HIS VICTIM DYING.

Daughter of a Blind Newsman at Harrison Enticed Into a House by an Unknown Man.

Mary Delph, aged eight years, is dying at her father's home, at No. 254 North Second street, Harrison, N. J., as the result of an assault perpetrated Thursday night by a man who is yet unknown, but whom the police hope to locate. The assault was committed in the house at No. 233 John street.

The little girl, whose father is blind and conducts a news stand at Harrison avenue and John street, was accosted on the street by a man who said that he wanted her to carry a note to her father. He asked her to go into the house and wait until the note was written. Not suspecting anything wrong, the child entered.

She was later found crying on the stoop of the house by Francis Sherlock, who occupies the lower floor. He carried her home. The police arrested Sherlock's son Joseph, aged twenty-two. He indignantly denied all knowledge of the affair, and when taken before the girl he could not be identified by her. He was held, however, until his two brothers can be found. It is thought that they may know something about the assault. Dr. Algers, who is attending girl, says her chances of recovery are slight.

[All this occurred in the great moral vineyard.]

A Delight, it Was.

Friday evening from 8 to 12, at the residence of Mr. John A. Cline on Corbin street, a most enjoyable reception was given. It was "4's."

The 4 young ladies, of room No. 4 of Mt. Amena Seminary, with a few other invited ladies received a number of young gentlemen of North Carolina College and Concord.

The home was exquisitely decorated with seasonable flowers and plants. The figure 4 hung suspended from the hall lamp and the same figure was conspicuous in all the decorations.

The table, on which a delicious spread was, was in the form of a 4 and this figure was so marked that one imagined he saw 4 golden fish swimming about in an artistic lake constructed in the centre of the table.

Miss Constance Oline and her three fair room mates of Mont Amena have put a number of young people largely in debt to them for the pleasures of a most delightful evening.

It May Do as Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a Severe Kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called Kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all Kidney and Liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price 50c. and $1 At Fetzer's Drug Store.

Death of Mrs. Dr. G. D. Bernheim.

After years of suffering, there passed unto rest at her home in this city yesterday morning Mrs. Elizabeth Bernheim, wife of the Rev. G. D. Bernheim, D. D., the beloved pastor of St. Matthew's English Lutheran church, of this city.

Mrs. Bernheim was Miss Elizabeth Crow Clayton, and was the daughter of the late Mr. David and Mrs. Elizabeth Hisslap Clayton, who were members of a prominent family of Charleston, S. C. She was born March 7 1831, and was in the 65th year of her age. Hers was a life of the truest type of Christian piety, and in her death it can be truly said that a good woman has gone to her reward. She was a woman of noble character, and superior intelligence and culture, and with quiet resignation during a long period of great suffering she patiently endured all till the summons came. During many years of usefulness she was a devoted and zealous worker in the Sunday school cause, and though suffering the loss of her eyesight about twelve years ago, she has since edited a booklet for the instruction of children in Sunday schools.

The deceased lady has ever been a loving wife and affectionate mother, and in this sad hour of their bereavement Dr. Bernheim and the family have the tender sympathies of a large circle of friends. She leaves five children, in the persons of Mrs. J. T. Hood, of Pineville, N. C.; Mrs. H. D. Burkholder, of Wilmington; Mr. Clayton Bernheim, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. Gus Bernheim, of Orange, N. J., and Mr. Oscar Bernheim, of Allentown, Pa.

The funeral will take place at 4 o'clock this afternoon at St. Matthew's church, and will be conducted by the Rev. K. Boldt. The remains will leave here this evening by the Atlantic Coast Line for Phillipsburg, N. J., where the interment will be made. They will be accompanied by Dr. Bernheim and Mr. H. D. Burkholder.

[The above is from Sunday's Wilmington Messenger. Dr. Bernheim is well known in this section of North Carolina, he having been president of North Carolina College for a time. Mrs. Bernheim had many warm friends in this section who will be sad upon hearing of her death.]

For Over Fifty Years.

PRINCE IS NO MORE.

Horse Broke His Neck—Had to Grease His Knife to Cut a Porker—Arithmetic School—Other News from Forest Hill.

The handsome black horse of Mr. W. R. Odell's, known as Prince, was found dead in his stall Sunday morning he having during the night got fastened, and in trying to free himself broke his neck. The above named horse, driven by Snow Ball, did the draying between Forest Hill and Buffalo Mills. Snow Ball shed tears thick and fast over the remains of his deceased companion.

Rev. J. Simpson preached in the Forest Hill M. E. Church Sunday morning, Rev. M. A. Smith being at conference. There was no service at night.

Capt. J. M. Odell, presided at Sunday school Sunday morning, W. R. Odell being absent from the city, having gone to conference. The school had nine additions, with one dropped from the roll. Nine to one you see.

There are lots of fine porkers being butchered up this way, and there is a story going the rounds that one of our prominent butchers killed a hog and when he went to saw it up, he had to get a bacon skin and grease his saw. No witnesses present, however.

The Messrs Odells have very kindly tendered the Emery house on Church street to the arithmetic class three nights in the week, which is being taught by Mr. T. R. Penninger. Many of our boys are taking advantage of the school.

We are desirous to hear from conference, but guess it is not telling out secrets yet.

There is a great joy in camp. Mr. T. R. Penninger has found his lost swine which disappeared some time ago.
