FORTY KILLED.

AN EXPLOSION IN THE COAL MINES AT EGYPT.

A report, considered authentic reaches us this p. m., that there was an explosion in the coal mines at Egypt this morning, whereby forty men were killed.

Egypt is not a telegraph station and further particulars cannot be learned. It is on the C. F. & Y. V. Railway, not far from Ore Hill.

LATER.

The following was sent us by conductor W C Dodson, of the C. F. & Y. V., who passed here this p. m. on his run:

"This a. m. between 8 and 9 o'clock, the coal mine at Cumnock (formerly Egypt) blew up. Sixty miners went down to work early this morning and only nineteen were taken out after the explosion. The mine is five or six hundred feet deep. There was a large quantity of dynamite in the mine. Cannot learn the cause of disaster, probably fire-damp. A large force of men are at the shaft, trying to rescue the entombed miners.

There is little hope of taking out any of the men alive. Those who succeeded in escaping are badly burned, some fatally.

STILL LATER.

Capt Campbell passed Cumnock at 1 o'clock today and says the exact number killed was thirty-three.—Greensboro Record.

FOR GOOD LESSONS.

A contest has been going on at Mrs. S V Erwin's school for some time, in spelling lessons, a prize having been offered to the children for the one making the record. The prize is a handsome book and fell to the lot of Master Howard Pitts.

TREAT FOR THE CHILDREN.

St Andrews' Lutheran church will celebrate Christmas by giving the little folks of that Sunday school a treat on Christmas eve-night. A special programme has been arranged for recitations, songs, etc. A real nice time is in store for them.

HE WAS POUNDED.

Shortly after nightfall Friday evening the members of the Baptist congregation gathered at their church on Spring street, heavily laden with various necessities and substantials of life, preparatory to going to the pastor's home on Bell Avenue, whither they went to pound him about 8 o'clock. It was a pleasant surprise to Rev. Alderman.

THURSDAY'S WEDDING.

At 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the home of the bride on West Depot street, Mr. Will A. Fink, of No. 5 township, was married to Miss Annie Pless. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B F Davis, of the Reformed church, assisted by Rev. A H McCullough, of St. Andrews Lutheran church. An elegant dinner was served the bride and groom and the attendants.

CURE FOR HEADACHE.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence.

We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Fifty cents and $1.00 at Fetzer's Drug Store.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

French papers are jubilant over England's dilemma.

The Louisiana State Democratic convention is meeting in Shreveport.

The National Christian Conference met in the Moody tabernacle at Atlanta on December 18th.

Four of the injured men on the St Paul at New York died at different times during the day and night, on the 18th, and deaths now number nine.

The Atlanta committee in charge of arrangements for colored people's day at the fair, December 26th, request colored ministers to preach on the importance of the colored exhibit on Sunday, December 22nd, and urge the race to attend.

The Georgia State Populist convention met in Atlanta on December 18th to elect delegates to the national convention. The reason it met before the national convention was called was because of the cheap rates to Atlanta. The usual Populistic platform was adopted, Coxey was not allowed to address the body. The convention favored upholding the Monroe doctrine.

ALBEMARLE TO HAVE ANOTHER LAWYER.

Esq. J R Price, of Union county, was over yesterday and bought out Mr. T J Jerome. Mr. Price is a young man and comes highly recommended. Mr. Jerome is expecting to go to either Atlanta, Ga., or Monroe, this state.—Stanly Enterprise.

A SENSIBLE PREACHER.

Dr. Preston said last Sunday night, in the course of his sermon, that he was surprised that as progressive a city as Charlotte had no system of organized charity. He held up Wilmington as an example. This city, he said, was trampidden; he wondered why all the tramps in the country did not flock here to go into winter quarters; he believed that unless a man (able-bodied) worked, neither should he eat. The church should take care of God's poor, but not a set of idle, trifling men.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

Mr. Eli Miller, an aged farmer lives on second creek near Gold Hill, was found dead in his bed yesterday morning by a member of his family.

The old gentleman had lived out his three score years and ten and more. The cause of his death is not known but it is supposed that it was caused by heart failure.

He was a widower and lived with his only daughter, Mrs George Fisher.—Thursday's Salisbury World.

AN EXCHANGE OF COURTS.

Governor Carr has authorized an exchange of Superior courts, by which Judge Robinson holds the spring term, 1896, of Franklin county court, vice Judge Boykin; while Judge Boykin holds the spring term of Washington county court, vice Judge Robinson.

Get a Head on Him Like a Tack.

I see the Caucasian has attacked the Charlotte Observer regarding its comments on the worthy J. P. in this county who bought a blue-back speller, the account of which first occurred in your Old Furnace correspondence. I wonder if the Caucasian has a better book to offer? If so I would like to see him trot 'er out. I wonder if he didn't learn in a Blue-back what a B-A-was, and get from it also the schooling that might be better utilized than in writing free silver editorials? They may all say what they please about "Old Webster," but they all have to look between its lids for their "accents" and "pronunciations."

Free silver has a black eye in this neck of the woods just at this time, as the boys have all gone a duck hunting, Christmas is on our hands, wedding bells are ringing in the air, and "Two souls with but a single thought, Two hearts that beat as one"—soon will be.—Correspondent in Gastonia Gazette.

WEDS A NORTH CAROLINIAN.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Dec. 19.—Miss Carrie Warwick Daniel, daughter of Senator John W Daniel, was married at noon to-day to Mr. Frederick Harper, of Wilmington, N. C. The marriage took place at Westerly, the country house of the bride's parents, in the suburbs of this city. Rev. T M Carson, rector of St. Paul's church, officiated. The parlors, hall and stairway were beautifully decorated with evergreens, palms, roses and smilax. Much of the work was done by the fair hands of the bride.

AN EXCHANGE OF COURTS.

Judge Thurman's WILL.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 19.—The probated will today of the late Senator Thurman shows he was worth from $160,000 to $170,000. After providing for the distribution of certain personal effects, the will, which it drawn October 29, 1879, directs that the real estate in Columbus, be equally divided between his three children; all other real estate equally between his two daughters.
