up Again.

Only about thirty-five bales of cotton were upon the market today. The price early Thursday morning was 8:85, but late in the day had fallen off 15 points, and remained at 8.70 until this afternoon when it jumped up to 8 85 again. This was an unusually dull day in cotton trading for Friday.

Notice.
