CONCORD, OCT., 20, 1896.

In this campaign all of the four candidates for the General Assembly are farmers. Mr. Hileman is the only one of the four that has been conspicuous in politics. Of course he feels less embarrassed in going before the people. He does not find himself blushing, he is over that. He has been an independent, a Democratic nominee, a Populist and we suppose is quite ready for any other party that may rise to do him honor. He can speak, of course he can. We heard him say in the campaign of '90, we think, that the Republicans have been in power twice since the war and the Democrats once and he seemed to think when he said it that he was saying something. Of course with a have-sack full of such vagueness he is not in want of something to say. But when it comes to good sound views and legislative purity and ability, our nominees have no need to feel any diffidence. Mr. Barringer and Mr. Nesbit go before the people with records of enviable yeomanry and eminent purity. If they don't make the welkin ring with their eloquence you'll find them firm for the right and strong against any measure in the legislature that would soil the skirts of North Carolina's Virtue.

CYRUS B. WATSON WILL WIN.

"Bob" Glenn Makes Out the Real Line of Battle.

In a letter to the Raleigh News and Observer, Hon. R. B. Glenn expresses himself on the political situation. The following is what he has to say:

"While some seem disposed to criticize harshly the action of our Executive committee in offering complete fusion to the Populists, I believe that when they have time quietly to consider the matter, that they all will agree with me, that the proposition was one that commends itself to the best element of both the Democratic and Populist parties.

"We have already fused on the electoral ticket, the platforms of the two parties on the questions of tariff, the income tax, trust and monopolies and finance being about the same.

"Both parties are pledged to use their best efforts to elect Mr. Bryan and to see to it that he is supported by a silver Congress. To do this, it is necessary to send a silver delegation to the House of Representatives, and to let no gold man be our next Senator.

"Again, while we felt certain that we could elect Mr. Watson Governor, still we know the means the Republicans were resorting to, by illegal registration, of colored men under age, who are not bona fide residents, or are ex-convicts, and so to avert even the possible change of Russell and his gang controlling the State, we offered the Populists honorable and fair fusion, giving them half of the State offices and pledging ourselves to elect Mr. Guthrie United States Senator. Such a fusion would at least have kept the State in the hands of the white people of the land, while now if we are defeated, it passes under the control of one, who seems from his speeches, to hate the best type of true men. In making the offer, the committee has my hearty approval, and after going all over the State, I believe, I can truly say, it would have been approved and endorsed by the better class of both parties.

"All thinking Populists know that Mr. Guthrie can not be elected. The race is between Watson and Russell, Candid as he always is, I feel assured, Mr. Guthrie himself will admit this, and if his people vote, so as to elect Mr. Russell then the odium of such an election must fall on them. It is useless to say the Democrats should have taken down their ticket, for one has only to look at the vote of 1892 and 1894, to see what was and is the strength of the two parties, and every candid mind will say our committee's offer was pre-eminently fair. They were to have Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer (these the two best offices,) Supreme Court Judge, four Congressmen and the United States Senator, and we the Governor, Auditor, Attorney-General, Superintendent of Public Instruction, five Congressmen and one Supreme Court Judge and one Superior Court Judge.

"Our offer being rejected, we will make the fight, believing that our people will never allow Russell to succeed. The registration is heavy, and shows if we do our duty and work we can and will win. Let all men in the State, who desire to see our State government left in safe hands, rally to the support of Mr. Watson and elect him by a handsome majority.

"Very truly yours,
"R. B. GLENN.
