PROSPECTS BRIGHTEN.

Another Railroad for Concord and Cabarrus Can Be Had if Our People Will Pull Together—An Enterprise That Should Interest Everybody.

As we have heretofore stated in our paper, the prospects for another railroad to our town seem to brighten, and while we are not at liberty to publish all the facts just at this time, still we feel very much encouraged with the new prospect, provided the citizens along the line will give the matter such encouragement as it deserves. It will be noticed from our advertising columns that there has been a meeting of the stockholders of the Concord Southern Railroad Company called for the 29th, when it is expected that matters will take a more definite shape, and that we can then give more facts to the public.

The parties who are leading in this movement, and who have been here several times, seem to be thoroughly in earnest, and it therefore stands all parties in hand, who are in favor of the movement along the line, to put their shoulders to the wheel, and encourage the enterprise all that is in their power. Should this road be built, it would not be only of great service to our town, but would be the means of distributing money all along the line from Aberdeen to Concord, as the management assures us that it is their intention and wish to give preference along the line not only to local labor, but also to local material.

We will endeavor to keep the public fully advised as progress is made.

For Over Fifty Years

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Under False Pretense.

Last week a young man giving his name as S P Fink called at the shoe shop of Mr. J O Honeycutt, on West Depot street, and gave an order for a pair of shoes. When he had obtained the shoes, he gave Mr. Honeycutt an order on Superintendent Wilson, of the Cabarrus mill, for $2, claiming that he was a mill operative. Mr. Honeycutt presented the order to Mr. Wilson, who refused to pay it, because Fink was an unknown person to him. Saturday Fink was caught by an officer and in some way effected a compromise. The matter is not yet finally settled.

REAPER DEATH AMONG US.

He Gathers His Sheaves from the Flowers of Manhood and Womanhood.

The funeral obsequies of Martin B Blume were held in the Lutheran church Sunday, Rev. Chas. B Miller officiating. The discourse was appropriate and full of consolation. The number and the attitude of the assembly bore testimony to the high esteem in which the deceased was held and the deep sympathy felt for the bereaved. Mr. Blume was an exemplary young man and gave promise of great good in leading a life of quiet purity and model loveliness, but was called away from loving ones in comparative youth, being 22 years, 10 months and 23 days old. He had chosen for a life companion Miss Ella Honeycutt, with whom he had lived in domestic bliss less than two years, and leaves her and his infant child together with other most endearing ties.

His remains were laid to rest in the city cemetery. As has already been noted, Mr. Blume was visiting his grandfather, Esq. M A Ludwig, when he took typhoid fever and never again saw his home.

Miss Carrie L Walter, much against her own inclination, dropped her efficient labors a week ago and took her bed. For some days no thought of danger was apprehended, but symptoms late in the week told of approaching dissolution and she passed into the eternal sphere Saturday night at 12:30 o'clock. She was a member of the German Reformed church at Mt. Gilead and her mortal remains were taken there for interment. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. H A McCullough.

Miss Carrie was intent on rendering the greatest service to her parents and the family and was a lover of church, and especially devoted to Sunday school work. So much did her mind dwell on things sacred that it was a source of Christian joy to hear her sing praises to our Saviour and rejoice in his presence, to her so vivid and so comforting.

Miss Carrie was just entering into the stage of womanly maturity, and the cutting off of a life so Christ-like seems a strange providence. She was 21 years, 3 months and 15 days of age, full of hope, sprightliness and good cheer. She will be greatly missed, but her virtues in life and her triumphs in death will be a source of comfort long after the poignancy of grief is forgotten. The weeping bereaved who must enter the week's duties with a new burden and constant sense of life separation from their loved ones on Sunday have our deepest sympathy.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Diamondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results. Trial bottles free at Fetzer's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

A Busy Day.

The board of county commissioners had a busy day of it in paying up the county's debts. All the road overseers and supervisors were in with their bills.

TOURNAMENT AT SAUNDERS.

Gallant Knights Crowned the Lovely Maids—Miss Carrie Emerson, Queen of Love and Beauty, Misses Johnson, Maids of Honor.

A very interesting feature of the season in No. 3 township, was a tournament given at Saunders, Wednesday, September 2.

A large crowd was present to witness the sport. At 4 p. m. the knights entered the contest and did some very good riding, considering the practice they had. Following is the list of riders, their non-deplumes and the number of rings taken by each: J L Johnson, knight of "If I Can," 8; W B Morrison, "White Cap," 8; Baxter Johnson, "Tulin," 7; J S Archer, "Coddle," 7; N J Archer, "Cabarrus," 5; Will Stenhouse, "Can't Make it," 2. The ties were ridden off and the successful knights crowned the following young ladies: Mr. W B Morrison, Miss Carrie Emerson, "Queen of Love and Beauty;" Mr. J L Johnson, Miss Annie Johnson, first maid of honor; Mr. Baxter Johnson, Miss Edna Johnson, second maid of honor.

C., on Tuesday, 29th of September, 1896, at 11 o'clock a. m., when and where all parties interested are requested to be present. J W CANNON, ELAM KING, JNO P ALLISON, D R HOOVER, W M SMITH, Directors of Concord Southern Railway.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alternative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yields to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Fetzer's Drug Store.

Dr. Miles' Pain Expeller is guaranteed to stop Headache in 20 minutes. "One out a dose"
