GO TO THE PRIMARIES.

THE WEEKLY STANDARD will probably reach many of its readers but once more before the day appointed for the primaries.

Assuming nothing more than a position by which we may keep before our people a clear and intelligent view of our political situation and the privileges and the duties of citizenship, we appeal to the highest sense of worthy freemen in behalf of good government. "Eternal vigilance is the price of freedom." If good men assume a position of indifference, the opportunity is only widened for the unworthy to assume control of a government they have not the virtue to adorn.

It is a mistaken notion that a common voter knows best of all his own wants and is able to impart full instructions to Representatives.

Beginning at the very foundation of popular government, the primaries, the wisest and best material should be selected to meet in the county convention where, in their wisdom and the exercise of the highest motives, they should select such men as are both suitable for the offices and whose names carry with them the respect of the people, to the end that our ranks shall become more and more united instead of worse and worse distracted.

Let it be remembered that the Democratic party owes no man an office. Nor should section or connection or any other form of favoritism have any bearing in the nominations made. We believe some sad blunders have been made by the Democratic party. She has atoned dearly for them and will still do so, but she has not fallen below the needs of the best talents to redeem her, nor has she fallen so low by any mistake as to forfeit her claim of being yet the best exponent of a free and independent government, of "equal rights to all and special privileges to none."

We believe Democratic and Popular fusion, so distasteful to many of our dignified voters, is now at an end. We may expect the fusion of our opponents and we would just as well nerve ourselves for the contest, but let us enter it boldly and gallantly, proud of the cause we represent and united for ultimate victory, working and waiting and we will yet see our ranks filled with the misguided who have so unwisely turned from us to aid all who oppose us.

We are proud to feel that our cause is worthy of success. We would be far less proud of Democracy if we did not feel that she could bear defeat with gracefulness and be strong for the next contest.
Let the primaries be well attended, let deliberation and wisdom prevail, let the very best men represent us in the county convention, let the nominations each add strength to the ticket; then let us with zeal without bitterness, with truth without provocation, press on to the 3rd of November strong for triumph or dignified for defeat, and above all let us be true and loyal to those to whom we delegate our interests, without jealousy or suspiciousness, letting criticism come from necessity and not from our weak and envenomed caprice.

anteed to be perfectly vegetable.
They do not weaken by their action

A Suggestion.

MR. EDITOR: As the time is approaching for the township primaries and feeling a profound interest in the success of the Democratic ticket, I offer a suggestion in the way of a ticket:

For the Senate, C. D. Barringer; House, M. F. Nesbitt; Sheriff, Martin Widenhouse; Register, Reese Johnson; Treasurer, Caleb Swink; Cotton weigher H. C. Cook or G. F. Barn-hardt; County Commissioners, E. A. King, L. S. Harris, L. J. Foil.

This is a competent and available ticket, coming from all parts of the county, not a man who has ever held office, not a man against whom ought can be said. The country and town are both represented. No ring or clique in it.

I am not wedded to this ticket, but throw it out as a suggestion to the voters of the Democratic party.
Not one of these men has been consulted or knows of this communication. VOTER.

Fifty Years Ago.

This is the cradle in which there grew That thought of a philanthropic brain; A remedy that would make life new For the multitudes that were racked with pain.
'Twas sarsaparilla, as made, you know By Ayer, some 50 years ago.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla was in its infancy half a century ago. To-day it doth "be-stride the narrow world like a colossus." What is the secret of its power? Its cures! The number of them! The wonder of them! Imitators have followed it from the beginning of its success. They are still behind it. Wearing the only medal granted to sarsaparilla in the World's Fair of 1893, it points proudly to its record.

Others imitate the remedy; they can't imitate the record:
