Original Observations.

The leaves are dropping because this is fall-time.
They handle prize fighters in the South without gloves,
Where the land is rolling isn't real estate apt to be unsteady?
The favorite song of the medical student is "Some bodies coming."
There's many a truth said in jest—'tis often better so expressed.
If some people took back what they gave, they would be very heavily loaded.
The mantle of charity is buttoned with kind acts and trimmed with angel's wings.
The feather box may become popular with the girls, but the sweet Orange girl prefers flesh beau.
A man's love for his daughter should not be measured by the foot with which he lifts an unwelcome visitor out of the house.—Orange (Va.) Observer.

J. L. MILLER.
Thanking the public for past favors I solicit a continuance of same.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

By virtue of authority vested in me by a Mortgage or Deed in Trust executed on the 30th day of November, 1892, by Jacob L. McCarns and wife, Laura McCarns, which Mortgage is duly recorded in Registers Office for Cabarrus county in Book A, Page 555, I will sell at public auction in front of the Court House door on Monday, December 2, to the highest bidder for cash, one tract of land adjoining L. M. Sossomon and others, and described as follows: Beginning at a willow on west bank of Rocky River, corner of L. M. Sossomon, opposite the mouth of a small branch, which is on the East side of the River, and runs with three of L. M. Sossomon's lines as follows: N. 40° W. 18.80 chains to an elm on west bank of ditch; then N. 21° W. 18 chains to a stone in the field; then N. 74° W. 34 chains to a stone in Monroe Howell's line; then N. 24° E. 15 chains to a small sweet gum on the South bank of the branch, H. McLarty's corner, then with his line N. 32° E. 14 chains to a stone in the old line; then the old line S. 41° E. 61 chains to a branch on the west bank of the River, thence down the River as it means to the beginning containing ninety-two (92) and one half acres more or less—being part of the D. M. Carrier lands.
C. SOSSOMON, Trustee,
By W. M. SMITH, Attorney.
Concord Hose and Reel Company No. 1 will hold their regular monthly meeting tonight.

SHE WILTED.

She questioned him close, but no secret disclosed,
As they sat in the gloaming together,
About his life, for the damsel proposed,
With rare wisdom, to ascertain whether
He had habits or faults which in subsequent years,
Might occasion her worry or sorrow;
But George he was sick, and allayed all her fears
And doubts for the coming tomorrow.
"Now, George, do you gamble?" The question came low
And distinct, that he might understand,
"No, Ethel, I don't, but I ought to just now,
For I'm holding a beautiful hand."
'Twas a triumph of genius, it can't be denied,
By mortals but rarely possessed;
She quietly gathered her sleeves to one side
And wilted away on his breast.

Applied the Second Time.

A second attempt was made Sunday morning last when George Hathcock applied to Register Wedington to issue marriage license to himself and a Miss Phillips, of Patterson's Mill. Hathcock had an order, but not properly signed, giving the consent of the girl's parents. The young man's hours for calling have been unseemly, making his last trip about 5 o'clock Sunday morning. They are yet unmarried, but as time goes on, love deepens.

The Yarkin on a "Dyke."

Salisbury World: The old red coaches the Yarkin train has been carrying since the road was built have been discarded. The train that left here Monday evening had in its make up two of the prettiest cars ever seen here. They are painted a dark olive and look like those on the main line, and Capt. Joe Woodrum, the popular conductor, has a new suit of blue clothes. So the Yarkin appears to be on a "dyke" just now.

Short Over a Foot on Rain.

Charlotte News: The temperature of the past month was 58 degrees. The average temperature of October for the 18 years past has been 60 degrees. The entire rainfall during the past month was .79, against 6.12 for October 1894 and 8.27 for October 1893. In October 1892, the October rainfall was .23, and in 1891 it was .68. The average October rainfall is 3.67. The deficiency in rain for the month is 3.05. The accumulated deficiency in rainfall since January 1, is over a foot, being 12.66. If this deficiency is to be made up this year, there will be some very wet days between now and next January.

UNIQUE ITEMS.

From the Pen of Henry Blount in the Wilson Mirror.

The show tent gives in tented delight.
Burglars are noted for being enterprising.
A white glove often conceals a dirty hand.
A thermometer gains notoriety by degrees.
When a singer's voice fails he cannot take up his notes.
Good game is expensive, though it is not always deer.
Money, while not strictly a religion, has a denomination of its own.
A man who had four maiden aunts living with him said his house was terribly 'aunted.

Jonah is the first and, in fact, the only person we ever heard of who was whaled for three days.

We are told "the eyeing wore on," but we are not told what the evening wore on that occasion. Was it the close of a summer's day?

A minister, having some of his old sermons, was asked what he had in his package. "Dried tongue" was the reply.

Make a concession rather than a fuss. It is sweet and heroic and beautiful to yield when there is no principle involved.

A fellow desires to know if we heard of a person being bitten by placing his hand in the mouth of a river. Water question.

One of our leading physicians was standing in a drug store the other day, talking to some young ladies, when a little boy came to him and requested his presence at his home. "Where do you live?" said the doctor. "Don't you know me?" said the boy with a surprised look. "We trade with you, got a baby from you last week, and mamma seems proud of the trade." The silence that fell upon that group was so prodigious that you could have heard a bed tick.

KILLED BY SNAKES.

Horrible Death of a Young Kentucky Couple Just Married.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Nov. 2.—Orville Smith and bride, formerly Miss Annie Jay, met a horrible death in less than a week after they married. Last week they eloped to this city and were married, as the girl's father opposed the match on account of Smith's poverty. Returning to their home in Kentucky, not far from Frankfort, they moved into a small house built by Smith before their wedding. The bride's father, who was wealthy, had refused even to speak to them at first, but becoming reconciled through his wife's pleading, went to the humble cottage to take them home with him. He opened the door to enter and to his horror found both Smith and his wife lying dead in the room, their bodies partly decayed. The room was literally alive with snakes, which were crawling over the bodies, showing how the unfortunate couple met their deaths. Neighbors were summoned and the snakes at least either driven away or killed. The bodies were removed and it was found that the house, which Smith had recently built, was erected over a bed of snakes, where the reptiles collected for the winter. It is supposed the snakes attacked the couple while asleep.

BACKACHE and RHEUMATISM relieved by Dr. Miles' Nerve Plasters.

A Business Transfer.

The retail grocery business of Mr. George E. Fisher was today (Tuesday) transferred to Mr. Alfred Litaker, who will continue same. Mr. Fisher will remain in the city, and in a short while will engage in another business.

Narrow Escape of Gin.

This (Tuesday) morning the gin of Mr. W. F. Cannon, of No. 2, so Mr. Davis Brumley tells us, came near burning. About 10 o'clock the press was being run and the loose lint caught fire from a hot pulley. About one hundred pounds of lint was burned. By prompt action, the flames were extinguished.

Not a Truthful One.

In answer to message sent out Monday in regard to the rumor that Tobe Fetzer was killed, Mr. P. B. Fetzer, of this city, received the following from the said dead man's family at Reidsville:

"The rumor about Tobe being in wreck is untrue. There has been no wreck and Tobe and Frank are alright."

The above is gratifying news to Mr. Fetzer's many friends in the city, who were anxious about him.
