OONCORD, OCT., 5, 1896.
Mr. COON RETIRES.
We are sorry to see that Mr Charles L Coon retires from the Lincoln Democrat because he could not harmonize his views and his utterances with others interested in the Democrat and especially with Mr. S G Finley, the Chairman of the county Executive Committee.
Mr. Coon, like many of us, is opposed to tusion but unlike many of us is unable to submit to the powers that be. Some one has said that "He that fights and runs wav lives to fight another day."
We wish that Mr. Coon and many others would help their political brothers to gain a victory that is surely the best we have befors us if not just what we want

It is painfal to see that after Mr B Watson's extreme care to of fend no one in the whole state can vass that that missleading report o 2 trade by which Mr. Watson wa to retire from the gubernatorial race should come so near to doing mischief. We have ne doubt Mr Watson's better feeling will b atirred, when he reads the Observer's loyal but wounded spirit, $t$ the depth of the Observer's at findiag his loyalty questioned. byems to us that there can be no question as to the Observer's loyalty to the whole ticket, but The Stand. ARD has been straining both eyes to catch a little light on a newspa pers oppor a per's opportunity to canvass, and does little for fear of doing what the leaders do not want.

TU CUREA COLD IN ONEDAY Take laxative Bromo Quinine Tab lets, All druggists refund th money if it fails to cure. 25

The Charlotte Ooserver in its characteristic good humor congratulates its neighbor, the Democrat, on its privilege of admitting communcations from all sources. The Observer views it as one of its former, but now lost, pleasures. He speaks of having to turn down numbers of applicants. We wonder if he can do as he thinks best to the interests of all that a newspaper is for and not do it to his own hurt. If he can he is to be congratul ated TWO EXHIUSTED NATIONS.

Spain and Tarkey were once great nations. Both are today on the verge of utter collapse.
Turkey is sustaned solely by the jealousies of the great powers. But for the fear of all the great Euro fean nations that some one of them would gain advantage over the others in the process they would instantly ordor the Turk out of Earope, establish modern institu tions in his Asiatic dominions and sponge the kingdom of Turkey off the map.
It is a shameful thing that tven jealousy would compel civilized nan tions to sustain this hideous survival of barbarism or to withhold their hands from its destruction Bat the jealoasy is a commanding fact, and the Tark relies upon it fo secarity.
Thare is no such protection for Spain. England already controls the only atrategic point in that country worth considering. The end of Spanish domination outside her own borders is d"awing near.

The bankruptey of Spain is com plete. Her national debt is mor than she can carry. The Cuban rebellion and the wanton destruction of Cubs by Spain herself hav robbed her of her only really profit able source of revenue. The insur rection in the Phillippine Island has placed a new burden of military expenditure, while the demonstrated ability of the Cubans to twiddle their fingers at any force that may be sent to Weyler renders conques there an increasingly costly and an increasingly hopeless undertaking.
It is no wonder, therefore, 5 tha Spain's offer of a $$ 200,000,000$ loan in London has failed. Eren the guarantee of the loan by her railroads has not tempted investors.
It is time for Spain to retire from her colonial possessions. It is tim for her to go into the hands of a re ceiver, and Cuba does not propose to
