Engineer Link Reaches Home.

Engineer George Link, who was in the freight wreck near Spartanburg, Thursday morning, reached his home in this city last night. His injuries were slight and were confined to his job, and one of his legs. The blame, however, does not rest entirely upon him. There was a great deal of trouble with his train and they lost time by its breaking loose, and then he had four cars in front of his engine. He and the conductor thought they could make the station ahead and took the risk, hence the collision. Mr. Link has been regarded as one of the best and most careful engineers in the employ of the Southern.—Charlotte News.

Smuggling in Balloon Sleeves.

Mrs. Margaret Morrison, a prepossessing young widow, whose father is a prosperous farmer living near Port Angeles, was arrested recently by the customs officials and charged with smuggling opium into this country. Opium valued at $100 was found concealed about her wearing apparel. She was accompanied by her twelve year old daughter, on whose person four pounds of opium were discovered. While coming across from Victoria the inspector imagined her figure was unusual plump, and upon inspection five tins of the drug were found ingeniously secreted in her balloon sleeves. At the custom house she fainted and went into hysterics, and requested that her daughter be sent outside into the open air. Hardly had her child reached the sidewalk when she began running and crying, throwing dozens of cans of opium into vacant lots. Later Mrs. Morrison, in consideration of similar charges not being presented against her daughter, pleaded guilty. The officers claim the woman has been regularly engaged for several months in smuggling opium for a Chinese firm.—Morning Oregonian.

Original Observations.

The road to economy is a prudent buy-way.

What a drunken man sees may be described as a circular saw.

Students who attend the school of experience have no foot-ball team.

The sweet buy and buy will soon be here, the costliest time of all the year.

We have a strong suspicion that our best girl will make us a Christmas present this year by giving us "the mitten."

Though the days be dark and dreary keep-a-smilin', do not fret, for the blackest clouds will roll away and you will be happy yet.

The world is full of microbes. The tramp is a parasite who eats the bread of honest toil; the bore is a parasite who devours the time of the busy man; the gossip is a parasite that destroys the happiness in many a home with words of sugar coated venom; the hypocrite is a parasite that entraps the unwary with falsehood while wearing a mask of fairness.—Orange (Va.) Observer.

HARD TO DOWN.

Voted the Democratic Ticket 62 Years and Preached 55 Years.

Rev. Nathan Albarty, a Primitive Baptist preacher who lives five miles south of Cobson, was recently stricken with paralysis, but is now improving. Mr. Albarty is 83 years old. He has preached the gospel for 55 years, and has voted the Democratic ticket at every election since he was 21. He says he has seen the flag of Democracy trail in the dust many times; but at the next recurring election it would "kick the lid off its coffin," come up smiling and score a signal victory. He has seen the Democratic party meet and vanquish many foes; and he believes that today the principles of the people as they ever were. He no doubt believes with Sam Jones that Adam was a Democrat, and that when Gabriel blows his horn there will be Democrats on the earth to respond to the summons. The principles of Democracy are immortal.—Mt. Airy News.

Election of Officers.

At the meeting of the Knights of Pythias Friday night, the following officers were elected:

H. M. Barrow, O. C.; J. O. Fink, V. C.; J. E. Hamilton, P.; M. B. Hartsell, K. of R. and S.; A. D. Freeze, M. of W.; J. F. Hurley, M. of F.; C. A. Pamplin, M. of E.; J. P. Query, M. of A. Four of these officers are elected every six months, the others annually.

Did You Hear the Whistle?

At an early hour this (Saturday) morning, people on North Spring street were called from their breakfast tables by the "tooting" of the dynamo whistle, which was signal for the firemen to show up at the home of Mr. J. L. Hartsell, whose chimney was on fire, out of which was streaming a vast flame, presenting an exciting and nervous scene. The fire was quenched in time to save the roof from catching. Mr. Loman, while pulling the whistle cord, fell and was hurt, not seriously, however.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gundersen, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Fetzer's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.

THE VIOLET'S VOYAGE

She is Bringing the President to Where the Ducks are Plentiful.

NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 6.—President Cleveland, accompanied by Secretary of War Daniel S. Lamont, Commander Wilder and Dr. Bryant, arrived here on the lighthouse tender Maple this morning at 8:45 o'clock and at the bony yard were transferred to the Violet, which started at once for the ducking grounds of North Carolina, arriving off Currituck light late this afternoon, where the Violet will remain over night, proceeding to-morrow morning to Hatteras, where, according to reports received to night, thousands of ducks are waiting to be slaughtered. At Cape Channel, near Hatteras, "blinds" have been provided for four people, and in one of these blinds the President will secret himself early Monday morning and wait for the game.

The presidential party will not reach Hatteras before to-morrow night, and Sunday will be devoted to rest and preparing for Monday's shoot.

The Maple last night anchored in Chesapeake Bay for a while, as all traveling will be done by daylight.

The Bishop After Them.

That the evangelist craze is being viewed seriously and the evils of it becoming known more and more day after day, we may expect all our people to soon return to the good, old, licensed minister, who besides being amenable to some ecclesiastic body, a seum, a thief and a gambler a number of years before he becomes fitted for the high office of preaching the gospel. It is said that Bishop Duncan spoke, at Reidsville, in no uncertain tones. This comes out from Raleigh:

It appears, according to people who were at the Methodist Conference at Reidsville last Sunday, that Bishop Duncan rather rubbed it on evangelists, especially Jones and Fife. No names were mentioned, but the allusions were extremely pointed. A large number of the church people appear to bear no love for the evangelists.
