SNEAKS IN DARKNESS.

Ed. Wayne Enters the Bed Room of Two Young Girls While Under the Influence of Liquor With Hellish Intent in His Heart—Frightened and Escaped—Warrant Issued for Wayne—Henry McCane in Jail for a Similar Offense and Will Wait Six Months for Trial.

While old Luna crept slowly over the eastern horizon and cast its pale beams over this broad land of ours Sunday night, Ed Wayne, a native South Carolinian, once an operative in the Cannon cotton factory at this place, stole quietly into the bed room of Misses Lula and Maggie Ritchie, 12 and 15 year old daughters of Mr. John A. Ritchie, who lives in New Town at Cannonville, with hellish intent in his heart. Wayne was drunk and gained entrance through a window. When reaching the bed on which lay the slumbering misses, they were awakened instantly, and at once gave alarm, running into the room occupied by their parents. At this juncture Wayne escaped through an end window, leaving his hat behind, which was picked up and placed in a bureau drawer. The young ladies were greatly frightened and the parents enraged. Mr. Ritchie endeavored to get a warrant for Wayne at 3 o'clock this morning, but could not find a magistrate, and while up town attending to the matter at an early hour after daylight, Wayne re-entered the house and ransacked the bureau until his hat was recovered, when he took to the woods. Mrs. Ritchie was getting breakfast at this time and was unaware of Wayne's presence. A warrant was obtained but Wayne was on his way to other parts, going towards Davidson College, where he was once employed. Wayne is a heavy-set man with dark moustache and hair clipped short. He is a weaver by trade. Mr. Ritchie is justly indignant at the conduct of Wayne and will prosecute him to the fullest extent of the law, when caught.

Henry McCane, an ex-convict and well known to the criminal courts of Cabarrus, was lodged in jail Sunday night, charged with having entered the home of a white man living in No. 1 township, where McCane attempted a nameless crime on the person of Bettie Herron, a daughter of Daniel Herron. His hellish purpose was not accomplished, however. He was captured and brought to town and will answer for the charge for which he is held at the January term of Cabarrus Superior Court.

It will be remembered that Lacy Campbell, a negro of the Harrisburg section, was tried and acquitted at this term of court for insulting the Herron woman on the public highway, and it is thought that by Campbell being acquitted, McCane would go a little further.

Of Great Importance.
The most important thought with young men now, except marriage, in this hot weather, is where can I send my shirts, collars and cuffs to have them laundered in first class style. See Tom Johnston, agent, for Model Steam Laundry, Charlotte.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Some of the Cases Disposed Of During the Term.

In case of Rhoda Culp, as noted in Saturday's issue of STANDARD, the court changed punishment from three month's confinement in jail to a fine of twenty dollars and cost.

Monday morning session, court regularly called, minutes read and jurors qualified.

Case of Henry Archer under charge of attempt at rape was continued, from absence by sickness of Kate McLaughlin, an essential witness for the defense. The bond by Archer was increased from $200 to $400.

Ben Graham, plaintiff vs. Melissa Smith for divorce, the said Melissa having left him and married Tom Smith. Melissa was proven an adulteress and prayer for divorce granted.

The case of Archer having been postponed, nothing available was before the court and it took recess at 11.10 until 2 o'clock.

Wm. Whitney vs. North Carolina Railroad Company, for injuries received in getting off a moving train at Concord depot, Defendant moved a dismissal of claim so ruled by the court, and an appeal was taken by plaintiff.

A Gold Bug Burglar.

EDITOR STANDARD: Recognizing in you one of the noble half-dozen or so of sound money editor in North Carolina who boldly and fearlessly fought for what they honestly believed to be right, I send you the following:
The burglar beat upon his breast,
And madly tore his hair;
For when he broke into the bank
He found "free silver" there.
Yours truly,
J. C. STEPHENSON.

IN getting up a wedding trousseau, think how many women are tired out: Dress-makers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," milliners—all hard-worked and weary over it; to say nothing of the young lady herself. Sitting or standing all day is the hardest kind of work; it gives you no healthy well-balanced exercise; part of the body is overworked and the rest of it is under-worked. The system grows sluggish; the appetite is poor, the stomach is out of order; the bowels are constipated, you have headaches and dizzy spells. It's impossible for you to take as much out-of-door exercise in the daylight as you need. The best help you can have in the circumstances is a simple laxative medicine like Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They will, as nearly as any medicine can, supply the want of free exercise which is lacking in all in-door work. They cure dyspepsia, biliousness and constipation in a pleasant, gradual, natural way. There is no griping or weakening effect with the "Pleasant Pellets"; they act surely but gently; they promote liver-action, and give tone and strength to the stomach and intestines to do their own work. When you become regular the "Pellets" can be stopped. You don't have to take them forever. The cure is permanent.
Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are small sugar-coated granules; agreeable to take. Children like them. If the druggist wants to sell you some other pills that pay him better, just think of what pays you. You will receive a sample package free if you will send your name and address to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.
The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, By R. V. Pierce, M. D., Chief Consulting Physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, a book of 1008 large pages, over 300 illustrations, some of them in colors, bound in strong paper covers will be sent to any one sending 21 cents in one cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only. Over 650,000 copies of this complete family Doctor Book already sold in cloth binding at regular price of $1.50.
