DON'T FORGET TO REGISTER.

Democrats must not forget to register tomorrow. It is the next to the last opportunity. There remain but two more Saturdays for this purpose, according to the new election law, and if you neglect this important duty on these two Saturdays, you lose your vote. The Republicans are registering en masse. This means the election of Russell, and a rule of Russellism, vindictive, malicious, revengeful; it means this unless the Democrats register their full voting strength tomorrow, Saturday the 10th, and the following Saturday, the 17th. Watson must be elected. He will bring good government to North Carolina. To neglect to register means the defeat of Bryan, and another four years of agitation before free coinage of silver can be accomplished, unless Democrats register their full voting strength. It means the election of McKinley, and the imposition of another burdensome tariff tax upon the consumers of the country, unless we register all our voters. Let no Democrat neglect to exercise the highest function of citizenship—the right of suffrage. And to vote he must first register.—Charlotte Observer.

HALE'S DIFFICULT TASKS.

Mr. G. W. B. Hale, of Virginia, who is an ardent Populist, has undertaken two difficult tasks. One is to remove Tom Watson from the ticket and the other is to persuade the Populists that Sewall is not a ghoul. Mr. Hale has written a letter to Watson, in which he gives very clear and strong reasons why Watson should withdraw, but that is like pouring water on a duck's back. It is not worth while to stop and talk about it.

Equally hopeless, perhaps, is his plea in behalf of Sewall, but it will bear repeating. He says:

"I am not one who thinks that because Mr. Sewall is at present a banker he is obdurate on the question of national banks. I do not blame the individual; I blame the law that legislates national banks."

This is the correct view, and it is very concisely stated. The Populist who is unbiased and who is honest in his convictions for free silver has here food for thought.—Charlotte Observer.

Georgia and Florida have both held elections this week. The result in both is encouraging to Democracy, and show that these two Statesman be safely counted for Bryan and silver in the coming election. Georgia's majority is estimated at about 30,000 and Florida's at about 15,000. The Democrats carried everything in Georgia including Tom Watson's district and county.—Charlotte News.

It is Said to Be True.

That leaves of parsley, eaten with a little vinegar will prevent the disagreeable consequences of tainted breath by onions.

That marrying a man without principle, conscience or religion is like putting to sea without a compass or chart or rudder.

That one ounce of lemon juice, one-fourth dram of powdered borax and one-half dram of sugar is good for freckles.

That matrimonial happiness depends, not on wealth, nor on appearance, but on good health, good manners, good principles and personal character.

That a room with a low ceiling will seem higher if the window curtains hang to the floor. Lambrequins may be used to extend the curtains to the ceiling, and thus carry out the effect.—Good Housekeeping.

That Broad Tire.

"The difference between a narrow tire and a broad one," said a leading Chicago business man the other day, "is simply that the narrow tire cuts up and ruins the roadway better by its use."

That is surely enough of a difference to make the farmer, who realizes the importance of the transportation question, consider a change, if at present he is using the narrow tire. But one farmer cannot make the road good by his use of the broad tire. There should be an organized movement in every township favorable to the broad tire, which instead of sinking deep into the roadway and rendering it impassable, serve the purpose of a roller, hardening it and making it more smooth.

The broad tire alone will not make good roads, for there are many kinds of difficulty to be overcome, and every mile of roadway offers one or more peculiar to itself. But in a country of fairly roads there is perhaps no one thing which will help so much to preserve them as the faithful and general employment of the broad tire. It is one of the reforms which lies within the reach of all to assist in, and it is a most important one.

The cost of bad roads to the people of the United States as estimated by Prof. Latta, of Purdue University, who bases his figures upon the certified experience of the farmer of forty Indiana counties, amounts to 77 cents an acre annually, or $50 a square mile of farm area. There are 1,000,000 square miles of farm area in the country, which gives us $500,000,000 as the amount annually assessed against the people as a bad roads tax—and the farmer pays fully 90 per cent. of it. He doesn't get a penny more for his product because he is obliged to haul it over abominable roads!—Farmer's Voice.

Thinking and Acting.

The man who thinks all the time and never acts accomplishes nothing. He is too sleepy to succeed. The man who acts all the time and never thinks is a plodder. He does what others tell him, but does nothing that he tells himself. The successful man not only thinks all the time, but backs up his thinking with acting.—Daily Reflector.
