

Daily Concord Standard.

Vol. XI.—No. 148.

CONCORD, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1895.

WHOLE NO. 1,326

Concord National Bank.

CONCORD, N. C.

J. M. ODELL, President.
D. B. COLTRANE, Cashier.
L. D. COLTRANE, Assistant Cashier.

Capital, $50,000
Surplus, $16,000

—DIRECTORS:—
J. M. ODELL, D. F. CANNON
E. M. KING, J. W. CANNON
W. R. ODELL, W. H. LILLY,
D. B. COLTRANE.

Speculation,

HAMMOND & CO.

Stock and Bond Brokers.

130 & 132 Pearl Street,

NEW YORK CITY, N. Y.

Stocks, Bonds and Grain bought and sold, or carried on Margin.

P. S.—Send for explanatory circular on speculation, also weekly market letter. (Free) dwly

KLUTZ'S MEAT MARKET.

(LITAKER'S CORNER)

I have opened my MEAT MARKET in the Litaker basement, formerly occupied by Swink & Day. When you want nice, fresh meats, beef, pork, mutton, etc., call on or send in your orders to S. L. KLUTZ. P. S. I am in the market when beef cattle and hogs are for sale.

Odell Manufacturing Co.,

MANUFACTURERS OF

FINE GINGHAMS,

OUTING CLOTHS,

PLAIDS, SHEETING

AND SALT BAGS.

DEALERS IN General

Merchandise.

BUYERS OF Country Produce.

of all Kind

— AND —

Four-Foot wood always wanted — best prices for same. We invite an inspection of all the goods we Manufacture.

Odell Manufacturing Co.

A Whole Life Time's Work at Once.

The home of John Langdon, a well-to-do farmer, living six miles north-west of Delta, Fulton county, Ohio, is at present the Mecca of the inhabitants for miles around. The attraction, or rather the attractions, are five bouncing boys which Mrs. Langdon presented to her husband yesterday. The little fellows are well and likely to live. Mrs. Langdon is a comely woman and twenty-six, and although she has been married four years has never had any children before.

Under the laws of Ohio the State furnishes free maintenance and education for the additional child or children when more than two are born at a single accouchment, and from present appearances Mrs. Langdon has given three charges to the State. The children average 3 pounds each.

Another of Concord's to Marry.

There is pain in the announcement of a coming marriage in Concord—it means that one of the town's best and most excellent young ladies is to be taken from us. In this we all feel like protesting, but it can't be helped.

Thursday evening, handsomely engraved cards were issued that read as follows:

MR. AND MRS. D. BRANSON COLTRANE requests your presence at the marriage of their daughter JUANITA TO DOCTOR DAVID A. GARRISON, Wednesday evening, November sixth, eighteen hundred and ninety five, at nine o'clock. Central M. E. Church, South, Concord, North Carolina.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tettered Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale at P. B. Fetzer's Drug store.

Nearly a Fire.

About 2 o'clock Thursday night the air was pervaded with an odor of burning grass and leaves, but it was an hour or longer before the fire could be discovered. Mr. Will Johnston, the night watchman, after searching the lots for some time, discovered the grass and a pile of old straw burning in the rear of the Shuman restaurant, (the old court house lot) where some one had dumped out hot ashes. The fire had begun to spread and had gained considerable headway. Mr. Johnston found it in time, however, to save perhaps a large conflagration.

Certainly You Don't Expect "Clap Trap" at a Religious Meeting.

We admire the manner in which our Methodist brethren are conducting their revival. There is no clap trap work about it. The gospel is preached in its purity and in its simplicity and most earnest appeals are made to men's hearts to accept the truths of the gospel.—Monroe Enquirer.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

FROM THE STATE OF WILKES.

The Gibbs Triplets in Atlanta—They are 62 Years Old and Good Looking Men, All Married, Have Twin Children and Twin Children, and Voted for Cleveland.

The Atlantic, Tennessee & Ohio vestibule from Taylorsville this morning brought in a party with tickets to Atlanta. In the party were R J Gibbs and T L Gibbs, of Wilkes county. They looked so much alike that it was not possible to tell one from the other. They weigh each 187 pounds, have a short cropped gray mustache, and are dressed alike, from hat to boots. "We are brothers," said one of them to the News reporter, "and we are going to Atlanta to meet our other brother, for there are three of us. Our Atlanta brother, W W Gibbs, moved there from the old homestead in Wilkes county 30 years ago. He looks just like we do, and weighs the same. We are going to have a reunion there, and may advertise ourselves as a sample of North Carolina's product."

Continuing, the two brothers who are going to Atlanta to see their third brother, told the News that their father died when the triplets were three years old. Their mother died last June, at the age of 94 years. The Atlanta brother has had a pair of twins born to him. R J Gibbs had no twins, but one of his married daughters had twins. "How many children have you three together," asked the reporter of one of the men. He turned to the other and said: "Well now, Tom, how many have we—I've forgot." Tom couldn't tell, either.

All three of these 62-year-old triplets voted for Cleveland. The two here today were proud of the fact that they had got a chance to shake the hand of the President. "I shuck it twice," the one named Tom proudly exclaimed.—Charlotte News.

Marriage Announcement.

Beautifully engraved cards have been issued announcing the marriage of Mr. Robbins and Miss Gibson. The cards read:

DR. and MRS. J. P. GIBSON announce the marriage of their daughter MARY GRACE TO

MR. FRANK LEE ROBBINS on Wednesday, October twenty-third, eighteen hundred and ninety-five. Concord, North Carolina

At Home after November fifth.

Signs of a Hard Winter.

The goose bone is nearly all white this year, and the result will be that snow will lie on the ground from early in December until late in April. A long, cold winter filled with blustering storms is ahead.

There are other signs that confirm this. Corn husks are unusually thick, and chipmunks and woodchucks are already fat enough to kill. Coal is advancing and gas companies are threatening to raise their rates.

The above is from an old resident a firm believer in the goose bone business.—Greensboro Record.

The Populist Executive Committee.

They met in Raleigh Wednesday night and the Press-Visitor says this about the presents:

"Those who were present are Senator Butler, Mr. Hal Ayer, Secretary to the committee, Maj. Guthrie, of Durham, Congressman Stroud, Mr. J B Lloyd, of Tarboro, W S Barnes, Dr. Cy Thompson, of church fame, Ambrosial Hileman, Otho Wilson, J W Denmark, Senator Mewborne, J J Rogers, Spier Whitaker and Mr. Peace."

McConnell-Castor.

A lovely home wedding was the one Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M E Castor, on West Depot street, when their daughter, Miss Hattie Castor, one of Concord's most excellent young ladies, was married to Mr. Ross L McConnell, the popular young operator at the Western Union Telegraph office. The marriage took place in the parlor amidst a beautiful array of floral decorations and in the presence of guests and friends, who witnessed the eventful affair that made the two one. Mr. Herman Keadiger, of Charlotte, with Miss Sallie Castor, sister of the bride; and Mr. D B Castor and Miss Carrie Neisler, cousins of the bride, were the only attendants. Rev. M G G Scherer, of St. James Lutheran church, performed the ceremony, which was short and impressive, after which the guests repaired to the dining hall where an elegant supper was served. Both Mr. and Mrs. McConnell are popular and are favorites among the young people of the city and have the best wishes of their friends for long, continued happiness. They were recipients of many handsome and costly presents. They will reside at Mr. Castor's for some time.

A Widower in Iredell County.

The following is said to have occurred in Iredell county recently:

A widower was at the altar for the fourth time. During the marriage service the sound of sobbing came from the rear of the family group, and an astonished guest inquired, "Who is the woman in tears? Is it some old flame?" "That's the cook," answered one of the children, "She always cries when papa is married."

Wouldn't Take Warning.

A young traveling man (we withhold his name) representing a Richmond house, struck town Thursday, and finding himself quite lonely and discontent in the afternoon, the young sport secured a bicycle and proceeded to take in the town. He was warned not to ride upon the sidewalks, but thinking the town just one size smaller than himself, he heeded not the warning. After enjoying a pleasant ride over our lovely sidewalks and reviewing the lovely residences and lawns on Main street, the young fellow was entertained at the Mayor's office for a short while, and before bidding "His Honor" adieu he donated $5.35 to the town treasury.

Seized the Outfit.

Wednesday afternoon, Azel Rush, a Wilkes county man, arrived at Bob Wallace's place, at Eastfield, with a load of whiskey for Charlotte. Rush said his team was played out, and asked Mr. Wallace to give him a lift to Charlotte. Mr. Wallace said he was coming to Charlotte today for cotton bagging and ties, and would haul Rush's whiskey in for him. This morning Wallace and Rush came to town in a buggy. Behind them was Mr. Wallace's team and wagon hauling the Wilkes county man's whiskey. Deputies King and Graham met the wagon on the road and found something crooked about the whiskey. They seized the whole outfit, team, wagon and all, and that's the sort of a scrape Mr. Wallace has got into by giving Mr. Rush a friendly lift to town.—Thursday's Charlotte News.

DUKE CIGARETTES

High Grade Tobacco AND ABSOLUTELY PURE

FURNITURE!

COFFINS & C.

I have now in stock at my rooms opposite the court house a splendid line of well-made Furniture such as

Bed Steads, Tables,

Wash Stands Safes,

Chairs, &c.

I defy competition in regard to quality and price. You will be surprised when you hear my prices. Come and see. If not in stock can supply you in a few days. I have a nice line of at prices that will surprise you. I keep a full line on hand for immediate supply. I buy and run my planing machine, and all persons who wish any thing in this line, will do well to call and see me.

COFFINS

LUMBER

Very Respectfully,

J. T. Pounds.

Concord, N. C. July 13, 1895.

FIRE INSURANCE.

Having transferred my Fire Insurance business to Messrs. H I Woodhouse and B E Harris, I commend them to any who may be in need of fire insurance, and bespeak for them a liberal patronage.

Respectfully,
J. W. BURKHHEAD.

We have assumed the Fire Insurance business of Mr. J. W. Burkhead, comprising the agencies for several first-class and well established companies, and respectfully solicit a liberal share of business in that line.

WOODHOUSE & HARRIS.
August 26, 1895.

COAL FOR SALE

HARD COAL,
SOFT COAL,
BLOCK COAL,
STOVE COAL,
SMITH COAL

Best Coal in the South. Orders taken to G E Fisher's store, or given to my drivers, or at my office will be promptly attended to.

K. L. CRAVEN.