OONCORD, AUGUST 4, 1896.
THE HAXGIVE TO BE PRIVATE.
We are glad to know that our County Commissioners have decided that it is best to hang Frank How ard privately. We coinelde with them fully while we sympathize with many. especially of our boys and young men who feel impelled by cariosity to sce such a tragic taking-off of one of the world's monsters of wickedness.

If the crowd on a public hanging day could be controlled so that the swful scene of God's vengennce by the hand' of man in his regular and approved methods could be imo pressed with apch solemnity as the occasion deserves then, we would insiat that it be public, that our dear boys might receive from it lescons of warning against crime.
Bat let it be remembered that such scenes eithar softomior hard the human heart. We fally eoneur $\mid$ b'e papograph from the Charlotte with a number of wise and anxions Observer: fathers who believe the wfllence of "\#hy not beleve he is sincere, a great gathering on hanging day and that he falls in hive with hie would be dangerons to their cons party, even to the eating of crow, berather than salutary. The lessons cause he helieves this is right and from dying soenes, when they are not becanse be expects to gain poltclearly by the hand of the Umnipo- ical ends and further his own seltent, often take shallow hold on fish interests thereby? it is exthose who witness them, and it is a tremely difficult fer a Southern fact that when inflicted by man, Democrat to know where to go when though rare as they are, are not he is once ontside the Democratic regarded with seriousness.
A grest crowd gathers to see something unusual, The more considerate might attach much solemnity to $i t$, bat there are always enongh indecorons, obstreperons and brazen characters to make light of the occasion and sponl the solemnity and make it a day of oisteronsness rather than a day of solemn warning. The solemnity being destroyed, the youth of the land return home hardened, pot reatrained, with the mind only ca pacitatel for tragedy
We wish to assure the boys who will regret-most that they are to be deprived of aeeing so unuanal and so amelnspiring a soeve, that noth ing bat the superior wisdom of fathers and mothers leads them to wish that the execution of Frank Howard be done withont calling an immense crowd together that would make light of a solemn occasion It will be yastly more profitable to yon, dear boys, to think how ricely we can live in peace and good will in the world, each being kind and helpful to others instrad of neing our powers, that God gave us to do good with, in destroyiag the property and happiness and even the liyte of those whom God has placed in the world to be a belp and a benelit to us and a sourve of glory to our Creator.
Frank Howard wonld net live as God wiehed him to and went on doing evil till, in the language of Jadge Greene he was not fit to live among civilized boman beinge and according to the lawe, based on what we believe is the will of God, should be removed from this world where God intends his will to be done.
But let us only follow Frank Howard to the end of his ignoble life and turn his spirit over to Him who gave it to be dealt with in eternity as His own wisdom, justice and goodness decrees, with जो wieh of more or lees than is the will of Him who sees and knows what we are and shall be. Let Frank Howard be taken off quietly as a duty to God and man, unattended with levity, curiosity or boisteronsness and let us ever remember that there is a better way for us. "The way of the transgressor is hasd."

DUA'T BE SO SUSPICIOUS

There would be a possibility to keep our political forces in line for the greatest amount of good to all instead of mere distraction and constant defeat of eyery patriotic effort, by a disposition to suspect the sin cerity and impugn the motives of every man that would be soothing and genial in his course.
There are those now prating abont Hoke Smith's "eating crow" because he chooses to submit after a gallant and honorable fight against free coinage, and being unacquainted with other than selfish and scheming motives can see in him nothing other than the same ignoble aspiraark. Chipley, of Flonda, has remained with his party though the platform is obnoxions to him. Gordon, of Georgis, does the same thing, and likewise thoussands of Southern Democrats who have no selfiah ends to gain thereby. It is not necessary belieye that Mr. Smith is working any political schemes becanse he omes out openly for the ticket."
The Detroit Free Press aays: A novel sight on the streets of Hudson is that of a thirteen-year-old boy withont feet riding a bicyele. The boy's name is Carl Barger, and he lost his feet when an infant by coming in contact with a mower. He propels the wheel by means of cups on the pedals into which he puts his wooden stamps, and gets around as easily and enjoys the sport as much as any one who loes not labor under such disadvan tages.

Do You Use It?

It's the best thing for the hair under all circumstances. Just as no man by taking thought can add an inch to his stature, so no preparation can make hair. The utmost that can be done is to pro mote conditions favorable to growth. This is done by Ayer's Hair Vigor. It re moves dandruff, cleanses the scalp, nourishes the soil in which the hair grows, and, ust as a desert will blossom, under rain, so bald heads grow hair, when the roots are nourished. But the roots must be there. If you wish your hair to retain its normal color, or if you wish to restore the lost tint of gray or faded hair use Ayer's Hair Vigor.
