Of Interest to Bicycle Riders.

There can be no question that one of the most important parts of a bicycle is the tire. It has to bear the brunt of the work, is constantly coming in contact with destroying elements, and generally receives the least care from the rider. The importance of the work it has to do was early recognized by makers of bicycles, however, and they have given much attention to this important adjunct of the wheel.

There are today, perhaps, thirty different styles of bicycle tires on the market, all of which vary in detail. As to their various merits, theories are of little value; actual experience is the only way to determine this question. Unless an article gives satisfaction, demand for it soon ceases. After a test of over six years, during which time double-tube and single-tube tires have been marketed, at least three fourths of all the riders in this country today demand and ride double-tube tires.

The leading firm in the United States, and in fact in the entire world, in the manufacture of double-tube tires, is Morgan & Wright, Chicago. Their history is interesting. The first pneumatic tire—the rage-and-glue kind—was giving trouble, and Morgan & Wright stepped in to fill a great public want. They furnished a tire that could be easily taken from the rim to be repaired. That was the principal requirement in those days, besides the usual requirements of speed, durability and comfort.

That was several years ago. Single-tube tires had been pushed in Europe, and were failing, and the same effort was being started in this country. The Morgan & Wright double-tube tire quickly proved its superiority—with the result stated above. The quick-repair inner tube, which is this year a standard feature of all of this firm's tires, has made the position of double-tube tires practically invincible, by making it quick and easy for the riders to secure, at the roadside, a permanent repair, a thing admittedly impossible in the majority of single-tube accidents.

Forest Hill News.

Mr. and Mrs. John V Stone, of Charlotte, who were visiting at Mr. W A Stone's, on St. Charles street, and other relatives in the city, left for Richmond county today.

Mr. Columbus Little, of Charlotte, is visiting his father, Mr. Jacob Little, on Third street.

Mrs. M L Moore returned from Gastonia Saturday night, after an absence of several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. A Propst gave a birthday party to a number of invited friends Saturday evening from 8 to 11 o'clock at their home on Third street in honor of two of their daughters, Misses Ida and Millie Music was had and refreshments were served. A good time generally was had. The dining room was tastefully decorated.

We clip the following from the Gastonia Gazette: "Last Friday night at the close of the Mt. Holly tournament, Miss Myrtle Moore, of Concord, was crowned first maid of honor by one of the successful knights."

Mr. Benjamin Rabon came in from Charlotte Saturday night.

Messrs. T H Cook and son Herbert spent yesterday evening in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. W F Johnson, who were married in Salisbury last Thursday, returned to the city last Saturday.

Mrs. T H Cook and little daughter, Miss Carrie, returned from Salisbury Saturday, accompanied by Miss Ethel Ward, Mrs. Cook's niece.

Mr. Wm. Sanders, of Charlotte, is visiting at Mr. W A Woods' on North Main street.

A man whom the circumstances of traveling caused to sit in the same seat with a young lady who was unusually friendly for a stranger, said, as he was leaving the car: "I thank you for a very pleasant chat, but I am afraid you would not have been so kind to me had you known I am a married man." "You haven't any advantage of me," promptly responded the young lady; "I am an escaped lunatic." And so it turned out she really was.

Nowadays when women are trying to do everything it is not strange that many things are overdone. It is not strange that there are all kinds of physical and mental disturbances. If the woman who is a doctor, or a lawyer, or a journalist, or in business would not try to be a society woman too it might be different; but the woman who knows when she has done a day's work has yet to be born. Usually a woman's way is to keep doing until she drops. Working in this way has manifold evils. The most common trouble resulting from overexertion, either mentally or physically, is constipation of the bowels, with all its attendant horrors.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the most effectual remedy in the market. They work upon the system easily, naturally. There is no unpleasant nausea after taking them. No griping—no pain—no discomfort. They are composed of materials that go through the system gradually, collecting all impurities and, like the good little servants that they are, disposing of them effectually.
