CONCORD, OCT., 15, 1896.

MR. GLENN WITH US.

Hon. R B Glenn had a full house last night and filled many of his hearers with the enthusiasm that leads him to throw his powers of eloquence in the cause so dear to him. He was loudly cheered as he got off many centre shots. His graphic pictures of the consequences of bad legislation were touching indeed, and were well calculated to produce a serious study of our financial condition.

He paid beautiful tributes to our great standard-bearers Wm. J Bryan and C B Watson. For both he claimed ability, purity and Christian character.

He did not condone or reflect on the fusion, but pleads strongly for a full vote for the entire ticket that carries with it the greatest amount of Democratic principle as opposed to Republicanism. The speaker fully maintained the reputation he bears as a speaker, and we wish all could hear him.

However we may differ with campaign management and much of campaign agitation, there seems to be no chance of helping by standing back. Let all work solidly for Democratic success. If fusion with Populism is not entirely satisfactory yet it is better than Republican triumph.

WHAT ABOUT MILENDER?

DAILY STANDARD:—Some days ago you published a statement that a large factory in Newark, O., had pledged to advance the wages of their operatives 10 per cent. in the event of Bryan's election. Please do the subject justice to say that the factory referred to is the Central City Stove Works whose capital is $1,000 to $2,000, credit limited and whose enormous pay roll shows that they employ six men.

Yours truly,
GOLD BUG.

[Our esteemed friend "Gold Bug" will please notice that THE STANDARD copied the article referred to which embraces Mr Cunningham, of Newark, O., who we believe is a stove manufacturer. Of his capital, we know nothing, but the same clipping gives a like proposition from Mr. J H Milender, a mill owner in Ohio and Virginia. We have his word only that he employs a great number of hands. The clipping probably does not lose all its force after all.]

The fusion business is still going on and the Omniscient only knows where it will end. We are in it though now and if it is the effort to so bemuddle the situation as to effect the complete defeat of the Democracy it should be seen to that the object is not accomplished. Democrats should vote to elect most Democrats and fewest Republicans.

Watson's Condition.

Hon. C. B. Watson's law partner, Hon. J. C. Buxton, who is in Wilmington, tells the Messenger that Mr. Watson, on Sunday, was without fever, and improved. Mr. Buxton added: "He has been sick about eight days with inflammation of the bowels and has been confined to his bed all the time. Part of the time he was delirious with fever and was making speeches as if out on the canvass. Now that Mr. Watson's fever has been allayed, he expected to sit up awhile yesterday for the first time since he was taken sick. He is in good spirits, though his illness has considerably reduced him. He expects to be able in a week to resume his canvass, and sends word by Mr. Buxton that he hopes to speak in Wilmington before election day."—News and Observer.

Housekeeping.

If a woman is in good health there is no more healthful employment than housework. Generally speaking, there is no happier woman in the world. But how different when every breath is pain, every step torture! This state of health in nine cases out of ten comes from some derangement of the delicate, feminine orders of generation. The family doctor inquires first concerning these. He most usually insists upon an "examination." From this the modest woman naturally shrinks. She is right. Except in very unusual cases of "female weakness" examinations are unnecessary. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a simple, natural remedy for these ills. It cures safely, permanently.

ROBBED A TOWN.

A Gang of Desperadoes Looted Peris, Tenn., and Fire the Houses.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Oct. 14.—A gang of masked men looted the little town of Peris, in Henry county, early this morning. The citizens were awakened at 4 o'clock by the sound of an explosion and the firing of guns and revolvers. Those residents who were daring enough to leave their houses were warned to return under pain of death. In order to intimidate the people the gang kept up an incessant discharge of their firearms. There were eight men in the party and all were heavily masked. After robbing a number of stores the gang set fire to several buildings and then fled to the country. After the fires had been subdued a posse was formed and started in pursuit of the marauders. The exact amount of money and valuables secured by the gang is not known, but it is estimated that they got away with at least $3,000 in money.

Blair's Tribute to Vance.

When ex-Senator Henry W Blair was speaking in the court house to the Republicans on Tuesday afternoon, his eye caught sight of the fine likeness of Zebulon B Vance. Pausing in the middle of his speech, he turned, and pointing to the picture, said in a voice husky with emotion: "A great and good man! A personal friend of mine." The silence of death fell over the audience, and no wonder for the voice of Vance, though silent, yet speaketh in tones of pleading eloquence for the cause of the people. In his last great speech Senator Vance sounded the trumpet for the rallying of the people to the cause of honest money, the money of the constitution—gold and silver.

have, from the time of their preparation, been a continuous success with the public. And that means that Ayer's Pills accomplish what is promised for them; they cure where others fail. It was fitting, therefore, that the world-wide popularity of these pills should be recognized by the World's Fair medal of 1893—a fact which emphasizes the record:
