ONE OF THEM CONVICTED.

There Was Much Excitement Over the Verdict, and Fears of Lynching, But all Was Quiet.

CHESTER, S. C., Oct. 22.—Charles Lloyd and William Bass were tried here to-day for the murder of William Welsh, a white lad of the Haile Gold Mine, Lancaster county, in August last. Charles Lloyd was convicted of murder, and William Bass acquitted, the jury staying out only ten minutes. The trial was attended with great excitement and rumors of lynching were rife. The trial was to have been held in Lancaster county, but a change of venue was secured. The negroes were ably defended by W C Hough, of Lancaster, and S E McFadden, of Chester. Everything is quiet to-night and no trouble is feared.

[This negro was raised down at the Phoenix Mine. He committed an atrocious murder and the jury very properly and speedily says he must be hanged.]

An Atlanta Murderer Escapes.

Will Myers, who has become notorious for his crime and two convictions and who was sure to hang, escaped prison at Atlanta, Monday evening. The keeper was letting a lady out, and Myers rushed out too. He cannot be found anywhere. It thought the keeper was bribed.

How is this, Professor Cook?

Mr. W A Kidley, of Mt. Pleasant, was in the city last Friday with two bales of cotton which he marketed here. Mr. Kidley said the market here was 20 points higher than Concord and he could afford to travel the extra distance for the extra price.—Salisbury World.

Tut, tut, child! You are wrong. Mr. Kidley went to see his sister, and simply took two bales along. THE STANDARD has watched all the time the various markets. In fact Salisbury is not regarded a cotton market and hence is liable to do most anything when it is not up to snuff. Most of Rowan's cotton is marketed in Concord anyhow.

Col. Carr's Daughter to Wed.

The following interesting announcement is made by the Kansas City (Mo.) Times:

"The engagement is announced of Mr. Harry C Fowler, of this city, to Miss Lida Carr, daughter of Col. J S Carr, of Durham, N. C. The wedding will take place this winter. Miss Carr already has a large circle of friends in Kansas City who will welcome her to a permanent residence. She has been the guest on several occasions of Mrs. T J Templar and Miss Tess Templar and of other friends. Miss Carr spent the summer in Europe and has just returned to her Southern home. Mr. Fowler is one of the most popular and delightful of the young society of Kansas City. He also passed the summer in Europe, and most of his time is devoted to the perfecting of business plans in Boston. Mr. Fowler and his bride will live in Kansas City.

A Mysterious Disappearance.

Some months ago Oryille Stillwell, claiming to be from Macon county, N. C., came into the Denver neighborhood, this county. He married a Miss Blalock, soon afterwards. He appeared to everybody as a straightforward, honest man and was very much respected. He soon became a Sunday school superintendent and conducted religious services quite frequently in the community.

A few weeks ago Stillwell procured a wagon and a mule from one of his neighbors, Frank Beal, to haul his cotton to Davidson College. He sold his cotton to Howard and Stough at Davidson and trailed out $21 worth, buying a suit of clothes, coffee, rice, sugar, etc. He left Davidson late in the evening for home. He was seen at the Pott's place, near Beattie's ford for the last time. Stillwell, wagon and mule, nor goods have been seen since. Their whereabouts are unknown.—Lincoln Democrat.

Should be Condemed.

Sallie Morgan, a colored woman of this city, rented the "Red" store room in the Patterson-Probst building for the purpose of opening and running a restaurant during the winter, but the authorities have forbidden the woman to put fire in it on account of the building being nothing more than a fire-clap and in an unsafe condition.

For the Baptists.

For a week or more the Baptist church congregation of this city have been on the lookout for a bell that had been purchased. The bell has arrived and will be placed in the belfry, ready for use by Sunday next. It weighs 700 or 800 pounds.

It May do as Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called kidney cures but without and good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all kidney and Liver troubles and often gives, almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price 50c, and $1.00, at Fetzer's drug store.

Horse Fell Down.

Mrs. Dr. Holden had a thrilling experience on her return from Richfield. She drove the Doctor's spirited horse down there, but, fearing it would be unmanageable for her, she hired a small colored boy to drive back. While descending a steep grade the horse fell down, threw the colored boy out and landed Mrs. Holden upon the dash-board. Neither herself or the boy was seriously hurt, however. The buggy was broken and the horse badly skinned up which is lame from the effect.

The Ideal Panacea.

James L Francis, Alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physician's prescriptions or other preparations."

Rev. John Burgus, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for 50 years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial bottles free at Fetzer's drug store.

Robbins-Gibson.

This morning at 10 o'clock, at the beautiful home of Dr. and Mrs. J P Gibson, the happy courtship of Miss Mary Grace, their daughter, and Mr. Frank L. Robbins, son of Majr Robbins, of Statesville, ended when Rev. W O Alexander performed the ceremony that bound these two popular young people in the bonds of holy wedlock.

It was a quiet home marriage, there being present only members of the families of the contracting parties, and a few invited friends.

To the delight of her many friends, Mrs. Robbins will not sever the ties that make her one of Concord's; and they are delighted, too, that Mr. Robbins came here, won and captured and that in this campaign he was, himself, captured by the town in a way that he is regarded as one of ours.

The gifts were numerous and elegant, among them one from her aged grand mother. Among the gifts were a number of ten dollar gold pieces.

The bridal couple left on the 11:15 train for Atlanta and other Southern cities.

In this marriage one of Concord's loveliest and most popular young ladies changes her name, and the delight of her many friends at the probability of her remaining in Concord, attests the esteem in which she is held; and the groom is a young man of sterling qualities and popular with all who know him.

For this newly married couple there goes out the very heartiest, best wishes from a very large circle of friends.

As we go to press it is rumored that two convicts of the county chain gang were shot and mortally wounded while attempting an escape.

Will Not Be so Polite Hereafter.

Joe M Watson, a white man, who lives about two miles from town, but who has employment here, was last week tried at Dobson for retailing and came clear. When the verdict was rendered Mr. Watson was not satisfied with being cleared, but arose and thanked the judge and jury for doing same. The judge quietly instructed Sheriff Adams to give Mr. Watson 60 days on the public roads for thanking a judge and jury for clearing him. Mr. Watson will not be so profuse in offering thanks in the future.—Mt. Airy News.
