RITCH SURRENDERS.

He Was Jailed Without Bail—He Employs Eminent Counsel and Will Plead Not Guilty.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 16.—Charles Ritch, late of Charlotte, N. C., who is charged with the murder of Thos. Breen last night, walked into the police station at 8 o'clock (to-night and surrendered himself to Chief of Police Atkins. He was remanded to jail without bail to await preliminary hearing.

It was 4 o'clock this morning when the coroner's jury returned a verdict charging Ritch with the crime and holding James B Sims, an electrical engineer of Charlotte, N. C., and Emma Clark, Ritch's mistress, as accessories. Sims has since been released from custody as there was nothing to show that he was mixed up in the tragedy. Ritch has engaged eminent counsel and will plead that he did not fire the fatal shot.

House Burnt and Robt. Corzine Loses Everything.

Wednesday evening, the dwelling house on Mr. J Dove's place near Zion church caught fire and was entirely destroyed.

The house was occupied by Mr. Robt. Corzine, an industrious and hard-working man. He lost all his household effects, clothing and everything. In addition, Mr. Corzine lost about 1,000 pounds of seed cotton and all his wheat.

None of the family were at home. Several little colored children were on the lot. The origin of the fire is not known, but it is thought that the children had been playing with fire.

A Prominent Man in Monroe.

A prominent Cabarrus man in town to-day states that Sheriff Sims of his county, carried the negro rapist to Charlotte day before yesterday solely to curry favor with the negroes of Concord whom he had offended by refusing to vote for a negro on the municipal ticket; that there was no earthly danger of lynching the negro, as no one believed him guilty—Monroe correspondent of the Charlotte Observer.

The correspondent is entirely off or his informant is. The negro is believed guilty, besides he confesses the deed, corroborating the statements of the lady whose person was violated. Sheriff Sims was advised to carry the negro to Charlotte for safe keeping—it is a difficult matter to keep a prisoner in our jail and especially one who has such a dark future before him.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

NOT LIKE OTHERS

There is a difference between medicines and medicines. Those of to-day, as a rule, differ from those of the past in many respects. Fully as great is the difference between Dr. King's

ROYAL GERMETUER

and the ordinary medicines of to-day. It is unlike them in

THESE FIVE THINGS:

1. It does not taste like a medicine. It is as pleasant to take as lemonade and makes a most refreshing drink.
2. It never nauseates the most delicate stomach.
3. It does not swap off one disease for another. It does not set up one form of disease in order to relieve another as is so often the case.
4. It contains no alcohol or opium in any form and is always harmless even when given to a babe one day old.
5. It does not patch simply, it cures. It reaches as nothing else does to the hidden sources of disease in the blood and removes the cause. It does this with an ease and power that have never been equaled.

For all troubles of the Blood, Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys and Nerves, and for all forms of MALARIAL POISON it stands pre-eminent—without a rival or a peer.
