REV. TOM DIXON'S FIASCO.

It is not surprising that all patriots should be deeply interested in the triumph of those theories of government which they think would be most conducive to national prosperity and individual happiness, and we cannot conceive of a well informed and patriotic character indifferent on the great issues of the day, but that men lose their balance and degrade the cause they favor, and humiliate those that might be useful in the cause is apparent. A fine example of this evil is shown in the report of the Rev. Tom Dixon's so-called sermon in New York. It is to be hoped that the report as THE STANDARD has clipped it is an exaggeration, and we would not admit it in our columns but for the fact that it seems that such is often the vein of a discourse from a Northern pulpit. Happily the mania of politico-religious harangues has not yet infested our Southern theologians and we fondly hope it never will.

GETS IT IN THE NECK.

Riotous Scenes in Tom Dixon's Church in New York—He Rants on Bryan and Free Silver and is Called a Liar—Says the Democrats Are Dead and in Hell—War if Bryan Wins.

Rev. Tom Dixon is at the front again. He made a political speech from his pulpit in the Academy of Music, in New York last Sunday, and there were riotous scenes. He made a vicious attack on Bryan, and his congregation hissed and howled, threw books and called him a liar. The Herald illustrates the riotous scene. After endorsing McKinley and gold, and paying a compliment to the Populists, saying that they are honest, he said: "When the Chicago Convention met, the Democratic party was dead and in hell. By a miracle the leopard changed its spots and gave up every principle that it had fought for one hundred years. This was done for the sole purpose of gaining a President and the spoils of that office. No reform movement ever entered the maw of democracy and came out anything but refuse. The leaders of the Democratic party saw that it was dead and its only chance was to seize on the new party and use it. Democracy sold itself for sixteen pieces of silver. The only chance for the Populists in the South is to support an independent ticket with Tom Watson on it."

Mr. Dixon then declared in favor of McKinley in the following words: "I believe that with such a crisis as now confronts us it is the duty of every patriotic citizen to vote a straight Republican ticket. I voted for Cleveland, and now before God, acknowledge my sin."

Then Mr. Bryan and his party were discussed by Mr. Dixon in a way that created the utmost excitement.

He said:—"The proposition of Mr. Bryan and his followers to pay the bonds of the United States, upon which one hundred cents on the dollar was raised, in coin worth only fifty-five cents is downright rascality."

Several persons shouted: "That's false!" "You are wrong!" "Shut up!" and many of those present hissed. For a moment Mr. Dixon hesitated and seemed stunned, but soon recovered himself and exclaimed:—"If the government does that it goes into the bunco steering business."

He was again interrupted by loud and prolonged hissing and shouts of "That's not right!" "You don't know what you are talking about!" One gray haired man arose and exclaimed, "I won't stand this any longer," and rushed from the building. He was followed by fully fifty others, who cried "Shame!" as they left the room.

Mr. Dixon became nervous and turned very pale, but was reassured by applause that overcame the hisses. It was evident that the majority of those present held the same views as Mr. Dixon.

"What Mr. Bryan and his followers propose to do," resumed Mr. Dixon, "is to permit me to pay $1,000 that I have borrowed with $500." Again the hissing began and some one shouted "Liar!" Men and women from all parts of the hall arose and left the room, many of whom hissed as they went out. This exodus seemed to clear the Academy of nearly all who opposed Mr. Dixon's remarks, for there was no more hissing.

Mr. Dixon resumed talking again by saying that Mr. Bryan and his followers proposed to permit the insurance companies to pay widows and orphans in a depreciated currency. Here a man shouted, "I am going to vote for Bryan!" and several persons exclaimed "Good!" "That's right!"

"If Bryan is elected two million more men will be idle, and, added to the one million idle men caused by the present administration, we will then have in this country three million idle men. Will these men starve? No, they will fight for bread, they will pillage, burn and murder. What will Mr. Bryan do? He will turn the army and navy on these men. The starving men will fire on the flag, and war will follow."

South Carolina primaries were held yesterday which involved the nomination of a United States Senator in place of Senator Irby. The great struggle was between Governor Evans and General Earle. Returns indicate the nomination of Gen. Earle. As Senator Tillman took a hand in the race the sitting down will be on Mr. Tillman with a weight about as heavy as that on the Governor, and as the reform issue was said to be in jeopardy it may be implied that South Carolina would like reform that did not have so much Tillman in it.

Sarsaparilla Sense.

Any sarsaparilla is sarsaparilla. True. So any tea is tea. So any flour is flour. But grades differ. You want the best. It's so with sarsaparilla. There are grades. You want the best. If you understood sarsaparilla as well as you do tea and flour it would be easy to determine. But you don't. How should you? When you are going to buy a commodity whose value you don't know, you pick out an old established house to trade with, and trust their experience and reputation. Do so when buying sarsaparilla.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has been on the market 30 years. Your grandfather used Ayer's. It is a reputable medicine. There are many Sarsaparillas—but only one Ayer's. It cures.

We sell as good Tinware as any house in Concord. Our prices are the lowest to be had. Recently one of our customers tried to exchange produce for a gallon bucket. They asked 15c, and when the spoke of the Racket selling cheaper he was told they did not handle cheap shoddy stuff like the Racket handled. Theirs was triple plated besides. The man came to us, we gave him 15 cents to buy the bucket, wishing to vindicate ourselves. He brought us the bucket. It was the same size single plate and weighed 1 ounce less than our 10c one. The party took our bucket and left us the "15c" one. See our extra heavy stamped dish pans at 35c.
