John Nesbit was tried before Esquire W J Hill Tuesday night, charged with an assault upon Will Murr. Nesbit was fined $5 and cost, which amounted to $8.05, and put under a peace bond of $50. Both are white boys and live at Cannonville.

Mr. John W Cook, keeper of the county home to-day (Wednesday) purchased from Cannons & Fetzer two pairs of undershirts and placed them in his buggy in rear of the store. Some sneakthief stole them. Mr. Cook has no idea who got them, but he thinks that two negroes who were in the lot and saw him put them away are the guilty ones.

At 9 o'clock tonight, at the home of the bride on East Depot street, Mr. Herbert E Bost and Miss Flora L Deaton will be married, in the presence of a number of intimate friends. Rev. C B Miller, of St. James Lutheran church, will officiate. Both of these young people are highly esteemed. We wish for them long years of happiness and matrimonial bliss.

Attorney General Frank I Osborne will speak at the court house tomorrow night. A little notice is all that is necessary for this gentleman to get a crowd. He was solicitor in Cabarrus Superior Court for a number of years and all of our people know what to expect from him. Those who have never heard Mr. Osborne should do so without fail. He's a good one.

Mr. L C Caldwell came in from his home at Statesville this morning and went out to Harrisburg, where he spoke at 1 o'clock. He is billed for a speech here tonight. ## Sound Money Speeches.

Mr. A Walker Otis addressed the people in the Court House last night on the great absorbing issues of the day.

Mr. Otis is not a candidate, but believing in the present monetary standard and being opposed to all else for which William McKinley stands, he endorses the Palmer and Buckner ticket.

Mr. Otis argued that the so-called demonetization of silver did not produce depression in prices and quoted statistics to show that it had nothing to do with evils laid to its charge.

He criticised that plank in the Chicago platform published in THE STANDARD recently as an effort to deprive men of the right of private contract.

We were not present and could not obtain a thorough report of the speech.

Prof. H T J Ludwig addressed the people of the Mt. Pleasant yesterday in the interest of the Palmer and Buckner ticket. We have been unable to procure a synopsis of the speech.

WHERE DID YOU GET

That Pretty Dress?

It certainly is beautiful, and My! What a fit.

I bought this from Gibson & Morrison. They always keep a full line of fashionable and cheap dress goods, and they have Butterick's Patterns, which you will find the most stylish and easiest to fit. I always use these patterns. Isn't my cape pretty, too? Look what splendid material, and the very latest style! They get new wraps every few days.

And don't forget their shoes. Mine are so much admired and make my foot look so "swell" and as for cheapness and wear they are the best. Take my advice and get your children shoes there. They have them all sizes and they will last till you are tired of them. In fact you will find anything they sell you good and cheap. Go to see them and you will believe me. Fashion sheets free.
