CONCORD, N. C., MONDAY, AUGUST 31, 1896.

WHOLE NO. 1,491

MT. PLEASANT NEWS.

Church Dedicated With Appropriate Exercises—A Drama on Foot—Rev. Giles Conducting a Revival—Other Items.

Grace, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Heintz, is afflicted with typhoid fever.

Esquire Lawson Peck, of No. 7 township, spent last Sunday in town.

Work is progressing rapidly on the building of the Kindley cotton factory.

Rev. Junius Fox, of Newberry, S. C. and Miss Lena Stephens, of Post's Mills, attended the dedication services at the Reformed church Sunday.

It is rumored that Mr. W. S. Long will move his family here in a short while. We will welcome Mr. Long and his excellent family to our town.

A large crowd was in attendance at the dedication services held at the Reformed Church in this place Sunday. The services were opened with prayer by the pastor, Rev. Paul Barringer, after which the dedication services proper were rendered. The church was titled St. James Reformed church. Rev. J. C. McLeonard, of Lexington, one who has gained a wide reputation as a most powerful divine, preached an inspiring and soul-stirring sermon, after which the Lord's Supper was administered. The services were interspersed with excellent music, consisting of appropriate selections. The services were largely attended.

Rev. P. H. E. Derrick, who was elected one of the trustees of North Carolina College, has moved his family to our town and is occupying the house formerly occupied by Mr. J. M. Hendrix.

Miss Estelle Randle, of Salisbury, spent last week with the Misses Misenheimer.

A revival meeting is in progress at the Methodist church, being conducted by the pastor, Rev. M. D. Giles. It started Sunday night.

A drama will be played at an early date by our young folks, entitled "Little Ruby," the proceeds for the benefit of the Mt. Pleasant Cornet band. This drama will be produced by twelve characters, six males and six females, and is said to be very interesting.

Messrs Will Dayvault and Edgar Hendrix spent Sunday with us.

Miss Clara Ogler left this (Monday) morning for Rural Retreat, Va., where she will spend some time visiting friends.

KLUTTZ HERE SATURDAY

He Will Address the County convention and the Public in the Court House—Will Be Greeted by a Large Audience.

Spread the news throughout the county!

Theodore F Kluttz, of Salisbury, the Democratic elector for this, the Seventh Congressional district, will be in Concord and deliver an address to the citizens of Cabarrus on Saturday, September 5. The speaking will take place immediately after the Democratic county convention is held and an invitation is extended to everybody to be present. Every voter in Cabarrus should hear him.

The Ideal Panacea.

James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago says: I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physicians's prescriptions or other preparations.

Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: I have been a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church for 50 years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery. Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial Bottles free at Fezzer's Drug Store.

Gone to Buy Machinery.

The time is drawing nigh when the buzz of the spindle will be heard at Mt. Pleasant and then Concord will be surrounded by cotton manufactories. Mr. A W Mcose, Mr. W R Kindley and Rev. Paul Barringer have gone to Charlotte to purchase an equipment for the mill now in course of erection. Mr. R A Brown, the hustling contractor, will have the mill ready to receive the machinery within a few weeks.

Offers Sixteen to One.

A certain man who would like to become cotton weigher for Cabarrus, made the following announcement:

"Fellow citizens: I announce myself for that high and honorable position of cotton weigher. I am not subject to the convention but to the voters of Cabarrus county. There are a great many aspiring to that exalted position subject to the convention, but you all go to the polls and vote for me and I will make your cotton weigh sixteen to one, and you shall have bary pound more. If elected I will take coon skins, rabbit hides and heifers as part pay for weighing your cotton. I will stand on the new platform, and will endeavor to cover every plank."

Help Wanted—Female.
