WATSON'S CLARON CALL.

He Cannot Speak to the Voters But He Writes From His Sick Bed a Ringing Address to the People.

Hon. Cyrus B Watson, Democratic candidate for Governor is still quite sick and his recovery before the campaign ends is unlikely. He will be able to make no more speeches in this campaign, but he writes from his sick-bed a stirring appeal to the loyal men of North Carolina. In it he says:

"According to custom, esteemed for its usefulness as well as its antiquity in North Carolina, I desired to meet my opponent, Mr. Russell, in joint debate upon all question in this campaign, but they rejected my challenge and declined to stand up in the field with me before the people. From exposure and fatigue I have been stricken down with sickness and am now confined to my home. I am advised that I may not be able to again enter the campaign. Fearing this may be true, I write this that the voters in those sections of North Carolina I have not been able to reach may know my heart is with them. I write because I can not come to speak. I would that every letter in every word of this might be a tongue to shout a warning that comes from the surging depths of these anxious days—a warning against the blow to the liberty of the masses of the people that threatens us in the clinched fist of Mark Hanna. My own voice cannot now be raised in your hearing, but let the voice of this letter plead with you, not for myself, but for my name on the ticket and for the names of my comrades; not for myself or for them for our own sakes, but for us and our names only because the cause we represent is the righteous cause of a righteous, long suffering people, yourselves, who cry for deliverance and who yearn not for the 'purple and gold palaces,' but who seek only to dwell as their fathers intended they should, under their own vine and fig tree, where none dare to molest or make afraid."

State Fair Closed.

The State Fair of '96 is a thing of the past, yesterday being the closing day. It was one of the most successful fairs in the history of the Agricultural Society, and much credit is due Colonel Cameron for his untiring efforts to make it so.

Notice was given that at the next annual meeting a resolution would be offered providing that the fair be held in rotation at Asheville, Charlotte, Wilmington and Newberne.

Col. Cameron was re-elected President of the Association at a meeting held last evening.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gundersman, of Diamondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results. Trial bottles free at Fetzler's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

Scared By Two Mutton-Heads.

Mr. S L Klutz, proprietor of the Morris Hotel, is the owner of two sheep, and strange to say, they went astray. On Thursday night last two ladies who live on West Corbin street had occasion to visit on West Depot street, and in order to evade the keen eyes of a criticising public they would not come the street way, but crossed by the path that leads by the old Presbyterian church and graveyard, "over the hill." When reaching the lower end of the graveyard the sheep ran down the hill just in front of the ladies. The melancholy moon-beams and the ghostly appearance of the stray muttons, made the women feel very "sheepish." They were badly frightened, and thought that the spirits had certainly come for them. The ladies managed to reach Depot street before fainting, when their experience was revealed to a passer-by, who, with great courage dared to investigate the matter. Even his knees popped like clap-boards when the sheep moved leisurely along in front of him.

Hon. Chas. F. Crisp Dead.

Hon. Charles F Crisp, late Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, died in Atlanta, Ga., Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock of heart failure. He had been sick for some time, but his death was sudden and unexpected.

Mr. Crisp was at the time of his death a Congressman from his district, and the next General Assembly of Georgia would have doubtless elected him to the United States Senate had he lived. He was a Statesman and a lawyer, and has for years been among the most distinguished of America's great men in public service. He was known throughout the land and has been honored for his honesty, sagacity and sterling qualities. Not only Georgia, but the South and America loses a great man.

The famous signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is on every wrapper.

A Split Among the Negroes.

That there is a split among the negroes on the county and perhaps the State ticket is certain. The cause, it is alleged, is that campaign funds have been put in the hands of would-be leaders to be used for campaign purposes, but that said funds were appropriated to personal use. This was too much for some of the colored voters, who had been led to expect a part of Hanna's dough, and they resolved not to be sold and delivered without knowing something about the market price. A meeting of the disgruntled was called for last night, but for some reason was postponed to Monday night at which time complete organization will be effected. THE STANDARD was informed this morning by several of the bolting faction that at least seventy five negroes in town would support the full Democratic county ticket with the exception of Sheriff.

She Gained the Suit.

Some time ago Mrs. E M Newell, of Newell's, was put off the train near her home in a kind of a careless way. The train ran by the station and the conductor put her off in a ditch, and in doing so her leg was broken. She sued the railroad company for damage to the amount of $2,000. Last week the courts awarded to her $1,000 damage, which was willingly paid.

Mrs. Newell is a sister of Mr. Isaac Harris, of this place, and we rejoice to know that she has been properly recompensed for her misfortune.—Mooreville Record.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache indigestion, constipation, dizziness yields to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Fetzler's Drug Store.

How Much Did I Bring.

One of the Republicans manipulators went into a meeting of colored people Thursday night in the most humble way, and while pleading for his cause he was interrupted by one of the crowd who remarked: "Say I don't mind being sold, but please be so kind as to tell me how much I'll bring." He didn't get the desired information.

SILVER OR GOLD.

Better than either is a healthy liver. If the liver is O. K. the man is O. K. His blood is kept pure, his digestion perfect, and he can enjoy life and act intelligently and patiently upon the questions of the day. You all know what to take. You have known it for years. It is Simmons Liver Regulator—

For years you and your fathers have found it of sterling worth. It is and always has been put up only by J. H. Zeilin & Co. Take none but the genuine. It has the Red Z on the front of the wrapper, and nothing else is the same, and nothing so good.

The book of woman's life is divided into three chapters: Girlhood, womanhood, motherhood. At the time when a young girl passes into womanhood—turning the leaf as we may say between the first and second chapters of her existence—a little care and thoughtfulness will double her chances of future happiness and save many hours of suffering. Every young woman should have an intelligent understanding of her own physical make-up. Half knowledge which is little better than pure ignorance, opens the way to an untold amount of pain and wretchedness.

Few women realize the influence exerted on their bodily and mental well-being by the special organism of their sex. It is hard for them to believe that the little drain which goes on from day to day is sufficient to sap away the very life forces. Yet it is so. The weakness, exhaustion, melancholy; the periodical prostration and sometimes almost torture has no other cause, two-thirds of the time, than the abnormal unhealthy condition of the generative organs. Strangely enough even doctors often fail to recognize the truth. For this condition there is no other remedy in the world so helpful and certain as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It restores health and vigor to the feminine functions and renewed vitality to the entire body. It heals inflammation, stops discharges, strengthens the ligaments and builds up the internal tissues which cannot be reached by "local treatment." It is of inestimable value to young women and to prospective mothers, greatly lessening the pains and perils of childbirth if taken during pregnancy. During the "change of life" it is invaluable. Dr. Pierce's great book, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," has 400 pages, profusely illustrated. Over 90 pages are devoted to woman's diseases with suggestions for home-treatment. It will be sent free by World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y., on receipt of a one-cent stamp to cover cost of mailing only.

The Morgan & Wright Guarantee

The guarantee of the "good tires" is broad enough to cover almost any kind of ailments and to satisfy the most exacting rider, but the line must be drawn somewhere, and Morgan & Wright are trying to make it known to riders everywhere that the guarantee does not cover damages resulting from the carrying of anti-leak preparations inside the tire. By having as much air as possible in the M. & W. quick-repair tire before putting the tool into the puncture, and following the few other simple instructions in the catalogue, a permanent repair can be made in two minutes, at the roadside, without removing the tire from the rim.
