Cure for Headache.
As a remedy for all forms of headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It affords a permanent cure and tge most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Fifty cents and $1.00 at Fetzler's drug store.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

The President Sets Apart Thursday, the 28th, for National Rendering of Gratitude to God for His Goodness.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The customary thanksgiving proclamation was issued by the President today as follows:

By the President of the United States:

The constant goodness and forbearance of Almighty God, which have been vouchsafed to the American people during the year which is just past, call for their sincere acknowledgment and devout gratitude.

To the end, therefore, that we may with thankful hearts unite in extolling the loving care of our Heavenly Father, I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart Thursday, the 28th day of the present month of November, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, to be kept and observed by all our people.

On that day let us forego our usual occupations, and in our accustomed places of worship join in rendering thanks to the Giver of every good and perfect gift for the bounteous returns that have rewarded our labors in the fields and in the busy marts of trade, for the peace and order that have prevailed throughout the land, for our protection from pestilence and dire calamity and for other blessings that have been showered upon us from an open hand.

And with our thanksgiving, let us humbly beseech the Lord to so incline the hearts of our people unto Him that He will not leave us nor forsake us as a nation, but will continue to us His merciful protecting care, guiding us in the path of national prosperity and happiness, enduring us with rectitude and virtue and keeping alive within us a patriotic love for the free institutions which have been given to us as our national heritage.

And let us also on the day of our thanksgiving especially remember the poor and needy, and by deeds of charity let us show the sincerity of our gratitude.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this 4th day of November, in the Year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five and in the one hundred and twentieth year of the independence of the United States.

[Signed] GROVER CLEVELAND.

ALL REPUBLICAN

DEMOCRATIC WATERLOO.

GORMAN GOES DOWN IN THE WRECK.

Maryland and New Jersey Get out of the Democratic Line for the First Time in Years—New York State Goes Republican By 80,000. But Tammany Manages to Save a Little Bit from the Wreck—Amos Cummings Elected to Congress—Kentucky is Very Close and Hardin May Have Pulled Through By the Skin of His Teeth—Campbell Didn't Reduce the Republican Vote in Ohio as Was Expected, and Bushnell Carries the State, With an Overwhelming Plurality—The Ohio Legislature Republican—New Jersey Elects a Republican Governor for the First Time in Years—Iowa Republican—Mississippi and Virginia Alone Went Safely Democratic.

New York, Nov. 5.—The Republicans carried New York State by 80,000 plurality; New Jersey by over 15,000; Maryland by 10,000, and claim to have captured Kentucky. Besides swinging these states over into the Republican column, they increased their usual majorities in Massachusetts, Ohio, Iowa, and all the Northern States where elections were held. It was a Democratic Waterloo.

Tammany elected her local ticket by about 30,000 and New York city went Democratic for Secretary of State by 41,000, but the Republicans came down to the Bronx with over 100,000 votes to spare. In the tenth congressional district Amos J Cummings, Democrat, was elected, but his success was plainly due to his personal popularity.

Of the 50 Senators in this State the Democrats elected only 16, and of the 150 Assemblymen only 46.

The Senate elected today will have a part in the selection of a successor to David B Hill, and it is plain that he will not be a Democrat. The Republican gains were general all over the State. In this city and Brooklyn Republican Senators and Assemblymen were elected where Democrats have been returned year after year. In Brooklyn a Democratic mayor pulled through by a narrow plurality.

A Theft Monday Morning.

During the burning of the barn of Mr. Hornbuckle Monday morning Mr. A L Sappenfield, who lives on Spring street, left a door in the rear end of his house standing open when it is thought, a thief entered the pantry and stole therefrom a shoulder of meat. The meat was gone, however, but whether or not it was stolen at that time is not positive.

Some one also visited the home of Mrs. B M Johnson, fifty yards further north on the same street, but were frightened away after effecting an entrance through the back door of the house.

Examinations and Consultations Positively Free.

ATTACHED FOR CONTEMPT.

Mrs. Ellen Early Sent to Jail for Disobeying an Order of the Clerk of the Superior Court.

Statesville Landmark: Contempt of court cases are rare in Iredell—though there have been some close rubs. Therefore, when it became known Sunday that Mrs. Eillen C. Early, a widow of Obambersburg township, had been sent to jail for disobeying an order of Clerk of the Court Furches, the unusual circumstance attracted a good deal of attention. The facts in the case, as furnished the Landmark, are as follows:

Mrs. Early is the widow of R L Early. She has two step children—J A Early and Mrs. Hathcock, who are children of her husband's first wife—and also children of her own. Among the latter was R L Early, Jr., who was an employee of the Western North Carolina Railroad and was killed in an accident on that road a year or more ago. After she son's death Mrs. Early took out letters of administration on his estate for the purpose of collecting $54—wages due the young man by the railroad company. This money she collected and applied to the payment of his debts. Later, without suit being brought, the railroad authorities paid Mrs. Early $2,500 on account of her son's death. This money, Mrs. Early claimed, was paid to her individually as the mother of R L Early and not as administratrix. The step children, J A Early and Mrs. Hathcock, objected to this arrangement and claimed a share of the money. R L Early being their half-brother, they claimed that they were entitled to an equal share with his mother. The mother refused to divide, insisting that the money had been paid to her individually and was no part of R L Early's estate. The stepchildren, through their attorneys, Messrs. Armfield & Turner, pushed the matter and the result was that Clerk of the Court Furches issued an order citing Mrs. Early to appear before him and show cause why she should not increase her bond as administratrix of R L Early or pay the $2,500 into his office. Mrs. Early paid no attention to the order. A second order was issued giving her until last Friday to appear but this met with the same fate as the first. Saturday Sheriff White arrested Mrs. Early and brought her to town. She steadfastly refused to obey the order of the clerk and as a result she was sent to jail for contempt.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Early's attorney, Mr. L C Caldwell, applied to Judge Norwood for a writ of habeas corpus and the matter came up before His Honor at 2:30 yesterday afternoon. After hearing the testimony Judge Norwood remanded Mrs. Early to jail until such a time as she should obey the order of the clerk. She went back to jail, announcing to His Honor as she left the court room that she would die there before she would surrender any of that money.

Thus the matter stands. Mrs. Early is a sister of the late Cam Martin, of near Amity, and is highly respected. There is said to be much feeling in her neighborhood on account of this trouble.

Mr. James Deaton arrived home from Columbia, S. C., this morning, where he has been down sick with chills and fever.
